Change: Herman Heijermans' Plays as Compared with Selected Dramas by Ibsen, Hauptmann and Chekhov Hilda van Neck Yoder, 2013-11-11 Herman Heijermans 1864 1924 was convinced that he lived in an overgangs 1 tijdperk a transitional period As a young man in the eighteen nineties he rejected those values and life styles which he felt belonged to the past period dominated by the bourgeoisie and sought out situations and a profession which would attune him to the future when he hoped the proletariat would 2 be in power He left the conservative business milieu of Rotterdam in 1892 and went to Amsterdam then teeming with radical ideas At first Heijermans was attracted to a group of poets de tachtigers who were claiming to have enlivened the stale tradition of Dutch poetry by discovering language and beauty in a totally new way but soon he felt them to be elitist Then in 1895 he became a member of the newly founded Dutch Social Democratic Workers Party He alienated himself from the literary circles by claiming that art should be socialistic and by rejecting the class separation between artists and workers He felt himself to be one with the proletariat and through them with The New Life and The New Humanity Stimulated by the ongoing theater revival which he interpreted as an attempt to challenge the bourgeois smugness and moral self righteousness he had started to write plays before becoming interested in the Socialist Party
