South Africa A Guide To Recent Architecture Batsford Architecture:

A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang, 2016-04-28 A Genealogy of Tropical Architecture traces the origins of tropical architecture to nineteenth century British colonial architectural knowledge and practices It uncovers how systematic knowledge and practices on building and environmental technologies in the tropics were linked to military technologies medical theories and sanitary practices and were manifested in colonial building types such as military barracks hospitals and housing It also explores the various ways these colonial knowledge and practices shaped post war technological scientific research and education in climatic design and modern tropical architecture Drawing on the interdisciplinary scholarships on postcolonial studies science studies and environmental history Jiat Hwee Chang argues that tropical architecture was inextricably entangled with the socio cultural constructions of tropical nature and the politics of colonial governance and postcolonial development in the British colonial and post colonial networks By bringing to light new historical materials through formidable research and tracing the history of tropical architecture beyond what is widely considered today as its founding moment in the mid twentieth century this important and original book revises our understanding of colonial built environment It also provides a new historical framework that significantly bears upon contemporary concerns with climatic design and sustainable architecture This book is an essential resource for understanding tropical architecture and its various contemporary manifestations Its in depth discussion and path breaking insights will be invaluable to specialists academics students and practitioners

Bioclimatic Architecture in Warm Climates Manuel Correia Guedes, Gustavo Cantuaria, 2019-04-30 This book provides a comprehensive hands on approach to bioclimatic building design in Africa Bioclimatic design is at the core of urban sustainability and is a critical issue in Africa where imported building typologies are being used at an increasing pace disregarding the local context and consequently causing damage to the environment to the economy and to the culture itself This book provides a concise set of sustainable design guidelines to be applied in both new buildings and the refurbishment of old buildings and integrates bioclimatic design strategies with other sustainability issues such as cultural aspects affordability and urban planning Chapters are fully illustrated with photographs and drawings and include best practice examples and strategies making it accessible to engineers architects students and a broad range of professionals in the building industry Encompasses all climatic regions in Africa Integrates bioclimatic design strategies with other sustainability issues Discusses new design to refurbishment from urban to rural including office buildings residential tourism social housing and self building

Modernism in Africa Docomomo International, 2024-12-16 Many African countries are home to extraordinary architecture that is virtually unknown There are interpretations of Art Deco International Style Brutalism as well as of African vernacular architecture Climate responsive buildings with a fluidity of interior and exterior spaces play a large role While many of these 20th century architects were of European origin they were deeply influenced by their surroundings and found original site specific expressions often in collaboration with African architects A focus of the construction activities were educational buildings which played an important role for these young nations that mostly gained their independence in the 1960s While some of the documented buildings have been restored others are still awaiting reconstruction Well known contributors include among others Uta Pottgiesser TH OWL TU Delft Ana Tost es Lisbon University Ola Uduku University of Liverpool The stunning photography by Jean Molitor takes the reader on a journey across the continent Documentation of over 60 buildings from eight countries with new drawings and photographs Atlas of Vernacular Architecture of the World Marcel Vellinga,Paul Oliver,Alexander Bridge,2024-11-01 The first world atlas ever compiled on vernacular architecture this comprehensive work illustrates the variety and ingenuity of the world s vernacular building traditions from a multi disciplinary cross cultural and comparative approach using over sixty world and regional maps Mapping such diverse aspects as materials and resources technologies structural systems symbolism forms and service systems on a cross cultural and comparative basis the Atlas of Vernacular Architecture of the World reveals the distribution diversity and relationships of the world s vernacular building traditions Indicating geographical patterns developments lacunae and anomalies it gives rise to new insights and understandings stimulating new hypotheses questions and research efforts Augmenting the award winning Encyclopedia of Vernacular Architecture of the World the Atlas of Vernacular Architecture of the World constitutes a unique and unparalleled resource for anyone involved in the growing field of vernacular architecture studies including architects geographers art historians planners folklorists conservationists builders and anthropologists as well as being of use to all those working in the fields of heritage conservation architecture regeneration energy efficient building resources management development and sustainability Roman Architecture Frank Sear,2020-07-28 In this fully updated new edition Frank Sear offers a thorough overview of the history of architecture in the Roman Empire Arranged logically in six historical sections interspersed with material on Roman architects and their techniques the building types found in Roman cities and the different buildings found in the Roman provinces this volume now contains the latest insights into Roman architecture and takes account of the past 20 years of scholarship This seminal work covers the architecture of the Republic the Age of Augustus the imperial period Pompeii and Ostia the eastern and western empire and the Late Antique period exploring subjects such as patronage building techniques and materials Roman engineering town planning and imperial propaganda in a concise and readable way Illustrated with nearly 300 photographs maps and drawings Roman Architecture continues to be the clearest introductory account of the development of architecture in the Roman Empire Hans Heyerdahl Hallen Kathi Holt,Errol Haarhoff,Walter Peters,2025-10-16 Tracing the life of architect Hans Heyerdahl Hallen 1930 2022 this book reveals the transnational influences that shaped his practice in South Africa and the migratory circles of ideas that defined a new form of subtropical architecture Beginning with Hallen s Nordic and South African roots chapters then explore his practice and studies at the London County Council and Architectural Association where he met with contemporaries such as Jane Drew and Maxwell Fry From here he returned to South Africa with new ideas that challenged the teachings of early modernism instead combining philosophies such as Norberg Schulz s genius loci with African traditional architecture Zulu Kraal to create buildings unique to local communities and topographical conditions This need to embrace vernacular forms was a response to local climate conditions and local materials but also a desire to make cities relevant to the African context In transmuting European teachings within colonial environments Hallen s practice reveals the role of the architect to reflect local communities and to build for their needs and to create spaces for community and resistance Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects the study features a wealth of previously unpublished archival material to explore the role of the architect in the colonial context Illustrated Glossary of Southern African Architectural Terms, English-isiZulu Franco Frescura, Philisiwe Joyce Myeza, 2016 Since 1994 South Africa has undergone a steady erosion of its indigenous built environment with a concomitant loss of indigenous building technology and its specialised terminology This glossary is based on the premise that readers cannot understand the culture of a people unless they have a grasp of the nuances and hidden meanings of the language The authors bring together in one volume the terminologies that are used by southern Africa s rural builders The terminology used by indigenous builders is included here as well as the terminology used by subsequent colonial white settlers including buildings of the so called Cape Dutch English Georgian Victorian and Indian Traditions The text is set out in alphabetical order It comprises each term in its original language its translation where appropriate into isiZulu and its definition in English and isiZulu One of the strengths of English isiZulu Glossary of Architectural Terms is its visual component of accompanying sketches that expertly illustrate the terms This book is designed not only to assist in the teaching of architecture but also to aid others who are interested in the field Researchers and practitioners in disciplines such as anthropology archaeology culture studies and building science will find it a valuable addition to their libraries Series UKZN Bilingual Glossary Series Subject Architecture African Studies Anthropology Art History AIA Journal ,1957
