The Genres Of The Irish Literary Revival:

The Genres of the Irish Literary Revival Ronald Schleifer, 1980 Fictions of the Irish Literary Revival John Wilson Foster, 1987 A learned and comprehensive work covering a wide range of major and minor figures Fiction of the Irish Revival remains a valuable and standard sourcebook to the scholarship on late nineteenth and early twentieth century Irish literature and culture Traditional Medicine in the Irish Literary Revival Holly May Walker-Dunseith, 2025-03-21 This book explores representations of traditional medicine and healing practices in Irish Revival era literature spanning from the late nineteenth century to the early twentieth century Specifically the book focuses on the work of William Butler Yeats Lady Augusta Gregory and John Millington Synge The author examines folk medical practices and analyses how folk medicine appears in literature bringing to light fresh contexts and materials including diaries letters folklore collections and medical texts By writing the first book to explore the place of traditional medicine in Irish literature Walker Dunseith sheds light on a distinctive area of Irish life and practice that gestures towards the possibility of a culture and nation in the act of healing itself and questioning nationalistic discourses The Chinese May Fourth Generation and the Irish Literary Revival: Writers and Fighters Simone O'Malley-Sutton, 2023-10-06 This book examines how the early twentieth century Irish Renaissance Irish Literary Revival inspired the Chinese Renaissance the May Fourth generation of writers to make agentic choices and translingual exchanges It sheds a new light on May Fourth and on the Irish Renaissance by establishing that the Irish Literary Revival 1900 1922 provided an alternative decolonizing model of resistance for the Chinese Renaissance to that provided by the western imperial center The book also argues that Chinese May Fourth intellectuals translated Irish Revivalist plays by W B Yeats Lady Gregory Se n O Casey and Synge and that Chinese peasants performed these plays throughout China during the 1920s and 1930s as a form of anti imperial resistance Yet this literary exchange was not simply going one way since Yeats Lady Gregory Synge and O Casey were also influenced by Chinese developments in literature and politics Therefore this was a reciprocal encounter based on the circulation of Anti colonial ideals and mutual transformation Modernism and the Celtic Revival Gregory Castle, 2001-05-21 In Modernism and the Celtic Revival Gregory Castle examines the impact of anthropology on the work of Irish Revivalists such as W B Yeats John M Synge and James Joyce Castle argues that anthropology enabled Irish Revivalists to confront and combat British imperialism even as these Irish writers remained ambivalently dependent on the cultural and political discourses they sought to undermine Castle shows how Irish Modernists employed textual and rhetorical strategies first developed in anthropology to translate reassemble and edit oral and folk cultural material In doing so he claims they confronted and undermined inherited notions of identity which Ireland often a site of ethnographic curiosity throughout the nineteenth century had been subject to Drawing on a wide range of post colonial theory this book should be of interest to scholars in Irish studies post colonial studies and Modernism Modern Irish Writers Alexander G. Gonzalez, 1997-08-26 While the Irish Literary Revival began around 1885 and ended somewhere between 1925 and 1940 the Irish Renaissance has continued to the present day and shows no sign of abating The period has produced some of the most important and influential figures in Irish literature some of whom are counted among the world's greatest authors The Revival saw a reestablishment of Ireland's literary connections with its Celtic heritage and writers such as William Butler Yeats and Lady Gregory drew heavily on the myths and legends of the past James Joyce boldly reshaped the novel and wrote short fiction of enduring value Contemporary Irish writers continue to be leading figures and include such authors as Brian Friel Seamus Heaney and Eavan Boland Included in this reference book are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 70 modern Irish writers including Samuel Beckett William Trevor Patrick Kavanagh Medbh McGuckian Sean O'Casey J.M. Synge and Nuala Ni Dhomhnaill Entries are written by expert contributors and reflect a broad range of perspectives Each entry contains a brief biography that summarizes the author's career a discussion of major works and themes an overview of the author's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works An introductory essay reviews the large and growing body of scholarship on modern Irish literature while an extensive bibliography concludes the volume
