The Handbook Of Canadian Film 2nd Edition:

Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film Wyndham Wise, 2001-12-15 Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film is the most exhaustive and up to date reference book on Canadian film and filmmakers combining 700 reviews and biographical listings with a detailed chronology of major events in Canadian film and television history Compiled by Wyndham Wise the editor and publisher of Take One Canada's most respected film magazine with a foreword by Canadian director Patricia Rozema this is the only reference book of its kind published in English Each film title is listed with credits a mini review and significant awards Biographical listings of directors producers actors writers animators cinematographers distributors exhibitors and independent filmmakers are accompanied by date and place of birth date of death if applicable a brief career overview and a filmography Wise celebrates Canadian achievement on both a national and an international scale and juxtaposes the distinctly Canadian with Canada's exports to Hollywood Maury Chaykin and Jim Carrey John Candy and William Shatner Mon Oncle Antoine and Porky's Highway 61 and Meatballs The Red Violin and The Art of War From great early Hollywood stars like Walter Huston Fay Wray Mary Pickford Norma Shearer and Marie Dressler to our current crop of star directors including Patricia Rozema Atom Egoyan David Cronenberg Denys Arcand Peter Mettler Guy Maddin and Robert Lepage Canadians have made an important but largely unrecorded contribution to the history of world cinema Impressive for its breadth of coverage refreshing in its opinionated informality this comprehensive and lively look at Canadian film culture at the start of the twenty first century admirably fills the gap

Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation

How to Read a Film James Monaco, 1981 Now thoroughly revised and updated the book discusses recent breakthroughs in media technology including such exciting advances as video discs and cassettes two way television satellites cable and much more

The Cinema of Québec Janis L. Pallister, 1995 Quebecois cinema too long neglected and too long unknown by American viewers and often not appreciated on its own terrain receives its well deserved defense in Janis L Pallister's The Cinema of Quebec Masters in Their Own House

Canadian Books in Print, 2000

Paul Bern E.J. Fleming, 2009-03-23 Paul Bern known throughout the movie business as Hollywood's Father Confessor earned a reputation for being a loyal and supportive friend and for becoming one of MGM's most respected and creative directors After his death though he was said to have grown so depressed and despondent over his own apparent sexual inadequacies that he committed suicide and he would be denounced for attempting to rape his new bride Jean Harlow In this biography the author uncovers startling new facts and argues that MGM knew the real story of Bern s death that an estranged mentally ill common law wife murdered him MGM understood that the earlier spouse rendered Bern s marriage to Harlow its fastest rising star ambiguous if not bigamous so the studio staged a suicide and embarked on a very public tarnishing of his memory Included are 93 rare photos many lost for decades along with three appendices examining the handwriting on an alleged suicide note and Bern s will and estate Resources in Education ,1997 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema Janine Marchessault,Will Straw,2019-03-20 The chapters in The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Cinema present a rich diverse overview of Canadian cinema Responding to the latest developments in Canadian film studies this volume takes into account the variety of artistic voices media technologies and places which have marked cinema in Canada throughout its history Drawing on a range of established and emerging scholars from a range of disciplines this volume will be useful to teachers scholars and to a general readership interested in cinema in Canada Moving beyond the director focused approach of much previous scholarship this book is concerned with communities institutions and audiences for Canadian cinema at both national and international levels The choice of subjects covered ranges from popular genre cinema to the most experimental of artistic interventions Canadian cinema is seen in its interaction with other forms of art making and media production in Canada and at the international level Particular attention has been paid to the work of Indigenous filmmakers members of diasporic communities and feminist and LGBTQ artists The result is a book attentive to the complex social and institutional contexts in which Canadian cinema is made and consumed Canada 2024-2025 P. T. Babie,Charles J. Russo,2024-08-08 The World Today Series Canada is an annually updated presentation of Canada It provides the reader an in depth look at the country s culture geography people economy politics and future The combination of factual accuracy and up to date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers practitioners in international development media professionals government officials potential investors and students The Preservation Management Handbook Ross Harvey,Martha R. Mahard,2014-04-10 Cultural heritage professionals museum curators museum professionals archivists and librarians work with their specialized knowledge to prioritize the needs of their collections Preservation managers draw on experts in climate control fire safety pest management and more in developing the large overview of a collection and its needs And all the special materials within the collections have their experts too Here in one volume is a wide range of topic specific expertise that comprises both an enduring text for preservation students as well as an essential one stop reference for cultural heritage professionals particularly those in small to medium sized organizations where resources are limited and professional help is not always at hand The editors introduce the reader to the essential tools and principles of a preservation management program in the twenty first century addressing the realities of diverse collections and materials and embracing the challenges of working with both analog and digital collections The sections on planning and managing a preservation program contain the basic starting point for any kind of collection regardless of size and content Written with the small collection in mind the principles are nevertheless scalable and widely applicable
