Washington's Crossing David Hackett Fischer,2006-02-01 Six months after the Declaration of Independence the American Revolution was all but lost Yet as David Hackett Fischer recounts in this riveting history George Washington and many other Americans refused to let the Revolution die On Christmas night as a howling nor easter struck the Delaware Valley he led his men across the river and attacked the exhausted Hessian garrison at Trenton killing or capturing nearly a thousand men A second battle of Trenton followed within days The Americans held off a counterattack by Lord Cornwallis s best troops then were almost trapped by the British force Under cover of night Washington s men stole behind the enemy and struck them again defeating a brigade at Princeton The British were badly shaken In twelve weeks of winter fighting their army suffered severe damage their hold on New Jersey was broken and their strategy was ruined A State of the Expedition from Canada John Burgoyne,1780 Folded maps are titled 1 A map of the country in which the army under Lt General Burgoyne acted in the campaign of 1777 shewing the marches of the army engraved by Wm Faden 3 Position of the detachment under Lieutt Coll Baum at Walmscock near Bennington shewing the attacks of the enemy on the 16th August 1777 drawn by Lieutt Durnford Engineer engraved by Wm Faden 4 Plan of the encampment and position of the army under his excelly Lt General Burgoyne at Swords House on Hudson s River near Stillwater on Sept 17th with the positions of that part of the army engaged on the 19th Septr 1777 drawn by W C Wilkinson Lt 62d Regt Asst Engr engraved by Wm Faden 5 Plan of the position which the army under Lt Genrl Burgoyne took at Saratoga on the 10th of September 1777 and in which it remained till the convention was signed engraved by Wm Faden 6 Plan of the encampment and position of the army under His Excelly Lt General Burgoyne at Braemus Heights on Hudon s River near Stillwater on the 20th Septr with the position of the detachment engraved by Wm Faden Collections of the New York Historical Society for the Year ... New-York
