Appropriation of Jakob Böhme Paola Mayer,1999-11-26 These appropriations fall into two main groups those pertaining to the name B hme or a life assigned to it and those involving concepts or images from the mystic s oeuvre The first group constituted an attempt to co opt the aura of sanctity attached to portrayals of the poet prophet in order to invest Romantic Poesie with the sacral standing of religion The second group exemplified by Friedrich Schlegel and Friedrich Schelling involved the borrowing and radical redefinition of a few concepts and images from B hme s work in the hope of bridging the gap between the abstract first principle of idealism and the personal God that became an emotional necessity for both thinkers Jena Romanticism and Its Appropriation of Jakob B hme treats the Romantic reception of B hme as a striking example of how the past is appropriated and rewritten in the service of self affirmation Analysing the need and the techniques for this self affirmation sheds light on the nature of the self to be affirmed and on the content and underlying motivation of the Romantic program The Pilgrimage of Premnáth Edmund White,1918 The True Spouse of Jesus
