The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Nancy Bercaw, Ted Ownby, 2014-02-01 This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture reflects the dramatic increase in research on the topic of gender over the past thirty years revealing that even the most familiar subjects take on new significance when viewed through the lens of gender The wide range of entries explores how people have experienced understood and used concepts of womanhood and manhood in all sorts of obvious and subtle ways The volume features 113 articles 65 of which are entirely new for this edition Thematic articles address subjects such as sexuality respectability and paternalism and investigate the role of gender in broader subjects including the civil rights movement country music and sports Topical entries highlight individuals such as Oprah Winfrey the Grimke sisters and Dale Earnhardt as well as historical events such as the capture of Jefferson Davis in a woman's dress the Supreme Court's decision in Loving v Virginia and the Memphis sanitation workers strike with its slogan I AM A MAN Bringing together scholarship on gender and the body sexuality labor race and politics this volume offers new ways to view big questions in southern history and culture

The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Charles Reagan Wilson, 2014-02-01 This volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture addresses the cultural social and intellectual terrain of myth manners and historical memory in the American South Evaluating how a distinct southern identity has been created recreated and performed through memories that blur the line between fact and fiction this volume paints a broad multihued picture of the region seen through the lenses of belief and cultural practice The 95 entries here represent a substantial revision and expansion of the material on historical memory and manners in the original edition They address such matters as myths and memories surrounding the Old South and the Civil War stereotypes and traditions related to the body sexuality gender and family such as debutante balls and beauty pageants institutions and places associated with historical memory such as cemeteries monuments and museums and specific subjects and objects of myths including the Confederate flag and Graceland Together they offer a compelling portrait of the southern way of life as it has been imagined lived and contested

Contemporary Southern Identity Rebecca Bridges Wats, 2013-08-28 In Contemporary Southern Identity Rebecca Bridges Watts explores the implications of four public controversies about southern identity debates about the Confederate flag in South Carolina the gender integration of the Virginia Military Institute the display of public art in Richmond and Trent Lott's controversial comments regarding Strom Thurmond's 1948 segregationist presidential bid While such debates may serve as evidence of the South's battle over the past they can alternatively be seen as harbingers of a changing South These controversies highlight the diversity of voices in the conversation of what it means to be a southerner The participants in these conflicts may disagree about what southern identity should be but they all agree that such discussions are a crucial part of being southern Recent debates as to the place of Old South symbols and institutions in the South of the new millennium are evidence of a changing order But a changing South is no less distinctive If southerners can find unity and distinctiveness in their identification they may even be able to serve as a model for the increasingly divided United States The very debates portrayed in the mass media as evidence of an unfinished Civil War can instead be interpreted as proof that the South has progressed and is having a common dialogue as to what its diverse members want it to be Proceedings of the ... Annual Convention of the Southern Supply and Dealers' Association Southern Supply and Machinery Dealers' Association, 1914

The Southern Workman, 1912 The May or June issue of 1900-1939 includes the report of the institute's president for 1900-1939 Southern Ladies' Book, 1853 The Southern Dental Journal and Luminary, 1892
