Speaking About Godard:

Speaking about Godard Kaja Silverman, Harun Farocki, 1998-07-01 A leading film theorist and a filmmaker discuss the lasting contributions of the most prominent living filmmaker Jean Luc Godard Probably the most prominent living filmmaker and one of the foremost directors of the postwar era Jean Luc Godard has received astonishingly little critical attention in the United States With Speaking about Godard leading film theorist Kaja Silverman and filmmaker Harun Farocki have made one of the most significant contributions to film studies in recent memory a lively set of conversations about Godard and his major films from Contempt to Passion Combining the insights of a feminist film theorist with those of an avant garde filmmaker these eight dialogues each representing a different period of Godard's film production and together spanning his entire career get at the very heart of his formal and theoretical innovations teasing out with probity and grace the ways in which image and text inform one another throughout Godard's oeuvre Indeed the dialogic format here serves as the perfect means of capturing the rhythm of Godard's ongoing conversation with his own medium in addition to shedding light on how a critic and a director of films respectively interpret his work As it takes us through Godard's films in real time Speaking about Godard conveys the sense that we are at the movies with Silverman and Farocki and that we as both student and participant are the ultimate beneficiaries of the performance of this critique Accessible informative witty and most of all entertaining the conversations assembled here form a testament to the continuing power of Godard's work to spark intense debate and reinvigorate the study of one of the great artists of our time

Jean-Luc Godard's Political Filmmaking Irmgard Emmelhainz, 2019-04-26 This book offers an examination of the political dimensions of a number of Jean Luc Godard's films from the 1960s to the present The author seeks to dispel the myth that Godard's work abandoned political questions after the 1970s and was limited to merely formal ones The book includes a discussion of militant filmmaking and Godard's little known films from the Dziga Vertov Group period which were made in collaboration with Jean Pierre Gorin The chapters present a thorough account of Godard's investigations on the issue of aesthetic political representation including his controversial juxtaposition of the Shoah and the Nakba Emmelhainz argues that the French director's oeuvre highlights contradictions between aesthetics and politics in a quest for a dialectical image By positing all of Godard's work as experiments in dialectical materialist filmmaking from Le Petit soldat 1963 to Adieu au langage 2014 the author brings attention to Godard's ongoing inquiry on the role filmmakers can have in progressive political engagement

Jean-Luc Godard's Unmade and Abandoned Projects Michael Witt, 2025-10-30 This book offers the first study of the French Swiss filmmaker Jean Luc Godard's vast body of over 380 unmade unfinished and abandoned projects over the course of his career from the late 1940s to the 2020s While Godard is widely recognised as one of the most important and influential filmmakers of the post war period extremely little has been written about his largely invisible and unknown corpus of unrealised works This includes many unmade films videos and television programmes alongside a wide range of unfinished non audiovisual ventures such as plays books exhibitions a CD a camera a film journal and even an architectural maquette Drawing on extensive research on the surviving traces of these projects in archives and private collections Michael Witt's comprehensive survey establishes the extent and constitution of the Godardian corpus of unrealised and abandoned works for the first time and examines them in detail in six key perspectives literature cinema theatre television politics and history The volume includes in depth case studies of numerous major unfinished initiatives by Godard and his collaborators in locations around the globe France the Middle East the USA Quebec the People's Republic of Mozambique charts the extensive connections between his abandoned projects and his completed works casts in relief his creative process and offers a fresh way of thinking about and approaching his practice and oeuvre as a whole A full annotated list of his unrealised and abandoned projects is included as an appendix

Gestures of Seeing in Film, Video and Drawing Asbjørn Grønstad, Henrik Gustafsson, Øyvind Vågnes, 2016-06-23 The first book of its kind Gestures of Seeing in Film Video and Drawing engages broadly with the often too neglected yet significant questions of gesture in visual culture In our turbulent mediasphere where images as lenses bearing on their own circumstances are constantly mobilized to enact symbolic forms of warfare and where they get entangled in all kinds of cultural conflicts and controversies a turn to the gestural life of images seems to promise a particularly pertinent avenue of intellectual inquiry The complex gestures of the artwork remain an under explored theoretical topos in contemporary visual culture studies In visual art the gestural appears to be that which intervenes between form and content materiality and meaning But as a conceptual force it also impinges upon the very process of seeing itself As a critical and heuristic trope the gestural galvanizes many of the most pertinent areas of inquiry in contemporary debates and scholarship in visual culture and related disciplines ethics images and their values and affects aesthetics from visual essentialism to transesthetics and synesthesia ecology iconoclastic gestures and spaces of conflict and epistemology questions of the archive memory and documentation Offering fresh perspectives on many of these areas Gestures of Seeing in Film Video and Drawing will be intensely awaited by readers from and across several disciplines such as anthropology linguistics performance theater film and visual studies

Making Worlds Claudia Breger, 2020-04-14 The twenty first century has witnessed a resurgence of economic inequality racial exclusion and political hatred causing questions of collective identity and belonging to assume new urgency In Making Worlds Claudia Breger argues that contemporary European cinema provides ways of thinking about and feeling collectivity that can challenge these political trends Breger offers nuanced readings of major contemporary films such as Michael Haneke's The White Ribbon Alejandro González Iñárritu's Biutiful Fatih Akın's The Edge of Heaven Asghar Farhadi's A Separation and Aki Kaurismäki's refugee trilogy as well as works by Jean-Luc Godard and Rainer Werner Fassbinder Through a new model of cinematic worldmaking Breger examines the ways in which these works produce unexpected and destabilizing affects that invite viewers to imagine new connections among individuals or groups These films and their depictions of refugees immigrants and communities do not simply counter dominant political imaginaries of hate and fear with calls for empathy or solidarity Instead they produce layered sensibilities that offer the potential for greater openness to others present past and future claims Drawing on the work of Latour Deleuze and Rancière Breger engages questions of genre and realism along with the legacies of cinematic modernism Offering a rich account of contemporary film Making Worlds theorizes the cinematic creation of imaginative spaces in order to find new ways of responding to political hatred Video Theories Dieter Daniels, Jan Thoben, 2022-01-29 Breaking new ground as the first transdisciplinary reader in this field Video Theories is a resource that will form the basis for further research and teaching While theories of video have not yet formed an academic discipline comparable to the more canonized theories of photography film and television the reader offers a major step toward bridging this video gap in media theory which is remarkable considering today's omnipresence of the medium through online video portals and social media Consisting of a selection of eighty-three annotated source texts and twelve chapter introductions written by the editors this book considers fifty years of scholarly and artistic reflections on the topic representing an intergenerational and international set of voices This transdisciplinary reader offers a conceptual framework for diverging and contradictory viewpoints following the continuous transformations of what video was is and will be Harper's New Monthly Magazine; Volume 1 Anonymous, 1850

Eliza Cook's Journal Eliza Cook, 1850 Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 1850 Art in the Cinematic Imagination Susan Felleman, 2010-01-01 Bringing an art historical perspective to the realm of American and European film Art in the Cinematic Imagination examines the ways in which films have used works of art and artists themselves as cinematic and narrative motifs From the use of portraits in Vertigo to the cinematic depiction of women artists in Artemisia and Camille Claudel Susan Felleman incorporates feminist and psychoanalytic criticism to reveal individual and collective perspectives on sex gender identity commerce and class Probing more than twenty films from the postwar era through contemporary times Art in the Cinematic Imagination considers a range of structurally significant art objects artist characters and art world settings to explore how the medium of film can amplify reinvent or recontextualize the other visual arts Fluently speaking across disciplines Felleman's study brings a broad array of methodologies to bear on questions such as the evolution of the Hollywood Love Goddess and the pairing of the feminine with death on screen A persuasive approach to an engaging body of films Art in the Cinematic Imagination illuminates a compelling and significant facet of the cinematic experience
