Jackman (Editor), Smithsonian Institution, 1983 The Muses Flee Hitler Albert Einstein, Smithsonian Institution. Office of Smithsonian Symposia and Seminars, 1980 A History of the Jews in America Howard M. Sachar, 1993-11-02 Spanning 350 years of Jewish experience in this country A History of the Jews in America is an essential chronicle by the author of The Course of Modern Jewish History With impressive scholarship and a riveting sense of detail Howard M Sachar tells the stories of Spanish marranos and Russian refugees of aristocrats and threadbare social revolutionaries of philanthropists and Hollywood moguls At the same time he elucidates the grand themes of the Jewish encounter with America from the bigotry of a Christian majority to the tensions among Jews of different origins and beliefs and from the struggle for acceptance to the ambivalence of assimilation New Directions in American Religious History Harry S. Stout, D. G. Hart, 1998-01-01 The eighteen essays collected in this book had their origin in a conference of the same title held at the Wingspread Conference Center in October of 1993 Some of the most distinguished scholars in the field were invited to reflect on their specialities in American religious history in ways that summarized where the field is and where it ought to move in the decades to come Organized according to four general ways of looking at religious history places and regions universal themes transformative events and marginal groups and ethno cultural outsiders the essays address a wide range of topics including Puritanism religion and the Civil War Protestantism and economic behavior gender and sexuality in American Protestantism and the contemporary de Christianization of American culture Featuring contributions from David D Hall Donald G Matthews Allen C Guelzo Gordon S Wood Daniel Walker Howe Robert Wuthnow Jon Butler David A Hollinger and others this thought provoking and up to date collection will interest anyone involved in the study of American religion and history Science, Jews, and Secular Culture David A. Hollinger, 2021-06-08 This remarkable group of essays describes the culture wars that consolidated a new secular ethos in mid twentieth century American academia and generated the fresh energies needed for a wide range of scientific and cultural enterprises Focusing on the decades from the 1930s through the 1960s David Hollinger discusses the scientists social scientists philosophers and historians who fought the Christian biases that had kept Jews from fully participating in American intellectual life Today social critics take for granted the comparatively open outlook developed by these men and men they were mostly and charge that their cosmopolitanism was not sufficiently multicultural Yet Hollinger shows that the liberal cosmopolitans of the mid century generation defined themselves against the realities of their own time

McCarthyism Nazi and Communist doctrines a legacy of anti Semitic quotas and both Protestant and Catholic versions of the notion of a Christian America The victory of liberal cosmopolitans was so sweeping by the 1960s that it has become easy to forget the strength of the enemies they fought Most books addressing the emergence of Jewish intellectuals celebrate an illustrious cohort of literary figures based in New York City But the pieces collected here explore the long postponed acceptance of Jewish immigrants in a variety of settings especially the social science and humanities faculties of major universities scattered across the country Hollinger acknowledges the limited rather parochial sense of mankind that informed some mid century thinking but he also inspires in the reader an appreciation for the integrationist aspirations of a society truly striving toward equality His cast of characters includes Vannevar Bush James B Conant Richard Hofstadter Robert K Merton Lionel Trilling and J Robert Oppenheimer
