

That my days have been a dream;
Yet if hope has flown away
In a night, or in a day,
In a vision, or in none,
Is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem
Is but a dream within a dream.

I stand amid the roar
Of a surf-tormented shore,
And I hold within my hand
Grains of the golden sand—
How few! yet how they creep
Through my fingers to the deep,
While I weep—while I weep!
O God! can I not grasp
Them with a tighter clasp?
O God! can I not save
One from the pitiless wave?
Is all that we see or seem
But a dream within a dream?

champions the learned and enraptured poetic imagination and proceeds as such a philosopher poet T.S. Eliot and Early Modern Literature Steven Matthews, 2013-02-21 T S Eliot and Early Modern Literature provides a comprehensive discussion of the engagement of Eliot with that earlier English literary period which he declared to be his favorite It offers a full sense of the critical and literary context against which Eliot measured his own ideas on Early Modern poets and playwrights The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature Patrick Cheney, Philip Hardie, 2015-10-29 The Oxford History of Classical Reception OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This second volume covers the years 1558 1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading Chicorel Index to Poetry and Poets--literature Marietta Chicorel, 1976 Self-Commentary in Early Modern European Literature, 1400-1700 Francesco Venturi, 2019-05-15 This volume investigates the various ways in which writers comment on present and defend their own works and at the same time themselves across early modern Europe A multiplicity of self commenting modes ranging from annotations to explicatory prose to prefaces to separate critical texts and exemplifying a variety of literary genres are subjected to analysis Self commentaries are more than just an external apparatus they direct and control reception of the primary text thus affecting notions of authorship and readership With the writer understood as a potentially very influential and often tendentious interpreter of their own work the essays in this collection offer new perspectives on pre modern and modern forms of critical self consciousness self representation and self validation Contributors are Harriet Archer Gilles Bertheau Carlo Caruso Jeroen De Keyser Russell Ganim Joseph Harris Ian Johnson Richard Maber Martin McLaughlin John O'Brien Magdalena O'arska Federica Pich Brian Richardson Els Stronks and Colin Thompson The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 6 John Donne, 1995 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscript and print history of Donne's poetry this edition presents newly edited critical texts of the poems and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly
