The Glad Tidings E. J. Waggoner, 2021-11-05 In The Glad Tidings E J Waggoner presents a compelling theological exploration that intertwines the concepts of grace and redemption within the framework of Christian doctrine Written in the late 19th century Waggoner s literary style is characterized by its earnestness and clarity incorporating scriptural references that reinforce his arguments The book emerges amidst the debates surrounding righteousness by faith reflecting the growing tension within the Adventist community over interpretations of salvation and law Waggoner addresses these issues with an evangelical fervor inviting readers to understand the centrality of Christ in the experience of salvation E J Waggoner a prominent figure in the Adventist movement was influenced by his own experiences of faith and the broader theological climate of his time His work aligns with the messages delivered during the 1888 General Conference which emphasized a deeper understanding of the gospel Waggoner s background in medicine and his keen theological insight contributed to a unique perspective that sought reconciliation between faith and works prompting him to champion a message of hope and assurance in God s promises Readers seeking a profound exploration of faith will find The Glad Tidings not only intellectually enriching but spiritually uplifting Waggoner s arguments resonate with anyone grappling with the complexities of grace making this book a timeless resource for both study and inspiration Engaging with his insights will deepen your understanding of how Christian doctrine interplays with personal faith experiences In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read

The Glad Tidings a study of the book of Galatians was first printed in 1900 by the Pacific Press Publishing Company of Oakland California Originally having 265 pages this unabridged large print 16 point edition has 304 pages The Epistle to the Galatians together with its companion the Epistle to the Romans was the source through the Spirit of the Reformation of the sixteenth century the key note of which was The just shall live by faith The reformation then begun is not yet complete and the same watchword needs to be sounded now as then If the people of God will become filled with the truth so vividly set forth in this epistle both the church and the world will be stirred as profoundly as in the days of Luther May this speedily be the case and thus the times of restoration of all things be hastened It is quite common in writing upon any book in the Bible to spend some time on an Introduction to the book in question setting forth the nature of it the circumstances under which it was written and the probable purpose of the writer together with many other things partly conjectural and partly derived from the book itself All such statements the reader has to take on the authority of the one

making them since not having yet studied the book he cannot judge for himself The best way is to introduce him at once to the study of the book and then he will if diligent and faithful soon learn all that it has to reveal concerning itself We learn more of a man by talking with him than by hearing somebody talk about him So we will proceed at once to the study of the Epistle to the Galatians and let it speak for itself As many as walk according to this rule peace be on them and mercy and upon the Israel of God The rule of glory what a grand rule to walk by Are there two classes here mentioned No that cannot be for the Epistle has been devoted to showing that all are one in Christ Jesus And ye are complete in Him which is the Head of all principality and power in whom also ye are circumcised 263 with the circumcision made without hands in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ buried with Him in baptism wherein also ye are risen with Him through the faith of the operation of God who hath raised Him from the dead And you being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh hath He quickened together with Him having forgiven you all trespasses Col 2 10 13 We are the circumcision which worship God in the Spirit and rejoice in Christ Jesus and have no confidence in the flesh Phil 3 3 This circumcision constitutes us all the true Israel of God for this is the victory over sin and Israel means an overcomer No longer are we aliens from the commonwealth of Israel no more strangers and foreigners but fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God and are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets Jesus Christ Himself being the chief corner stone Eph 2 12 19 20 So we shall join the throng that shall come from the east and west and shall sit down with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven
