The Monkey In The Mirror Essays On The Science Of What Makes Us Human:

The Monkey in the Mirror Ian Tattersall, 2021-03-19 An absorbing look at how our species evolved from the curator of human evolution at the American Museum of Natural History Kirkus Reviews What makes us so different from those other animals How did we get this way How do we know And what exactly are we These questions are what make human evolution a subject of general fascination Ian Tattersall one of those rare scientists who is also a graceful writer addresses them in this delightful book Tattersall leads the reader around the world and into the far reaches of the past showing what the science of human evolution is up against from the sparsity of evidence to the pressures of religious fundamentalism Looking with dispassion and humor at our origins Tattersall offers a wholly new definition of what it is to be human Unparalleled insight Donald C Johanson author of Lucy The Beginnings of Humankind The Monkey in the Mirror Ian Tattersall, 2003-01 Offers fresh insight into the fundamental questions of our origins including what makes us different how we got this way and how we can prove it Reprint 20 000 first printing How History Made the Mind David Martel Johnson, 2003 How History Made the Mind David Martel Johnson argues that what we now think of as reason or objective thinking is not a natural product of the existence of an enlarged brain or culmination of innate biological tendencies Rather it is a way of learning to use the brain that runs counter to the natural characteristics involved in being an animal a mammal and a primate Johnson defends his theory of mind as a cultural artifact against objections and uses it to question a number of currently fashionable positions in philosophy of mind known theories of Julian Jaynes which Johnson argues go too far in the direction of emphasizing the dissimilarities between ancient and modern ways of thinking The First Word Christine Kenneally, 2007-07-19 An accessible exploration of a burgeoning new field the incredible evolution of language The first popular book to recount the exciting very recent developments in tracing the origins of language The First Word is at the forefront of a controversial compelling new field Acclaimed science writer Christine Kenneally explains how a relatively small group of scientists that include Noam Chomsky and Steven Pinker assembled the astounding narrative of how the fundamental process of evolution produced a linguistic ape in other words us Infused with the wonder of discovery this vital and engrossing book offers us all a better understanding of the story of humankind Creation and Humanity Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2015-03-26 The third installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This third volume of Veli Matti Karkkainen s ambitious five volume theology project develops a Christian theology of creation and humanity theological anthropology in dialogue with the Christian tradition with contemporary theology in all its global and contextual diversity and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism In constructing his theology of creation and humanity Karkkainen uniquely engages the natural sciences including physical cosmological and neuroscientific theories He devotes particular attention to the topics of divine action in a world subjected to scientific study environmental pollution human flourishing and the theological implications of evolutionary theory with regard to both cosmos and humanity Projecting a

Camera Edward Branigan, 2013-08-21 In Projecting a Camera film theorist Edward Branigan offers a groundbreaking approach to understanding film theory Why for example does a camera move What does a camera know And when does it know it What is the camera's relation to the subject during long static shots What happens when the screen is blank Through a wide ranging engagement with Wittgenstein and theorists of film he offers one of the most fully developed understandings of the ways in which the camera operates in film With its thorough grounding in the philosophy of spectatorship and narrative Projecting a Camera takes the study of film to a new level With the care and precision that he brought to Narrative Comprehension and Film Edward Branigan maps the ways in which we must understand the role of the camera the meaning of the frame the role of the spectator and other key components of film viewing By analyzing how we think discuss and marvel about the films we see Projecting a Camera offers insights rich in implications for our understanding of film and film studies

The Anthropology of Extinction Genese Marie Sodikoff, 2012 We live in an era marked by an accelerating rate of species death but since the early days of the discipline anthropology has contemplated the death of languages cultural groups and ways of life The essays in this collection examine processes of and our understanding of extinction across various domains The contributors argue that extinction events can be catalysts for new cultural social environmental and technological developments that extinction processes can paradoxically be productive as well as destructive The essays consider a number of widely publicized cases island species in the Galapagos and Madagascar the death of Native American languages ethnic minorities under pressure to assimilate in China cloning as a form of species regeneration and the tiny hominid Homo floresiensis fossils hobbits recently identified in Indonesia The Anthropology of Extinction offers compelling explorations of issues of widespread concern

The Lighting of the Fire Fr. Benigno P. Beltran, 2019-10-15 The book contains deeply insightful objectively argued clear and succinct and synthesized ideas in education philosophy theory and practice

The World from Beginnings to 4000 BCE Ian Tattersall, 2008-02 In this lively and readable introduction renowned anthropologist Ian Tattersall thoroughly examines both fossil and archaeological records to trace human evolution from the earliest beginnings of our zoological family Hominidae through the appearance of Homo sapiens to the Agricultural Revolution

Cultural Evolution and its Discontents Robert Watson, 2018-12-07 People worry that computers robots interstellar aliens or Satan himself brilliant stealthy ruthless creatures may seize control of our world and destroy what's uniquely valuable about the human race Cultural Evolution and its Discontents shows that our cultural systems especially those whose last names are -ism are already doing that and doing it so adeptly that we seldom even notice Like other parasites they've blindly evolved to exploit us for their own survival Creative arts and humanistic scholarship are our best tools for diagnosis and cure The assemblages of ideas that have survived like the assemblages of biological cells that have survived are the ones good at protecting and reproducing themselves They aren't necessarily the ones that guide us toward our most admirable selves or our healthiest future Relying so heavily on culture to protect our uniquely open minds from cognitive overload makes us vulnerable to hijacking by the systems that co evolve with us Recognizing the selfish Darwinian functions of these systems makes sense of many aspects of history politics economics and popular culture What drove the Protestant Reformation Why have the Beatles The Hunger Games and paranoid science fiction thrived and how was hip hop co opted What alliances helped neoliberalism out compete Communism and what alliances might enable environmentalism to overcome consumerism Why are multiculturalism and university trained elites provoking working class nationalist backlash In a digital age how can we use numbers without having them use us instead Anyone who has wondered how our species can be so brilliant and so stupid at the same time may find an answer here human mentalities are so complex that we crave the simplifications provided by our cultures but the cultures that thrive are the ones that blind us to any interests that don t correspond to their own
