A Siberian History of Soviet Film Caroline Damiens, 2024-09-05 In A Siberian History of Soviet Film Caroline Damiens explores how the depictions of the indigenous Peoples of the North in Soviet cinema and television evolved between 1920 and 1980 Damiens combines a detailed analysis of key works such as Forest People 1928 Igdenbu 1930 Dersu Uzala 1961 1975 Tymancha s Friend 1969 and The Most Beautiful Ships 1972 with primary sources like press articles archives and interviews to reveal how these cinematic portrayals were created and negotiated providing insight into the concepts of progress and authenticity in the Soviet context She emphasises the role of indigenous individuals in shaping their cinematic image both in front of and behind the camera highlighting the works of lesser known figures like Suntsai Geonka Zinaida Pikunova and Iurii Rytkeu In doing so Damiens emphasises the multifaceted nature of film where interpretations differ based on the perspectives of those involved Using a decolonial approach and drawing from extensive archival materials Damiens prompts a re evaluation of the Soviet cinematic past and present by centring indigenous voices in the narrative In doing so she provides a thorough exploration of the intricate relationship between culture representation and identity in Soviet cinema

Pop Culture Russia! Birgit Beumers, 2005-06-21 A revealing look at contemporary Russian popular culture exploring the historical and social influences that make it unique Pop music is only one aspect of contemporary

Russian culture that has taken some unexpected turns in the chaotic aftermath of the Soviet Union's collapse. Television and advertising, theater and cinema, athletics and religion, even fashion and food now reflect more exposure to the West yet remain in essence distinctively Russian. Pop Culture Russia introduces readers to the fascinating, often surprising post-Soviet cultural landscape. With chapters on media, the arts, recreation, religion, and consumerism, the book offers an insightful survey of Russian mass culture from the death of Stalin in 1953 to the present, exploring the historical significance of important events and trends as well as the social and political contexts from which they emerged.

Citizenship and Citizenship Education in a Changing World Orit Ichilov, 2013-12-19 Political, economic, technological, and cultural changes have taken place all over the globe, changes which have transformed the meanings of citizenship and citizenship education. This volume represents an effort to analyze the implications of these changes.

Entangled East and West Simo Mikkonen, Giles Scott-Smith, Jari Parkkinen, 2018-12-17 Despite increasing scholarship on the cultural Cold War, focus has been persistently fixed on superpowers and their actions, missing the important role played by individuals and organizations all over Europe during the Cold War years. This volume focuses on cultural diplomacy and artistic interaction between Eastern and Western Europe after 1945. It aims at providing an essentially European point of view on the cultural Cold War, providing fresh insight into little-known connections and cooperation in different artistic fields. Chapters of the volume address photography and architecture, popular as well as classical music, theatre and film, and fine arts. By examining different actors ranging from individuals to organizations such as universities, the volume brings new perspective on the mechanisms and workings of the cultural Cold War. Finally, the volume estimates the pertinence of the Cold War and its influence in post-1991 world. The volume offers an overview on the role culture played in international politics as well as its role in the Cold War more generally through interesting examples and case studies.

Enemy Number One Rósa Magnúsdóttir, 2019 From Stalin's anti-American campaign to Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence policy, this book addresses the Soviet propaganda and ideology directed towards the United States during the early Cold War.

Narrating the Nation Stefan Berger, Linas Eriksonas, Andrew Mycock, 2008 A sustained and systematic study of the construction, erosion, and reconstruction of national histories across a wide variety of states is highly topical and extremely relevant in the context of the accelerating processes of Europeanization and globalization. However, as demonstrated in this volume, histories have not of course only been written by professional historians. Drawing on studies from a number of different European nation-states, the contributors to this volume present a systematic exploration of the representation of the national paradigm. In doing so, they contextualize the European experience in a more global framework by providing comparative perspectives on the national histories in the Far East and North America. As such, they expose the complex variables and diverse actors that lie behind the narration of a nation.
