Southeast Asia Among The World Powers:

Southeast Asia Among the World Powers Amry Vandenbosch, Richard Butwell, 2021-05-11 First published in 1957 this classic work on the political situation in Southeast Asia at the start of the Vietnam War includes a supplement covering events up to mid 1958 An introductory chapter describes the general political and economic characteristics of this important region lying south of Communist China and east of neutralist India Individual chapters are devoted to Indonesia the Philippines Indochina Thailand Malaya and Burma The concluding chapters analyze the international relations of Southeast Asia and describe American foreign policy in the area

Southeast Asia and the Great Powers Nicholas Tarling, 2013-06-17 The success of regionalism in Southeast Asia depends on the attitudes of the states within the region but also on the attitude of those outside it This book is an erudite and stimulating study on the latter Placing these states in a long term historical context Tarling brings out the way in which the rivalries of those powers within the region and outside it have affected the states within the region He also shows how divisions within the region and within states in the region offered invitations and opportunities for intervention from outside and so perhaps gave Southeast Asia an importance in international relations it would not otherwise have had Regional leaders appear in recent decades to have recognised what may be construed as one of the lessons of history if Southeast Asia can provide security for the Straits route and stable conditions for trade and investment it might enjoy both peace and a measure of prosperity Southeast Asia and the Great Powers is an important read for students and scholars of the history and international relations of Southeast Asia

World Powers in South and South-East Asia Zafar Imam, Indian Council of World Affairs, 1972 Study of international relations in South Asia and South East Asia with particular reference to the evolution of nationalism under the impact of the role of USA role of USSR role of UK role of Germany Federal Republic role of France role of Japan role of India and other major powers in the region covers foreign policy foreign investment development aid etc and considers future prospects Bibliography pp 235 to 244 references and statistical tables

Colonial Armies in Southeast Asia Tobias Rettig, Karl Hack, 2005-12-21 Colonial armies were the focal points for some of the most dramatic tensions inherent in Chinese Japanese and Western clashes with Southeast Asia The international team of scholars take the reader on a compelling exploration from Ming China to the present day examining their conquests management and decolonization The journey covers perennial themes such as the recruitment loyalty and varied impact of foreign dominated forces But it also ventures into uncharted waters by highlighting Asian use of colonial forces to dominate other Asians This sends the reader back in time to the fifteenth century Chinese expansion into Yunnan and Vietnam and forwards to regional tensions in present day Indonesia and post colonial issues in Malaysia and Singapore Drawing these strands together the book shows how colonial armies must be located within wider patterns of demography and within bigger systems of imperial security and power American British

Chinese Dutch French Indonesian and Japanese which in turn helped to shape modern Southeast Asia Colonial Armies in Southeast Asia will interest scholars working on low intensity conflict on the interaction between armed forces and society on comparative imperialism and on Southeast Asia China and the Major Powers in East Asia A. Doak Barnett,2001-09-19 The foreign policy of the People's Republic of China has been dominated in recent decades by the problems of dealing with the other major powers in East Asia Although many ideological political and economic aims have shaped particular Chinese policies Peking's dominant concern has been national security Since the late 1960s its leaders have viewed the Soviet Union as the primary threat to China and have pursued a distinctive Maoist balance of power strategy against it China's post Mao leaders continue to give priority to strategic considerations and the problems of relations with the other major powers It cannot be assumed however that they will simply continue past policies The recent changes both within China and in the broad pattern of international relations in East Asia have created a new situation In this study A Doak Barnett analyzes in detail China's bilateral relations with the Soviet Union Japan and the United States He also examines the changing nature of the four power relationship in East Asia On this basis he discusses possible future trends in Chinese policy and the prospects for achieving a more stable regional equilibrium World Regional Geography (with Subregions) Lydia Mihelic Pulsipher,Alex Pulsipher,2007-09-14 Shows how individuals are affected by and respond to economic social and political forces at all levels of scale global regional and local It offers an inclusive picture of people in a globalizing world men women children both mainstream and marginalized citizens not as seen from a western perspective but as they see themselves Core topics of physical economic cultural and political geography are examined from a contemporary perspective based on authoritative insights from recent geographic theory and examples from countries from around the world Preventive Diplomacy In The Asia-Pacific Yanjun Guo,Fujian Li,2020-10-26 Preventive Diplomacy PD has been recognized as a useful tool to address security issues in the Asia Pacific region A step by step exploration of a PD mode on the basis of consensus compatible with the regional situation has become the common will of countries in the region Since the region is facing various new challenges innovation in theories and practices of PD is required This book intends to promote discussions on the new ideas and new approaches of PD in the region which can be effectively used to address the needs of the region and promote peace and security Southeast Asian Perspectives on Power Liana Chua,2012 Over the last half century Southeast Asia has undergone innumerable far reaching changes that have consequences not only for large scale institutions and processes but also for everyday life This book focuses on the topic of power in relation to these transformations and looks at its various social cultural religious economic and political forms Consisting of empirically rich case studies the book works from the ground up seeking to capture Southeast Asians own perspectives conceptualizations and experiences of power

Regionalism in Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling,2006-09-27 This innovative text provides the reader with an historical analysis of Southeast Asia from the unusual perspective of regionalism Sustaining a Resilient Asia Pacific

Community Kiran Sagoo, Wilmar Salim, 2009-03-26 Coming out of an established international graduate student conference organized by the East West Center this book presents selected papers written by graduate students from different fields of study After identifying historical or contemporary issues in each field these papers propose a framework for resolving these issues whether through global commitment regional cooperation national policy or local knowledge and practice The unifying thread of this book is sustaining resilience in the Asia Pacific We acknowledge this perseverance and try to sustain and disseminate it so that other communities may learn from these practices and experiences Generally a volume like this would address the challenge of this region from a security economics or political perspective This book hopes to add to the literature on resiliency by addressing these issues from a multidisciplinary and multilevel perspective Asian Maritime Power in the 21st Century Vijay Sakhuja, 2011 Maritime power has been a key defining parameter of economic vitality and geostrategic power of nations This book explores how the first decade of the 21st century has witnessed the rise of China and India as confident economic powers pivoting on high growth rates exponential expansion of science technology and industrial growth The Making of Southeast Asia Amitav Acharya, 2013-02-22 Developing a framework to study what makes a region Amitav Acharya investigates the origins and evolution of Southeast Asian regionalism and international relations He views the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN from the bottom up as not only a U S inspired ally in the Cold War struggle against communism but also an organization that reflects indigenous traditions Although Acharya deploys the notion of imagined community to examine the changes especially since the Cold War in the significance of ASEAN dealings for a regional identity he insists that imagination is itself not a neutral but rather a culturally variable concept The regional imagination in Southeast Asia imagines a community of nations different from NAFTA or NATO the OAU or the European Union In this new edition of a book first published as The Quest for Identity in 2000 Acharya updates developments in the region through the first decade of the new century the aftermath of the financial crisis of 1997 security affairs after September 2001 the long term impact of the 2004 tsunami and the substantial changes wrought by the rise of China as a regional and global actor Acharya argues in this important book for the crucial importance of regionalism in a different part of the world Power Transition and International Order in Asia Peter Shearman, 2013-09-23 This edited volume examines how the transition and diffusion of power in global politics is impacting on stability and order in Asia Both in the academic field of International Relations IR and among policymakers the big question today concerns the rise of China the relative decline of the United States and the increasing importance of Asia in global politics The level of impact the international power transition will have in the region remains unclear but observers agree that Asia is a potential tinderbox for crises and conflict This volume brings together leading scholars from around the world to assess current thinking in IR on these issues The authors apply appropriate theories and methods of analysis in their specific area of expertise to examine the likely effects of the changing global power distribution on Asia There is also said to be an ongoing diffusion of power away from states to non state actors in the region hence in addition to examining changing relations between the Great Powers the book will also assess the implications that other actors from terrorist groups insurgents and organised crime syndicates could have on stability and order This book will be of much interest to students of Asian politics security studies diplomacy and international relations

Education and Power in Contemporary Southeast Asia Azmil Tayeb, Rosalie Metro, Will Brehm, 2023-07-18 This book focuses on education and power in Southeast Asia and analyzes the ways in which education has been instrumentalized by state non state and private actors across this diverse region The book looks at how countries in Southeast Asia respond to the endogenous and exogenous influences in shaping their education systems Chapters observe and study the interplay between education and power in Southeast Asia which offers varying political social cultural religious and economic diversities The political systems in Southeast Asia range from near consolidated democracy in Indonesia to illiberal democracy in Singapore and Thailand to the communist regime in Laos to absolute monarchy in Brunei Structured in three parts i centralization and decentralization ii privatization and marketization and iii equity and justice these themes are discussed in single country and or multi country studies in the Southeast Asian region Bringing together scholars from and focused on Southeast Asia this book fills a gap in the literature on education in Southeast Asia

Projections of Power Anne L. Foster, 2010-07-30 Examines how the presence of the United States as a colonial power in Southeast Asia was perceived by Americans and how it influenced Southeast Asians and European imperial powers in the region

China, Faits Accomplis and the Contest for East Asia Joshua Hastey, 2023-04-28 This book explores China s use of faits accomplis in its periphery and offers the first formal model for the use of faits accomplis by rising powers With growing attention to great power competition and conflict in the gray zone between war and peace this book explains China s use of faits accomplis to revise the maritime status quo in the South and East China Seas Using formal modelling and case study analysis the book argues that while power shifts provide rising states with opportunities to impose faits accomplis to revise the status quo the use of faits accomplis also increase the likelihood of war with the dominant state s The book surveys existing understandings of how power shifts incentivize interstate competition in general and in the case of Sino American competition in particular and brings existing theory and novel modelling to explain China s differing strategies in the South and East China Seas in the first two decades of the 21st century The book concludes by using the lessons from these cases to assess the strategic options available to both states and conditions that make a peaceful resolution more likely This book will be of much interest to students of Chinese politics Asian security studies and International Relations
