later work in Proust fiber and Buddhism to her fundamental contribution to queer theory and the axes of identification across difference that motivated her work and attachment to it Come As You Are the other piece of writing is a previously unpublished talk Sedgwick gave in 1999 2000 It represents a significant bridge between her earlier and later work sharing with her book Tendencies the ambition to discover the something that makes queer inextinguishable In this piece Sedgwick does that by contemplating her own mortality alongside her creative engagement with Buddhist thought especially the in between states named bardos and her newfound energy for making things These were represented in a show of her fabric art Floating Columns In the Bardo that accompanied her talk a number of images of which are included in this book They feature floating figures suspended in the realization of death They are objects produced by Sedgwick made of fabric they come from her yet are discontinuous with her occupying a mode of existence that exceeds the span of human life and the confines of individual identity They could be put beside the queer transitive identifications across difference that Goldberg s essay explores Creative Exercises for Writing Box Set (07CREW & 05CREW) Jöri Seen, Mark McCanister, 2025-07-01
