race to carry knowledge of remarkable technology back to Earth and it seems someone does not want the information shared The finest novel in a merry mood that Simak has yet given us Fritz Leiber This brilliant volume represents the genre at its very best reaffirming that without Simak science fiction would have been without its most humane element its most humane spokesman for the wisdom of the ordinary person and the value of life lived close to the land James Gunn When the Fires Burn High and The Wind is From the North Robert J. Ewald,2006-04-01 Born in 1904 Clifford D Simak sold his first science fiction story in 1930 and was soon publishing widely in the pulp magazines He also pursued a separate career as a journalist and writer on science and other popular topics He gained widespread fame in the SF world with the first of his series of City stories published in Astounding Science Fiction in 1944 these were collected together in the book of the same title which has remained almost continuously in print ever since Simak was best known for his pastoral and humanitarian themes as exemplified in his Hugo Award winning novel Way Station 1963 In later years he wrote both fantasy and SF stories and novels winning many additional accolades for his work He died in 1988 Robert J Ewald provides the first extended look at Simak s writing from his earliest pulp stories to the sophisticated fiction of his later years Complete with Chronology Notes imagination by an author named Grand Master by the Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers of America In the collection s title story Frederick Gray is closing in on seventy and has outlived his usefulness as a professor of law He has no family his best friend fellow faculty member Ben Lovell has recently died Before Gray moves into a retirement home he takes a final canoe trip to a favorite fishing spot he and Lovell had visited many times only to find that someone has built a house on the remote riverside When an accident leaves Gray stranded and in pain he returns to the shelter seeking aid and instead finds a new reason for living Nine additional tales showcase Clifford D Simak s talent for spinning stories that allow us to glimpse the possibilities of life beyond Earth as well as expand our wisdom of what it means to be human Each story includes an introduction by David W Wixon literary executor of the Clifford D Simak estate and editor of this ebook All the Wonder that Would Be Stephen Webb,2017-05-03 It has been argued that science fiction SF gives a kind of weather forecast not the telling of a fortune but rather the rough feeling of what the future might be like The intention in this book is to consider some of these bygone forecasts made by SF and to use this as a prism through which to view current developments in science and technology In each of the ten main chapters dealing in turn with antigravity space travel aliens time travel the nature of reality invisibility robots means of transportation augmentation of the human body and last but not least mad scientists common assumptions once made by the SF community about how the future would turn out are compared with our modern understanding of various scientific phenomena and in some cases with the industrial scaling of computational and technological breakthroughs A further intention is to explain how the predictions and expectations of SF were rooted in the scientific orthodoxy of their day and use this to explore how our scientific understanding of various topics has developed over time as well as to demonstrate how the ideas popularized in SF subsequently influenced working scientists Since gaining a BSc in physics from the University of Bristol and a PhD in theoretical physics from the University of Manchester Stephen Webb has worked in a variety of universities in the UK He is a regular contributor to the Yearbook of Astronomy series and has published an undergraduate textbook on distance determination in astronomy and cosmology as well as several popular science books

Abandoned Derek Hart, 2018-03-06 Danielle Draganov was in no way the typical woman if there was such a thing to describe a 25 year old beauty Instead of going to college like most of her friends she got a job and spent her free time searching through abandoned buildings Officially she was known as an urban explorer an apt description for her escapades but too simplistic to cover the range of her adventures Danielle was considered something of a legend among her peers She took her hobby seriously and without hesitation explored places others bypassed Perhaps this is why she got in so much trouble in the first place Then one day while searching through an enormous abandoned piano factory on the South Side of Chicago Danielle literally runs into Michael Paxton He too is an abandoned building explorer So begins a torrid romance with a significantly older man
