The Gender Of Modernity:

The Gender of Modernity Rita Felski, 1995-08-21 In an innovative exploration of the complex relations between women and the modern Felski challenges conventional male centered theories of modernity and calls into question feminist perspectives that have demonized the modern as inherently patriarchal or else assumed a simple opposition between men's and women's experiences of the modern world

Gender, Modernity and Male Migrant Workers in China Xiaodong Lin, 2013-07-18 Rural urban migration within China has transformed and reshaped rural people's lives during the past few decades and has been one of the most visible phenomena of the economic reforms enacted since the late 1970s Whilst Feminist scholars have addressed rural women's experience of struggle and empowerment in urban China in contrast research on rural men's experience of migration is a neglected area of study In response this book seeks to address the absence of male migrant workers as a gendered category within the current literature on rural urban migration Examining Chinese male migrant workers identity formation this book explores their experience of rural urban migration and their status as an emerging sector of a dislocated urban working class It seeks to understand issues of gender and class through the rural migrant men's narratives within the context of China's modernization and provides an in depth analysis of how these men make sense of their new lives in the rapidly modernizing post Mao China with its emphasis on progress and development Further this book uses the men's own narratives to challenge the elite assumption that rural men's low status is a result of their failure to adopt a modern urban identity and lifestyle Drawing on interviews with 28 male rural migrants Xiaodong Lin unpacks the gender politics of Chinese men and masculinities and in turn contributes to a greater understanding of global masculinities in an international context This book will be of great interest to students and scholars working in the fields of Chinese culture and society gender studies migration studies sociology and social anthropology Shortlisted for this year's BSA Philip Abrams Memorial Prize

Gender, Modernity, and the Popular Press in Inter-War Britain Adrian Bingham, 2004-07-08 Journalists often claim that they write the first draft of history but few historians examine the press in detail when preparing later drafts This book demonstrates the value of popular newspapers as a historical source by using them to explore the attitudes and identities of inter war Britain and in particular the reshaping of femininity and masculinity It provides a fresh insight into a period of great significance in the making of twentieth century gender identities when women and men were coming to terms with the upheavals of the Great War the arrival of democracy and rapid social change The book also deepens our understanding of the development of the modern media by showing how newspaper editors in the fierce competition for readers developed a template for the popular press that is still influential today

To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott, 2001-08-30 Between 1870 and 1940 thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the centre of the art publishing theatrical and educational worlds This study examines connections between whiteness colonial status and modernity

Doing Time Rita

Felski, 2000-09 Nine essays that Felski English U of Virginia has revised from publication elsewhere grapple with whether people live in the same time whether it is possible to talk about men's time and women's or Western and non Western time how to explain that individuals and groups may perceive time very differently and yet seem to inhabit the same time in crucial respects and what the stakes are in either affirming or denying the contemporaneity and coevalness of others c Book News Inc Magazine Movements Laurel Forster, 2015-02-26 All women's magazines are not the same content outlook and format combine to shape publications quite distinctively While magazines in general have long been understood as a significant force in women's lives many critiques have limited themselves to discussions of mainstream printed publications that engage with narrowly stereotypical representations of femininity Looking at a range of women's magazines Cooperative Correspondence Club and Housewife and magazine programmes Woman's Hour and Houseparty Magazine Movements not only extends our definition of a magazine but most importantly unearths the connections between women's cultures specific magazines and the implied reader The author first outlines the existing field of magazine studies and analyzes the methodologies employed in accessing and assessing the cultural competence of magazines Each chapter then provides a case study of a different kind of magazine different in media form or style of presentation or audience connection or all three Forster not only extends our definition of a magazine but most importantly unearths the connections between women's cultures specific magazines and the implied reader In this way fresh insights are provided into the long standing importance of the magazine to the variety of feminisms on offer in Britain from the mid twentieth century to the present day

Material Spirituality in Modernist Women's Writing Elizabeth Anderson, 2020-03-19 For Virginia Woolf H D Mary Butts and Gwendolyn Brooks things mobilise creativity traverse domestic public and rural spaces and stage the interaction between the sublime and the mundane Ordinary things are rendered extraordinary by their spiritual or emotional significance and yet their very ordinariness remains part of their value This book addresses the intersection of spirituality things and places both natural and built environments in the work of these four women modernists From the living pebbles in Mary Butts's memoir to the pencil sought in Woolf's urban pilgrimage in Street Haunting the Christmas decorations crafted by children in H D's autobiographical novel The Gift and Maud Martha's love of dandelions in Brooks's only novel things indicate spiritual concerns in these writers work Elizabeth Anderson contributes to current debates around materiality vitalism and post secularism attending to both mainstream and heterodox spiritual expressions and connections between the two in modernism How we value our spaces and our world being one of the most pressing contemporary ethical and ecological concerns this volume contributes to the debate by arguing that a change in our attitude towards the environment will not come from a theory of renunciation but through attachment to and regard for material things Unmanning Modernism Elizabeth Jane Harrison, Shirley Peterson, 1997 Arguing for a radical re evaluation of the modernist aesthetic the essayists consider how women writers created their own version of modernism through the use of sentimental and domestic subject matter by writing about maternal concerns and through experiments with plot voice and points of view

Subjectivity and Sexuality in Contemporary Chinese Feminist Writing Ruttapond Swanpitak, 2025-02-17 This book explores representations of female sexuality and subjectivity in contemporary Chinese fiction by three women writers published from 1986 to 2000 from the perspective of poststructuralist feminism It discusses the representative works of authors Wang Anyi Tie Ning and Chi Li who are well known in the Chinese literary field However their works have not to date been analysed through the poststructuralist feminism's notions of subjectivity femininity and transgression This book then provides detailed analysis of each writer and draws comparisons between their works to provide an extended consideration of female sexuality and subjectivity within post Mao Chinese fiction In this respect this book not only offers fresh insights into the three authors' fiction but also contributes to the feminist study of Chinese women's writing Additionally the research contributes to a better understanding of contemporary Chinese culture in relation to patriarchy misogyny feminism differences and resistance It is relevant to scholars in the fields of China studies Chinese literature feminist literature and gender studies

Dandy in Irish and American Southern Fiction Ellen Crowell, 2007-11-19 This book identifies and interprets the longstanding ideological and aesthetic dialogue between the literary imaginations of Anglo Ireland and the Anglo American South It offers a rich comparative examination of nineteenth and twentieth century Irish and American Southern plantation literatures and their respective representations of race and nation gender and sexuality region and landscape and the gothic imagination Pairing major writers from both traditions including Maria Edgeworth William Faulkner Oscar Wilde Katherine Anne Porter and Elizabeth Bowen the book shows how this transatlantic dialogue coalesced around questions of power supremacy and gentility writers in Anglo Irish and Anglo Southern literary traditions recognized and spoke to each other through the discourse of aristocracy As the book demonstrates from the early nineteenth century onwards Irish and Anglo Southern writers conducted a sustained exploration into constructions of aristocracy through the figure of the dissipated deviant gentleman or lady the dandy By augmenting literary analysis with a variety of historical biographical archival and visual materials including nineteenth century trade cards original letters and twentieth century photographic portraits the book offers readers a wide ranging interdisciplinary illumination of transatlantic modernism
