John Wilkins,1690 A Discourse concerning the Gift of Prayer, etc John WILKINS (Bishop of Chester.),1667 A Discourse concerning the Gift of Prayer ... Whereunto may be added Ecclesiastes: or, a Discourse concerning the Gift of Preaching John WILKINS (Bishop of Chester.),1653 The Gift of Prayer Annette Bradley,2017-07-30 Prayer has been in the earth for as long as man has existed It was in the garden that God and man began to communicate We find no account of angels praying for their divinely appointed position is to worship and minister to the heirs of salvation In the world of vast technology and immediate Internet access we find that everyone expects quick fixes and instant results Because of this expectation and the society in which we live most of the time answers are delivered However there are some patterns orders and systems that will never change They are finely engrafted and woven into our world by someone who is far greater than we All too sad many of the human cultural and societal based outcomes really aren't new but if examined closely we will find paths already established According to the preacher in Ecclesiastes There is nothing new under the sun As such there are patterns in prayer that will never change the order that is We must also come in tune with the gift that rests within us which is the ability to pray We will walk this journey together step by step as we demonstrate that prayer is not just a form but an active experience in which we should expect God's divine presence No experience can be pre-determined however if we totally allow the Spirit of the Lord to lead us then we are sure to enter into a realm of prayer never imagined It is a realm of love peace brokenness oneness wholeness and ultimately clay in the Master's hand where only His will be done Divine revelations are dropping into the hearts and minds of God's people every second They are ascertained not from the form of prayer but through sincere prayer You must know that there are higher heights and deeper depths in prayer This book is a personal invitation to invite people from all walks of life to the ultimate experience beyond prayer and into His presence touching the heart of God A Father's Gift of Prayer Tommy Boone, 2011-08-02 Today the world is full of conflict Many children and families are confused They need to know that the Son of God Jesus Christ is the way to a better today and tomorrow and it is through the courage and persistence of prayer Whether you are a young father or an older father married or divorce this book will help you understand the power of prayer in living your life and helping your family and or children to deal with the struggles of growing up The Gift of Prayer Fellowship In Prayer, 1995 The Gift of Prayer, 1995 The Gift of Prayer : [embracing the Sacred in the Everyday] Margaret Silf, 2004-01-01 The Gift of Prayer Jennie Allen-Burton, 2010-02-01 Prayer has played a unique role in the lives of believers throughout history It has brought forth results during the time when people were enslaved or deprived of their freedom Prayer is used during meditation so God can minister to the soul Man believes that it has an invisible connecting link between man soul and the spirit Man use prayer to increase their belief that God has special interest in their life and he will help them It is a universal belief that one can pray to the heavenly father for anything The writer wants the reader to know that prayer is an infinite message It can be used as one's constancy reference Prayer may have a message that comforts the individual's soul It provides a sense of tranquility The Gift of Prayer is an individual and affirming source for everyone to use during his or her daily meditation A Discourse Concerning the Gift of Prayer John Wilkins, 1653 The Gift of Prayer, 2023-11-20 The Gift of Prayer was written with three goals First to teach believers how to live a life of sincere gratitude toward the Lord through a life of fervent humble and sincere prayer Second to demonstrate the power of prayer through examples of God's response to the petitions of His people Third to unleash the power of prayer in our increasingly angry anxious hurried and hurting world With regard to teaching believers to have a heart of gratitude through fervent prayer it is important for every child of God to see the daily working of the Lord amid the peaks and valleys of life When we consider the protection and provision of the Lord in the bright light of our past prayers we can gratefully go to Him with our present requests and look forward to going to Him for our concerns tomorrow The second purpose of The Gift of Prayer is to record specific instances when God has answered the prayers of His people By conveying these examples the hope is that the effectiveness of prayer will be put to the test and found to be incredibly powerful What that means to you the reader is that your most pressing prayer request right now can be lifted to the Lord right now The third goal is to unleash the power of prayer in the world around us whether that be in our homes across town or around the world The hope is that we will experience a great spiritual revival in our day A truly global movement requires the powerful working of the Holy Spirit faithful preaching of God s Word a commitment to discipleship a renewed emphasis on missions and evangelism and fervent prayer The hope of this book is to help turn our hearts back to our first love which is our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ He is our greatest treasure The Gift of Prayer ,2000 The Gift of Prayer Fellowship in Prayer,1997-10-23 Prayers for all faiths are offered in this unique gift edition of over 400 classic and contemporary prayers This beautiful book of truly inspiring prayers shows us the many varied ways in which God s spirit moves among us An invaluable source Henri J M Nouwen A Discourse Concerning the Gift of Prayer John Wilkins,1704
