The Modern Century:

An Eye on the Modern Century Henry McBride, Steven Watson, 2000-01-01 Philippe Sands has extensively revised this leading textbook to include all new developments since 1994 including all the international case law ICJ ITLOS WTO human rights etc and new international legislation genetically modified organisms the Kyoto Protocol oil pollution chemicals etc It is the most comprehensive account of the principles and rules relating to the protection of the environment and the conservation of natural resources It incorporates all the key material from the 1992 Rio Declaration and subsequent developments Topics include the legal and institutional framework the field's historic development standards for general application in addition to the protection of the atmosphere oceans etc the techniques available for implementation such as the environmental impact assessment and liability compensation for environmental damage It will be used on its own as an academic course text as well as a reference text for practitioners Spanning Japan's Modern Century Hugh

Borton, 2002-01-01 In 1942 Hugh Borton then a 39 year old assistant professor of Japanese history was called to serve in the State Department Here he rose rapidly to become one of the principal architects of United States policy toward post war Japan Drawn from Borton's personal papers this work provides a fresh and intimate picture of the man who played a pivotal role in defining the meaning of unconditional surrender for Japan retaining the Emperor and designing Japan's post war constitution It sheds fascinating new light on the development of the United States post war Japanese policy and the often fractious relationships between the various agencies tasked with its creation and implementation The author of Japan's Modern Century director of Columbia University's East Asian Institute and later president of the Association for Asian Studies Hugh Borton dedicated his life to strengthening the academic cultural and humanitarian ties between Japan and the United States Chinese Literature in the Second Half of a Modern Century Pang-Yuan Chi, David Der-wei

Wang, 2000-09-22 an important contribution to the study of recent Chinese literature Choice This fine scholarly survey of Chinese literature since 1949 discusses such trends as modernism nativism realism root seeking and scar literature misty poets and political feminist and societal issues in modern Chinese literature Library Journal This volume is a survey of modern Chinese literature in the second half of the twentieth century It has three goals 1 to introduce figures works movements and debates that constitute the dynamics of Chinese literature from 1949 to the end of the century 2 to depict the enunciative endeavors ranging from ideological treatises to avant garde experiments that inform the polyphonic discourse of Chinese cultural politics 3 to observe the historical factors that enacted the interplay of literary post modernities across the Chinese communities in the Mainland Taiwan Hong Kong and overseas Exploring the Archaeology of the Modern

City in Nineteenth-century Australia Tim Murray, Penny Crook, 2019-11-05 This book presents research into the urban archaeology of 19th century Australia It focuses on the detailed archaeology of 20 cesspits in The Rocks area of Sydney and the Commonwealth Block site in Melbourne It also includes discussions of a significant site in Sydney First Government

House The book is anchored around a detailed comparison of contents of 20 cesspits created during the 19th century and examines patterns of similarity and dissimilarity presenting analyses that work towards an integration of historical and archaeological data and perspectives The book also outlines a transnational framework of comparison that assists in the larger context related to building a truly global archaeology of the modern city This framework is directly related a multi scalar approach to urban archaeology Historical archaeologists have been advocating the need to explore the archaeology of the modern city using several different scales or frames of reference The most popular and most basic of these has been the household However it has also been acknowledged that interpreting the archaeology of households beyond the notion that every household and associated archaeological assemblage is unique requires archaeologists and historians to compare and contrast and to establish patterns These comparisons frequently occur at the level of the area or district in the same city where archaeologists seek to derive patterns that might be explained as being the result of status class ethnicity or ideology Other less frequent comparisons occur at larger scales for example between cities or countries acknowledging that the archaeology of the modern western city is also the archaeology of modern global forces of production consumption trade immigration and ideology formation This book makes a contribution to that general literature

The Modern/Colonial/Capitalist World-System in the Twentieth Century Ramón Grosfoguel, Ana Margarita

Cervantes-Rodríguez, 2002-07-30 An important building block for further advancing world system theory this book considers the theory from the perspectives of global processes and antisystemic movements feminist theory and the aftermath of the colonial system The volume addresses three myths tied to Eurocentric forms of thinking objectivist and universalist knowledges the decolonization of the modern world and developmentalism All three myths the authors argue conceal the continued hierarchical and unequal relations of domination and exploitation between European and Euro American centers and non European peripheral regions In this volume world system scholars address these and related aspects of the modern colonial capitalist world system Addressing the myth of universalist knowledge the volume reminds us that our knowledge is situated in the gender class racial and sexual hierarchies of a specific region in the world system while the coloniality of power additionally situates our knowledge The volume further argues that the postcolonial era retains the hierarchy of colonialism and the possibility of national development without global structural changes is one of the greatest 20th century myths Taking these perspectives into consideration the contributors examine and help to refine classic world system theory
