The Mother Of All Laughter Sarah And The Genesis Of Comedy:

Celluloid Sermons Terry Lindvall, Andrew Quicke, 2011-10-01 Christian filmmaking done outside of the corporate Hollywood industry and produced for Christian churches affected a significant audience of church people Protestant denominations and individuals believed that they could preach and teach more effectively through the mass medium of film Although suspicion toward the film industry marked many conservatives during the early 1930s many Christian leaders came to believe in the power of technology to convert or to morally instruct people Thus the growth of a Christian film industry was an extension of the Protestant tradition of preaching with the films becoming celluloid sermons Celluloid Sermons is the first historical study of this phenomenon Terry Lindvall and Andrew Quicke highlight key characters studios and influential films of the movement from 1930 to 1986 such as the Billy Graham Association with its major WorldWide Pictures productions of films like The Hiding Place Ken Curtis Gateway Films the apocalyptic end time films by Mark IV e g Thief in the Night and the instructional video films of Dobson s Focus on the Family assessing the extent to which the church s commitment to filmmaking accelerated its missions and demonstrating that its filmic endeavors had the unintended consequence of contributing to the secularization of liberal denominations

God on the Big Screen Terry Lindvall, 2019-08-13 Links film history with church history over the past century illuminating America s broader relationship with religious currents over time Moments of prayer have been represented in Hollywood movies since the silent era appearing unexpectedly in films as diverse as Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm Frankenstein Amistad Easy Rider Talladega Nights and Alien 3 as well as in religiously inspired classics such as Ben Hur and The Ten Commandments Here Terry Lindvall examines how films have reflected and sometimes sought to prescribe ideas about how one ought to pray He surveys the landscape of those films that employ prayer in their narratives beginning with the silent era and moving through the uplifting and inspirational movies of the Great Depression and World War II the cynical anti establishment films of the 60s and 70s and the sci fi and fantasy blockbusters of today Lindvall considers how the presentation of cinematic prayer varies across race age and gender and places the use of prayer in film in historical context shedding light on the religious currents at play during those time periods God on the Big Screen demonstrates that the way prayer is presented in film during each historical period tells us a great deal about America s broader relationship with religion
