The Hand Made Object And Its Maker:

The Hand Made Object and Its Maker Michael Owen Jones, 1975 Objects and Meaning M. Anna Fariello, Paula Owen, 2004 Objects and Meaning expands upon a national conversation questioning how various academic disciplines and cultural institutions approach and assign meaning to artist made objects in postmodern North America Although most of the discourse since the mid 20th century revolved around the split between art and craft the contributors to this collection of essays take a broader view examining the historical cultural and theoretical perspectives that defined the parameters of that conversation Their focus is on issues concerning works that appeared to cross over from mainstream art to an amorphous and pluralistic aesthetic milieu that has yet to be defined Dulcimer Maker R. Gerald Alvey, 2021-10-21 Dulcimer making has long been considered an art The exquisite design is also functional and the best instruments sound as beautiful as they look Homer Ledford a legend among dulcimer makers is known for his innovative but traditional craftsmanship A biography and a step by step guide to dulcimer making this classic book illuminates and celebrates the work of a master craftsman musician and folk artist This new edition presents a foreword by Ron Pen director of the John Jacob Niles Center for American Music at the University of Kentucky and an enlightening afterword featuring a conversation with Ledford In an era when Americans are rediscovering their musical roots Dulcimer Maker offers a unique look at a bluegrass legend The Carver's Art Simon J. Bronner, 2021-11-21 Chains carved from a single block of wood cages whittled with wooden balls rattling inside all made with just a pocketknife are among our most enduring folk designs Who makes them and why what is their history what do they mean for their makers for their viewers for our society Simon J Bronner portrays four wood carvers in southern Indiana men who had been transplanted from the rural landscapes of their youth to industrial towns After retiring they took up a skill they remembered from childhood Bronner discusses how creativity helped these men adjust to change and how viewers responses to carving reflect their own backgrounds By recording the narratives of these men s lives the stories and anecdotes that laced their conversation Bronner finds new insight into the functions and symbolism of traditional craft Including anew illustrated afterword in which the author discusses recent developments in the carver s art this new edition will appeal to carvers scholars and anyone interested in traditional woodworking Mediation, Information, and Communication Brent D. Ruben, 2019-01-22 This third volume of Information and Behavior shows broad continuities with previous volumes in this series but it also represents an important evolution In emphasizing theoretical advances in mediation information and communication processes this volume has unifying themes at the cutting edge of communication research linking communication with areas as far ranging as cognitive psychology intellectual history social psychology policy and macroeconomics A sampling of the contents indicates both continuities and discontinuities of communication research embodied in this volume Contributions include Joseph Turow Mass Communication as Concept Gary Grumpert and Robert Cathcart A Theory of Mediation Leah Lievrouw and T Andrew Finn Common Dimensions of Communication Joshua

Meyrowitz Mediated and Unmediated Behavior Kathleen Reardon Teaching Children About AIDS Sari Thomas The Death of Intellectual History and the Birth of the Transient Past Sheizaf Rafaeli Interacting with Media The second part of the work emphasizing research and policy in specific information societies and regions includes an opening essay by Everett M Rogers and follow up studies by Judith K Larsen on Silicon Valley Quentin W Lindsey on The North Carolina Research Triangle Luis Fonseca High Technology in Brazil Ruyzo Ogasawara High Technology in Japan and Mitchell Moss Telecommunications and Financial Centers The final two portions of the book cover social theory and cultural processes They include articles by Jerry Salvaggio and Richard Nelson Models for Developing Telecommunications and Information Industries Everett M Rogers and James Dearing University Industry Technology Transfer Frederick Williams The Communications Revolution Revisited Rolf Wigand Recurring Questions about the Information Society Lee Thayer Tropes and Things Gordon L Miller The Energy of Intelligence David Carr Thinking in Museums Benjamin J Bates Information as an Economic Good Jorge Schement and Daniel Stout A Time Line of Information Technology

American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are

History from Things Stephen Lubar, David W. Kingery, 1995-09-17 History from Things explores the many ways objects defined broadly to range from Chippendale tables and Italian Renaissance pottery to seventeenth century parks and a New England cemetery can reconstruct and help reinterpret the past Eighteen essays describe how to read artifacts how to listen to landscapes and locations and how to apply methods and theories to historical inquiry that have previously belonged solely to archaeologists anthropologists art historians and conservation scientists Spanning vast time periods geographical locations and academic disciplines History from Things leaps the boundaries between fields that use material evidence to understand the past The book expands and redirects the study of material culture an emerging field now building a common base of theory and a shared intellectual agenda

Textile traditions of eastern Newfoundland Gerald L. Pocius, 1979-01-01 A description of the once communal and now individual activity of textile production in eastern Newfoundland including dyeing techniques fancywork and the creation of mittens socks sweaters mats and quilts The author identifies an emphasis on the quality of the product rather than strict adherence to stylistic norms and suggests that higher household incomes and the increased availability of commercial textiles have led to fewer individuals practicing this art
