Sirena Selena:

Sirena Selena Mayra Santos-Febres, 2007-04-01 From the author of Urban Oracles comes Mayra Santos Febres's Sirena Selena somewhere between The Blue Angel and Kiss of the Spider Woman rises the legend of Sirena Selena the diva siren of the Caribbean whose boleros seduce and torment whoever dares listen Discovered by Martha Divine in the backstreets of San Juan picking over garbage drugged out of his mind and singing boleros that transfix the listener a fifteen year old hustler is transformed into Sirena Selena a diva whose uncanny beauty and irresistible voice will be their ticket to fame and fortune Auditioning for one of the luxury hotels in the Dominican Republic Selena casts her spell over Hugo Graubel one of the hotel's rich investors Graubel is a powerful man in the Republic married with children Silena determined to escape the poverty and abuse she suffered as a child engages Graubel in a long seduction in this mordant intensely lyrical tragicomedy part masque part cabaret about identity class race gender and the hunger and desire to be other things Relocating Identities in Latin American Cultures Elizabeth Montes Garcés, 2007 Literature and other forms of cultural expression provide unprecedented insight into perpetually changing notions of Latin American identity in this fascinating collection that explores a wide breadth of genres and topics Relocating Identities in Latin American Cultures explores the perpetually changing notion of Latin American identity particularly as illustrated in literature and other forms of cultural expression Editor Elizabeth Montes Garcés has gathered contributions from specialists who examine the effects of such major phenomena as migration globalization and gender on the construct of Latin American identities and as such are reshaping the traditional understanding of Latin America's cultural history The contributors to this volume are experts in Latin American literature and culture Covering a diverse range of genres from poetry to film their essays explore themes such as feminism deconstruction and postcolonial theory as they are reflected in the Latin American cultural milieu Representing Queer and Transgender Identity

Alexandra Gonzenbach Perkins, 2017-08-04 Fluid Bodies traces the intersections of global movement with transgender and queer identities from authors and artists of the Hispanic Caribbean Utilizing the theme of fluidity and travel Fluid Bodies analyzes novels graphic novels theatre and performance art These works demonstrate how transgender and queer bodies redefine belonging particularly national belonging through global movement and community making practices Through these genres the text follows the movement of transgender and queer identities from textual spaces to spaces of the body The gradual movement from text to body as it occurs in these genres demonstrates the variety of representational strategies that dismantle binary readings of gender sexuality and nationality Transgender visibility is a pressing social issue and today's transgender moment will be a social and political necessity for years to come Of particular importance are representations of transgender and/or queer people of color The field of transgender representation is growing and Fluid Bodies adds to the visibility of transgender and queer identity from the Hispanic Caribbean By investigating the relationship between novels graphic novels theatre and performance art Fluid Bodies emphasizes how each work plays on and against the separation of language and the body and how Hispanic Caribbean authors and artists represent transgender and queer identity in order to redefine cultural and national belonging in various geographic spaces

Out of Bounds Dara E. Goldman, 2008 Out of Bounds teases out the intricacies of a territorial conception of nationhood in the context of a global reorganization that ostensibly renders historical boundaries irrelevant Hispanic Caribbean writers have traditionally pointed toward the supposed perfect equivalence of island and nation and have explained local culture as a direct consequence of that equation The major social political and demographic shifts of the twentieth century increasingly call this equation into question yet authors continue to assert its existence and its centrality in the evolution of Caribbean identity The author contends that traditional forms of identification have not been eviscerated by globalization instead they have persisted and in some cases have been intensified by recent geopolitical shifts Out of Bounds underscores the ongoing role of the nation as the site of identity formation In this manner the book presents Hispanic Caribbean cultural production as a case study that acutely dramatizes the paradoxical status of traditional demarcations of self definition in an increasingly globalized context

Island Bodies Rosamond S. King, 2014-05-13 Island Bodies analyzes cultural production from Caribbean and Caribbean diaspora writers that flouts sexual norms The chapters focus on how homosexuality interracial relationships transgender people and women's sexual agency are portrayed in film music and literature

Cultural Identity and Postmodern Writing Theo d'. The Plantation in the Postslavery Imagination Elizabeth Christine Russ, 2009 In a provocative new approach toward understanding transnational literary cultures this study examines the specter of the plantation that physical place most vividly associated with slavery in the Americas For Elizabeth Russ the plantation is not merely a literal location but also a vexing rhetorical ideological and psychological trope through which intersecting histories of the New World are told Through a series of precise in depth readings Russ analyzes the discourse of the plantation through a number of suggestive pairings male and female perspectives U S and Spanish American traditions and continental alongside island societies To chart comparative elements in the development of the postslavery imagination in the Northern and Southern hemispheres Russ distinguishes between a modern and a postmodern imaginary The former privileges a familiar plot of modernity the traumatic transition from a local largely agrarian order to an increasingly anonymous industrialized society The latter abandoning nostalgia toward the past suggests a new history using the strategies of performance such as witnessing reticency and traversal Authors examined include The Twelve Southerners Fernando Ortiz Teresa de la Parra Eudora Welty Antonio Benítez Rojo Gayl Jones Toni Morrison and Mayra Santos Febres among others Applying sharp analyses across a broad range of texts Russ reveals how the language used to imagine communities influenced by the plantation has been gendered racialized and eroticized in ways that oppose the domination of an ever shifting North while often reproducing the fundamental power divide Her work moves beyond the North South dichotomy that has often stymied scholarly work in Latin American studies and importantly provides a model for future hemispheric approaches

Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Irune del Río Gabiola, 2016-12-27 Resistant Bodies in the Cultural Productions of Transnational Hispanic Caribbean Women Reimagining Queer Identity examines the art created by several Caribbean women who use literature film graphic novels music testimonios photographs etc to convey social justice democracy and new ways of re imaging marginal identities In using Chela Sandoval's theories on methodologies of the oppressed Irune del Río Gabiola argues how the tactics Sandoval offers can be productively applied to the cultural productions analyzed The author explores how the protagonists of all the cultural productions this book focuses on developing tactics to create new possibilities and alternatives for self fashioning Particularly del Río Gabiola reconsiders concepts such as shame failure unbecoming hermeneutics of love or flexible bodies as methodologies of the oppressed that propose decolonizing emancipatory techniques in a transnational arena

Coming of Age in the Afro-Latin American Novel Bonnie S. Wasserman, 2022 This book is the first study of recent coming of age novels from Brazil and the Spanish speaking Caribbean I investigate the divide in Afro Latin American research that usually favors either Hispanic America or Brazil but not both I argue that contemporary novelists have adapted the coming of age novel to explore central themes in the Afro Latin American experience such as Blackness African religions and folkloric traditions and immigration While there is no firm consensus on the term Blackness scholars typically use the term to describe the social cultural and historical experience of Afro descendants in the diaspora The Afro Latin American bildungsromans examined in this study include a number of religions such as Catholicism Spiritism and syncretic folk religions as well as Santería and Umbanda reflecting the variety of beliefs in Latin America I have found that young people turn to religions and spiritual traditions in time of need Going on a journey as part of one's personal development is one of the central themes of many bildungsroman and this pertains too in Afro Latin American novels Caribbean characters are depicted as immigrating to the United States whereas few Brazilians have enough resources to travel to North America and instead move to larger cities within their own country
