

THE HAMBROS 1779-1979

The intriguing story of the Hambro family begins in 1778 with the young merchant Calmer Levy departing from his father's house in Hamburg to marry a distant relative called Thobe Levi. Her father, a merchant in Copenhagen, had arranged the marriage so that Calmer could inherit his small but flourishing business. A few months after the wedding, in April 1779, Calmer was granted a licence to trade, and following local custom he adopted the name of his native town, which after a spelling error on the official document came to be written as Hambro.

follows the lives of each of Calmer and Thobe's four children – Zipora, Joseph, Isaac and Simon – and their descendants in Denmark, Norway

From Crisis to Crisis Brian O'Sullivan, 2018-12-11 From Crisis to Crisis examines the impact of the harsh conditions of the interwar economy on the British merchant banks The financial crises of 1914 and 1931 are assessed using primary sources The competitive threats including the rise of New York as a rival financial centre are considered It challenges alleged special treatment and provides fresh perspectives on the interwar rationalisation of industry During the late nineteenth century Britain's merchant banks had become pre eminent in a world of fixed exchange rates free trade and the unfettered mobility of international capital This world was increasingly challenged in the interwar period being replaced by floating exchange rates trade protectionism and restrictions on capital movements This book fills a gap in the historiography of British banking by recovering the histories of long forgotten merchant banks rather than focusing on the better known firms Using a wide range of archival resources it traces the strategic transformation by some merchant banks from higher risk capital intensive activities to lower risk advisory services Brian O Sullivan has been jointly awarded the 2019 BAC Wadsworth Prize for From Crisis to Crisis The Transformation of Merchant Banking 1914 1939 It was judged by the Business Archives Council BAC to have made an outstanding contribution to the study of British business history Brian shared the prize with Professor Priya Satia of Stanford University in California

Scandinavia and the Great Powers 1890-1940 Patrick Salmon, 2002-04-11 At the beginning of the twentieth century Scandinavia lay on the margin of European power politics but with the polarisation of international relations in the era of the two world wars Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden became the point where the spheres of influence of three great powers Great Britain Germany and Russia intersected In this book Patrick Salmon uses his extensive research in British German and Scandinavian archives to examine the position of the Nordic countries in the great power rivalries and conflicts of the period 1890 1940 However it does not treat the Nordic countries merely as passive victims It seeks to show that despite the disparity in strength between the great powers and the small states of northern Europe the latter had means of adapting to great power pressures and even influencing the policies of their formidable neighbours
