The Moors Islam In The West:

The moors Michael Brett,1985 The Moors David Nicolle,2001-01-25 The high point of medieval Islamic expansion was the 700 year presence of the Moors in Spain and Portugal The Arab and Berber conquest was followed by the establishment of a richly distinct culture in Andalusia where for a while Muslim and Christian co operated as often as they fought The rise and fall of successive Islamic dynasties brought new invaders fragmentation and disunity and the growing Christian kingdoms to the north eventually doomed the amirate of Granada the last Moorish bastion which fell to the Castilians in 1492 The colourful armies of Western Islam are described and illustrated here in fascinating detail Islam and the West Bernard Lewis,1994-10-27 Bernard Lewis brings together in this volume eleven essays that open doors to the innermost domains of Islam Lewis ranges far and wide in these essays He includes long pieces such as his capsule history of the interaction in war and peace in commerce and culture between Europe and its Islamic neighbors and shorter ones such as his deft study of the Arabic word watan and what its linguistic history reveals about the introduction of the idea of patriotism from the West Offering valuable background to Middle East conflicts today Islam and the West presents the reflections of an eminent authority on a little understood region of the world The Bloomsbury Reader on Islam in the West Edward E. Curtis,2015-10-22 For more than a millennium Islam has been a vital part of Western civilization Today however it is sometimes assumed that Islam is a foreign element inside the West and even that Islam and the West are doomed to be in perpetual conflict The need for accurate reliable scholarship on this topic has never been more urgent The Bloomsbury Reader on Islam in the West brings together some of the most important up to date scholarly writings published on this subject The Reader explores not only the presence of Muslim religious practitioners in Europe and the Americas but also the impact of Islamic ideas and Muslims on Western politics societies and cultures It is ideal for use in the university classroom with an extensive introduction by Edward E Curtis IV and a timeline of key events in the history of Islam in the West A brief introduction to the author and the topic is provided at the start of each excerpt Part 1 on the history of Islam in the West probes the role of Muslims and the significance of Islam in medieval early modern and modern settings such as Islamic Spain colonial era Latin America sixteenth century France nineteenth century Crimea interwar Albania the post World War II United States and late twentieth century Germany Part 2 focuses on the contemporary West examining debates over Muslim citizenship the war on terrorism anti Muslim prejudice and Islam and gender while also providing readers with a concrete sense of how Muslims practise and live out Islamic ideals in their private and public lives Routledge Handbook of Islam in the West Roberto Tottoli,2022-02-21 With new topics and contributions this updated second edition discusses the history and contemporary presence of Islam in Europe and America The book debates the relevance and multi faceted participation of Muslims in the dynamics of Western societies challenging the changing perception on both sides Collating over 30 chapters written by experts from around the world the volume presents a wide range of perspectives Case studies from the Muslim presence in the Iberian Peninsula between the Middle Ages and the modern age set off the Handbook along with an outline of Muslims in America up to the twentieth century The second part covers concepts around new conditions in terms of consolidating identities the emergence of new Muslim actors the appearance of institutions and institutional attitudes the effects of Islamic presence on the arts and landscapes of the West and the relational dynamics like ethics and gender Exploring the influence of Islam particularly its impact on society culture and politics this interdisciplinary volume is a key resource for policymakers academics and students interested in the history of Islam religion and the contemporary relationship between Islam and the West

Islam in the West Yinka Olomojobi, 2023-10-18 The evolution of Islam in the West and the utopian ideology of radical Muslims have ushered in political discussion in the international sphere This book investigates the transposition of relevance from the West to Muslim civilization and the construction of reality of Muslims identity in Western societies It explores different facets of Muslims and multiculturalism in constructing Muslims identity in Western societies To this end this book focuses on evolving perceptions on Muslims in the West It does this by explaining and evaluating the symbiotic relationship between Islam and the West In particular it analyses the behaviour of Muslims and their pursuance of the concept of religious nationalism within Western societies The central aim of this study is to explore the difficulties in the assimilation and integration of Muslims in Western societies It will be useful for political scientists religious scholars and enquirers into Islam in Western societies

Islam and the West Mohammed Jabar, 2014-11-01 Since its origins in the deserts of Arabia fourteen centuries ago Islam has grown until today it has one and a half billion followers nearly a quarter of mankind Today Islam is feared and distrusted by much of the Western world for its association with religious extremism and terrorism although the vast majority of Muslims believe only in peace love and service to Allah and assert that extremism has no place in their faith

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 2, The Western Islamic World, Eleventh to Eighteenth Centuries Maribel Fierro, 2010-11-04 Volume 2 of The New Cambridge History of Islam is devoted to the history of the Western Islamic lands from the political fragmentation of the eleventh century to the beginnings of European colonialism towards the end of the eighteenth century The volume embraces a vast area from al Andalus and North Africa to Arabia and the lands of the Ottomans In the first four sections scholars all leaders in their particular fields chart the rise and fall and explain the political and religious developments of the various independent ruling dynasties across the region including famously the Almohads the Fatimids and Mamluks and of course the Ottomans The final section of the volume explores the commonalities and continuities that united these diverse and geographically disparate communities through in depth analyses of state formation conversion taxation scholarship and the military

Islam and the West Anwar G. Chejne, 1984-06-30 Shortly after the conquest of Granada in 1492 by the Catholic kings Muslim subjects in Spain became known derogatorily as Moriscos Moros Muhammadans Hagarans and Saracens despite the fact that they were forced to accept the sacrament of baptism They were relegated to the margin of Christian society considered aliens in their own land and subjected to strictures and persecution. In turn the Moriscos developed their own attitude which they expressed in an extensive literature in Aljamiado their Spanish dialect written in Arabic script. This literature was for the most part inspired by Arabic models reiterating Islamic values through the vehicles of history legends epic tales stories wisdom sayings and sorcery. Written mostly during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Aljamiado literature is significant for the study of cultural change Islam and the West. The Moriscos is the first comprehensive study of this long neglected subject. Chejne surveys and analyzes the self expression of the Moriscos and assesses their status as a minority struggling for survival placing them in the social context of ideological conflict the clash of religions and cultures and differing perceptions. This book provides a more complete picture of the literatures and cultures of medieval Spain.

Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Pade Badru, Brigid M. Sackey, 2013-05-23. Islam in Africa South of the Sahara. Essays in Gender Relations and Political Reform draws together contributions from scholars that focus on changes taking place in the practice of the religion and their effects on the political terrain and civil society. Contributors explore the dramatic changes in gender relations within Islam on the continent occasioned in part by the events of 9/11 and the response of various Islamic states to growing negative media coverage. These explorations of the dynamics of religious change reconfigured gender relations and political reform consider not only the role of state authorities but the impact of ordinary Muslim women who have taken to challenging the subordinate role assigned to them in Islam. Essays are far ranging in their scope as the future of Islam in sub-Saharan Africa falls under the microscope with contributors addressing such topics as the Islamic view of the historic Arab enslavement of Africans and colonialist ventures studies of gender politics in Gambia northern Nigeria and Ghana surveys of the impact of Sharia law in Nigeria and Sudan the political role of Islam in Somalia South Africa and African diaspora communities. Islam in Africa South of the Sahara is an ideal reader for students and scholars of international politics comparative theology race and ethnicity comparative sociology African and Islamic studies.
