Sources Of Renewal The Fulfillment Of Vatican II:

Sources of Renewal Pope John Paul II, 1980 Vatican II and Phenomenology J.F. Kobler, 2012-12-06 The thesis of this essay may be stated quite briefly Vatican II is a demonstration model of the phenomenological method employed on an international scale It exemplifies the final developmental stage postulated by Husserl of an intersubjective phenomenology which would take its point of departure not from individual subjectivity but from transcendental intersubjectivity Vatican II accordingly offers a unique application of a universal transcendental philosophy in the field of religious reflection for the practical purposes of moral and socio cultural renewal Phenomenology as a distinctively European development is relatively unknown in America at least in its pure form Our contact with this style of intuitive reflection is usually filtered through psychology or sociology However Edmund Husserl The Father of Phenomenology was originally trained in mathematics and he entered the field of philosophy because he recognized that the theoretical foundations of modern science were disintegrating He foresaw that unless this situation were rectified modern men would eventually slip into an attitude of absolute scepticism relativism and pragmatism After the First World War he saw this theoretical problem mirrored more and more in the social turbulence of Europe and his thoughts turned to the need for a renewal at all levels of life In 1937 when Nazism was triumphant in Germany and Europe on the brink of World War II he wrote his last major work The Crisis of European Sciences and Transcendental Philosophy

Ecce Educatrix Tua Danielle M. Peters, 2009-12-01 Ecce Educatrix Tua discusses the Apostolic Letter Novo millennio ineunte NMI wherein John Paul II outlined the path the Church should adopt in the third millennium The necessity to rediscover the full practical significance of Chapter 5 of the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium dedicated to the universal call to holiness NMI 30 is at stake John Paul II stressed that a concrete pedagogy of holiness is required including a spiritual path without which external structures will serve very little purpose NMI 43 The Polish Pontiff invited ecclesial movements to present their original pedagogy of holiness cf NMI 31 Peters highlights the Blessed Virgin Mary as educator in a pedagogy of holiness from the teachings of John Paul II and Father Joseph Kentenich founder of the Schoenstatt Movement

An Introduction to Vatican II as an Ongoing Theological Event Matthew Levering, 2017 Contemporary scholars often refer to the event of Vatican II but what kind of an event was it In this first book of the new CUA Press series Sacra Doctrina Matthew Levering leads his readers to see the Council as a theological event a period of confirming and continuing God's self revelation in Christ into a new historical era for the Church This is an introduction to Vatican II with a detailed summary of each of its four central documents the dogmatic constitutions followed by explanations of how to interpret them In contrast to other introductions which pay little attention to the theological soil in which the documents of Vatican II germinated Levering offers a reading of each conciliar Constitution in light of a key theological author from the era Ren Latourelle SJ for Dei Verbum persons and propositions Louis Bouyer CO for Sacrosanctum Concilium active participation Yves Congar OP for Lumen Gentium true and false reform and Henri de Lubac SJ for Gaudium et Spes nature and grace This theological event is ongoing Levering demonstrates by tracing in each chapter the theological debates that have stretched from the close of the council till the present and the difficulties the Church continues to encounter in encouraging an ever deeper participation in Jesus Christ on the part of all believers In this light the book's final chapter compares the historicist Massimo Faggioli and Christological Robert Imbelli interpretations of Vatican II arguing that historicism can undermine the Council's fundamental desire for a reform and renewal rooted in Christ The conclusion addresses the concerns about secularization and loss of faith raised after the Council by Henri de Lubac Joseph Ratzinger and Yves Congar arguing that contemporary Vatican II scholarship needs to take these concerns more seriously

Catechesis for the New Evangelization Brian Pedraza, 2020-06-12 Popes Francis Benedict XVI and John Paul II have called the present a time of New Evangelization for the Church and have stressed the importance of catechesis for this mission John Paul II claimed that this renewal of the Church's mission is grounded in the teachings of the Second Vatican Council Nevertheless approaches to catechesis in the conciliar and postconciliar era have varied greatly as evidenced by the shifts in catechetical practice effected by the modern catechetical movement Just as the dominant forms of theology changed from neo scholastic to anthropological approaches so too did catechesis move from catechism based approaches to more anthropological models based upon human experience In light of this context Catechesis for the New Evangelization examines the theological foundations of catechesis in the Church's understanding of divine revelation and its reception by the human person especially as found in the conciliar constitutions Dei Verbum and Gaudium et Spes After drawing norms on divine revelation from these documents it traces the history of the modern catechetical movement in order to compare this history with the conciliar norms highlighting the renewal's strengths and weaknesses These steps prepare the way for the main part of the book an examination of the anthropology of Karol Wojtya a Pope John Paul II Ultimately his anthropology provides an understanding of the person that can unite divine revelation and human experience in a way that takes what is best from the modern catechetical movement while developing the ministry in a way that can be fruitful for the New Evangelization Pedraza's book is not only an incisive look at modern catechetical history and theory It also touches upon some of the most important theological topics of the past century including the neo scholastic crisis the proper interpretation of the Council the relationship of nature and grace and the modern understanding of the imago dei with the research and competency appropriate for scholarly interest and the accessibility needed for educated practitioners in catechesis

The Theology of Renewal for His Church Douglas G. Bushman, 2024-01-26 Almost sixty years after Vatican II the question of its interpretation is as lively as ever While numerous theologies of renewal are advanced conspicuously absent is any serious erudition of the text taken by Paul VI John Paul II and Benedict XVI as the hermeneutical key to understanding the Council's goal and method namely Paul VI's encyclical Ecclesiam Suam This study corrects this inattention and proposes that Pope Paul's logic of renewal is so profoundly a dimension of divine revelation and of the Church's life that it is not just one theology of renewal among many but the theology of renewal. It is thus the key to understanding the Council's authentic pastoral character. The logic of renewal sets personal spiritual metanoia as the center path of renewal preceded by the path of doctrinal penetration which assures that renewal is faithful to God and complemented by the path of reinvigorated mission which is the fruit of conversion. As the first post Christendom ecumenical council, Vatican II addressed the question: What does it mean to be the Church of Christ at this point in history? Its answer: Become what you are. Convert into a more perfect realization of your own mystery, vocation and mission.

Sources of Renewal, 1979 Books in Print, 1982 From Truth and Truth Francis Etheredge, 2016-04-26

The final book of this trilogy explores reason at work in the nature of faith. cf. Fides et Ratio 43. Indeed, although faith is of its nature different from reason, faith cannot exist except through grace-assisted reason. Volume One briefly meditated on the metaphysics of meaning which entailed considering the intimate interrelationship of truth and existence. In this volume, however, it becomes clear that there is an intrinsic complementarity in the very nature of created being: a complementarity between the literal and spiritual sense of what exists. Thus, for example, a seed is both what actually exists and at the same time it can adequately express the beginning of the supernatural life sown in the sacrament of Baptism. This leads to an almost literary argument for there being a single cause of all creation in that there is an incredible coherence of meaning throughout the whole. More specifically, the book discusses various questions of a bioethical nature and more generally offers a radical investigation of the nature of man, male and female, for in a word, the origin, nature and action of the human person require constant reciprocal reflection. Thus, there are various essays on different aspects of man, male and female, ranging from a consideration of God expressing the mystery of the Blessed Trinity through our participation in His own Being to the transition from a Jewish to a Christian understanding of marriage to a marital spirituality. Finally, faith in action ranges from being open to life to pilgrimages as a family and the slow but real discovery that there is a radical nature to our salvation in Christ that even if natural truth leads inexorably to the trembling outreaches of reason, there is nevertheless a gratuitous Revelation which comes to meet and develop the life of us all.
