The Golden Guinea Of Heavy Horses Past And Present:

The Golden Guinea Book of Heavy Horses, Past and Present Edward Hart,1976-01-01 Heavy Horses Edward Hart,1994 Jim Cropper: The Dog Man , Showing the Heavy Horse Edward W. Hart,2004 A comprehensive guide to the conditioning producing training and exhibition of the heavy horse breeds The author gives advice on general care handling feeding shoeing plaiting and preparation for the show ring Harness handlers carts and carriages are examined and the problems of transporting these gentle giants and their vehicles are covered Horse Power and Magic George Ewart Evans,2012-03-15 The pioneering oral historian George Ewart Evans began to record the farming ways of East Anglia in the 1950s by listening to old men and women whose memories went back more than fifty or sixty years Many were agricultural labourers born before the turn of the century who had worked on farms before the arrival of mechanisation It was assumed at that time that horses would soon disappear from the farms and that this was the last chance of recording the part they had played for centuries It later became clear that this forecast was too pessimistic and in Horse Power and Magic Faber 1979 Ewart Evans describes in fascinating detail some important farms where horses continued to be beneficially used more than thirty years later He discovered that the traditions of the older horsemen had not died out but had been passed on in only slightly attenuated form to a younger generation keen to farm with horses proving that the day of the heavy horse was by no means over He also describes vividly the ways of horse tamers whose skills had a touch of magic about them Taking his works a whole there is no doubt that George Ewart Evans will survive as a fascinating pioneer of the extra academic recording of human history he has found a dimension all his own This is indeed the very stuff of history Sunday Times
