Diebold, 2024-12-16 Medieval Art Modern Politics is an innovative volume of twelve essays by international scholars prefaced by a comprehensive introduction It examines the political uses and misuses of medieval images objects and the built environment from the 16th to the 20th century In case studies ranging from Russia to the US and from catacombs mosques cathedrals and feudal castles to museums and textbooks it demonstrates how the artistic and built legacy has been appropriated in post medieval times to legitimize varied political agendas whether royalist imperial fascist or colonial Entities as diverse as the Roman papacy the Catholic Church local arts organizations private owners of medieval fortresses or organizers of exhibitions and publishers are examined for the multiple ways they co-opt medieval works of art Medieval Art Modern Politics enlarges the history of revivalism and of medievalism by giving it a uniquely political twist demonstrating the unavoidable but often ignored intersection of art history knowledge and power French Cinema and the Great War Marcelline Block, Barry Nevin, 2016-02-04 Even a century after its conclusion the devastation of the Great War still echoes in the work of artists who try to make sense of the political moral ideological and economic changes and challenges it spawned France the military major power of the Western Front carries the legacy of battles on its own soil and countless French lives lost defending the nation from the Central Powers It is no surprise that the impact of the First World War can still be seen in French films into the present day French Cinema and the Great War Remembrance and Representation provides the first book length study of World War I as it is featured in French cinema from the silent era to contemporary films Presented in three thematic sections Recording and Remembering the Great War Women at the Front and Interrogating Commemoration the essays in this volume explore the ways in which French film contributes to the restoration and modification of memories of the war Films such as La Grande Illusion King of Hearts A Very Long Engagement and Joyeux Noel are among those discussed in the volume's examination of the various ways in which film mediates personal and collective memories of this critical historical event This volume will be an invaluable resource not only to those interested in French Cinema or the cinema of the Great War but also to those interested in the impacts of war more generally on the cultural output of nations torn by the violence death and destruction of military conflict New Publications for Architecture Libraries ,1990

Kaufmann,2019-07-30 The authors of Castrum to Castle trace the evolution of defensive architecture at the turn of the late Middle Ages and the beginning of the Renaissance Old Barbed Wire Blog Across western Europe the long tradition of castle building took on its most sophisticated form in the later Medieval period and then in response to the development of gunpowder weapons it underwent a fundamental change from castle to fortress This the second volume of a highly illustrated new study of medieval fortification gives a fascinating insight into the last great age of castles and the centuries of violence and conflict they were part of It traces the advances made between the twelfth and the fifteenth centuries looking in particular at the form these fortifications took in contexts as different as Italy Wales France and the Iberian Peninsula Many would regard this period in the history of castles as the classic age It was followed by a phase of relative decline as the conditions of warfare changed and castles had to be adapted to cope with cannon The conventional castle gave way to new styles of fortification But as the authors demonstrate they were still essential factors in military calculations and campaigns they were of direct strategic and tactical importance wherever there was an attempt to take or hold territory A fascinating treatise on the way such buildings were modified to provide protection from growing threats Books Monthly
