The Mist New World Literature Series:

Approaches to a "new" World Literature Lorely French, Marina Ortrud M. Hertrampf, 2023-11-20 The history of written Romani literature is only about 100 years old and thus Romani literatures are still being defined and consolidated At least two special features characterize this young literature on the one hand it is a multilingual diasporic world literature that often can be characterized as engaged literature and tries to deconstruct various age old stereotypes of the minority On the other hand female authors play a strikingly prominent role Female authors frequently achieve visibility with their texts on the national book markets Some authors appear in their own texts as committed feminists and or human rights activists For other authors sexuality and gender play a less prominent role in their works Additionally women often also play very central roles in texts by male authors Therefore this volume aims to explore the different facets of Romani literatures on two interrelated axes First the essays explore the status of several diverse works as transnational world literature Second the contributions examine the significance of writing as a form of social engagement and self empowerment What emerges is the observation that mainly women authors have been speaking out and standing up for their rights as women and Romnya With contributions from Oksana Marafioti Ana Bel n Mart n Sevillano Martin Shaw Kirsten von Hagen Marina Ortrud M Hertrampf Emilia Kledzik Florian Homann Paola Toninato Sidonia Bauer Lorely French Viola Parente Capkov

The New World Park Benjamin, James Aldrich, Henry Champion Deming, James Mackay, 1844 The Project of Prose in Early Modern Europe and the New World Elizabeth Fowler, Roland Greene, 1997-06-28 What were the possibilities of prose as a literary medium in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries And how did it operate in the literary and social world The Project of Prose in Early Modern Europe and the New World brings together ten essays by leading scholars of the literatures of England Spain France Italy Portugal and the colonial Americas to answer these questions in wide ranging ways Several of the essays shed light on landmark prose works of the period some discuss what lesser known writings reveal about the medium others move between the literary and the non literary to reflect on the medium s intersections with history fiction subjectivity the state science and other aspects of social and cultural life Overall this 1997 collection will provoke an international reconsideration of the remarkable visibility and diversity of the medium of prose in the early modern period The New World, 1843

Recoding World Literature B. Venkat Mani, 2016-12-01 Winner 2018 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Germanic Languages and Literatures Modern Language Association Winner 2018 German Studies Association DAAD Book Prize in Germanistik and Cultural Studies From the current vantage point of the transformation of books and libraries B Venkat Mani presents a historical account of world literature By locating translation publication and circulation along routes of bibliomigrancy the physical and virtual movement of books Mani narrates how world literature is coded and recoded as literary works find new homes on faraway bookshelves Mani argues that the proliferation of world literature in a society is the function of a nation s relationship with print culture a Faustian pact with books Moving from early Orientalist collections to the Nazi magazine Weltliteratur to the European Digital Library Mani reveals the political foundations for a history of world literature that is at once a philosophical ideal a process of exchange a mode of reading and a system of classification Shifting current scholarship's focus from the academic to the general reader from the university to the public sphere Recoding World Literature argues that world literature is culturally determined historically conditioned and politically charged Kazuo Ishiguro Against World Literature Chris Holmes, 2024-11-14 A study of how Kazuo Ishiguro's novels respond to and represent the world through characters that are profoundly limited in their understanding of the systems that bind them How has a writer known principally for his contained domestic novels come to represent the most dynamic elements of world literature In Kazuo Ishiguro Against World Literature Chris Holmes expands our understanding of how world literature engages with the most pressing crises of the 20th and 21st centuries by examining Ishiguro's fascination with characters who are profoundly constrained in their ability to understand global systems to which they are subject Rather than following the established pattern of so called global novels which crisscross the planet exhibiting a knowing cosmopolitanism Ishiguro's fictional engagement with the world comes principally in the form of characters who are cut off from the global systems that abuse them By examining the ways in which Ishiguro foregrounds the in process thinking of those who fail to comprehend their place in the flow of politics culture and ideas Holmes positions Ishiguro as the great chronicler of everyday lives and as such prepares a mode of reading world literature that questions the assumptions for how we live and think with others when each of us is deeply limited The Disposition of Nature Jennifer Wenzel, 2019-12-03 Finalist 2022 Ecocriticism Book Prize Association for the Study of Literature and the Environment Shortlisted 2020 Book Prize Association for the Study of the Arts of the Present How do literature and other cultural forms shape how we imagine the planet for better or worse In this rich original and long awaited book Jennifer Wenzel tackles the formal innovations rhetorical appeals and sociological imbrications of world literature that might help us confront unevenly distributed environmental crises including global warming The Disposition of Nature argues that assumptions about what nature is are at stake in conflicts over how it is inhabited or used Both environmental discourse and world literature scholarship tend to confuse parts and wholes Working with writing and film from Africa South Asia and beyond Wenzel takes a contrapuntal approach to sites and subjects dispersed across space and time Reading for the planet Wenzel shows means reading from near to there across experiential divides between specific sites at more than one scale Impressive in its disciplinary breadth Wenzel's book fuses insights from political ecology geography anthropology history and law while drawing on active debates between postcolonial theory and world literature as well as scholarship on the Anthropocene and the material turn In doing so the book shows the importance of the literary to environmental thought and practice elaborating how a supple understanding of cultural imagination and narrative logics can foster more robust accounts of global inequality and energize movements for justice and livable futures The Routledge Companion to World Literature Theo D'haen, David

Damrosch, Djelal Kadir, 2022-09-30 This fully updated new edition of The Routledge Companion to World Literature contains ten brand new chapters on topics such as premodern world literature migration studies world history artificial intelligence global Englishes remediation crime fiction Lusophone literature Middle Eastern literature and oceanic studies Separated into four key sections the volume covers the history of world literature through significant writers and theorists from Goethe to Said Casanova and Moretti the disciplinary relationship of world literature to areas such as philology translation globalization and diaspora studies theoretical issues in world literature including gender politics and ethics and a global perspective on the politics of world literature Comprehensive yet accessible this book is ideal as an introduction to world literature or for those looking to extend their knowledge of this essential field      The New International Encyclopædia

Daniel Coit Gilman, Harry Thurston Peck, Frank Moore Colby, 1907      World Literature in the Soviet Union Galin Tihanov, Anne Lounsbery, Rossen Djagalov, 2024-02-20 This is the first volume to consistently examine Soviet engagement with world literature from multiple institutional and disciplinary perspectives intellectual history literary history and theory comparative literature translation studies diaspora studies Its emphasis is on the lessons one could learn from the Soviet attention to world literature as such the present volume makes a significant contribution to current debates on world literature beyond the field of Slavic and East European Studies and foregrounds the need to think of world literature pluralistically in a manner that is not restricted by the agendas of Anglophone academe
