The Mural Of Wakeful Sleep:

The Mural of Wakeful Sleep Laurence Lieberman, 1985-01-01 Poems evoke the history and daily life of Jamaica the Dominican Republic the Bahamas Barbados and St Lucia The Mural of Wakeful Sleep Laurence Lieberman, 1985

New and Selected Poems, 1962-92 Laurence Lieberman, 1993 A super abundant rollicksome delight Lieberman's voice surges through everywhere triumphantly inimitably his own His passion for observation driven by minute particulars like a mighty engine working magnificently through its many intricate nuts and bolts amounts to the most to be treasured virtue in poetry an observation of passion Theodore Weiss Dark Songs Laurence Lieberman, 1996-01-01 In his ninth book Laurence Lieberman creates a narrative mosaic of the eastern Caribbean islands from St Eustatius in the eighteenth century to the island of Grenada after the United States led invasion Hummers, Knucklers, and Slow Curves Don Johnson, 1991 A charmer Some titles include Late Innings Baseball Divine Comedy 4th Base Mantle On the roster are poets like John Updike Gregory Corso Robert Penn Warren Donald Hall and Richard Eberhart The collection includes heroes villains and the high and low drama of sport There is also philosophical bite The Christian Science Monitor Compass of the Dying Laurence Lieberman, 1998-01-01 When writing of Guyana or islands in the Dutch West Indies Laurence Lieberman excavates explores even exhumes the essence of the place In the flora and fauna in the rural cafés and ruins of churches and crypts in the taste of iguana soup and the look of light through stained glass Lieberman unfolds an exquisite atlas of the senses The awe of encounter the raw impact beauty and sometimes the brutality of both the surroundings and the people fuel this poetry Whether meeting an iguana hunter a bricklayer a witness to the United States led Grenada invasion or a classical composer Lieberman gives the reader a vivid combination of his own wit and surprising observations mingled with the speech of each character The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry The Regatta in the Skies Laurence Lieberman, 1999 The Regatta in the Skies is a wonderful complex collection of the best long poems from each phase of Laurence Lieberman's distinguished but still developing career from his midwestern American childhood to his travels to the exotic landscapes of the underwater world Japan and the Caribbean In a number of recent poems Lieberman views islands of the West Indies through the eyes of intriguing local artists Using cross cultural relationships on individual and national levels to create a new kind of poetry as witness he weaves stories into the poems No less engaging than his subjects are his cadences ordered in intricately textured lines and original syllabic stanza patterns Orange County Plague Scenes focuses on the plight of the orange trees in southern California blending motifs of politics social history civil rights of ethnic minorities and the mythology surrounding them with descriptions of nature and landscape This linked progression of seventeen poems structured like a sonnet sequence establishes the primacy of place in Lieberman's continuing canon. The longest poems deal with Jamaica but others take as their settings a number of the smaller Caribbean islands including Montserrat. In the poem The Factories of Bay Leaf and Lime Lieberman celebrates instinctive beauties of Montserrat's culture and workplace and helps memorialize its national character at a time when the entire country is threatened with extinction by a volcano. The Regatta in the Skies is a bold and unforgettable collection from a poet at the top of his form. The Michigan Alumnus, 1984. In v. 18 the final number consists of the Commencement annual.

Flight from the Mother Stone Laurence Lieberman, 2000-01-01. In his newest collection of poetry Laurence Lieberman widens the scope of his previous Caribbean collections by drawing attention to the small enchanting islands of the Grenadines, a chain running between Grenada and St Vincent. These outposts, often frequented by sailors, are mainly off the beaten tourist tracks. Lieberman's poems bring to life all the overlooked people, hidden places, and indigenous but rarely seen animals which can be found on these islands. These poems are as powerful as voodoo, full of energetic narratives in which Lieberman acts as observer while his characters, native Caribs and friends, guide us through the mystifying world of Guyana and the Caribbean: the planting of tree farms, local myths and religious sects, the daily crises of manual laborers working in the gold and diamond mines, and encounters with water snakes and harpy eagles. Lieberman's lines are rhythmic and strong, voices swirl in and out of his stanzas. From Lieberman's own precise observations to his inclusion of Caribbean dialects, the language created here is deeply textured and unique. The majority of these poems are narratives, stories about a culture that is extremely attuned to the richness of its past. They remind their readers that no matter how diverse a society becomes, it remains irrevocably connected to the land it was born of and the plants and animals that struggle to survive in its midst.
