

A black and white photograph of a wooden ladder leaning against a sand dune. The ladder is made of rough, weathered wood and has several rungs. It is positioned on the left side of the frame, leaning against the dune. The dune is a large, smooth mound of sand that stretches across the middle ground. In the background, there is another sand dune and a sky filled with soft, white clouds. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Speaking Of Silence:

Auden's O Andrew W. Hass, 2013-11-01 Explores the rise of the idea of nothing in Western modernity and how its figuration is transforming and offering new possibilities In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary history of ideas Andrew W Hass explores the ascendancy of the concept of nothing into late modernity He argues that the rise of the reality of nothing in religion philosophy and literature has taken place only against the decline of the concept of One a shift from a sovereign understanding of the One unity universality toward the figure of the O a cipher figure that as nonentity is nevertheless determinant of other realities The figuring of this O culminates in a proliferation of literary expressions of nothingness void and absence from 1940 to 1960 but by century s end this movement has shifted from linear progression to mutation whereby religion theology philosophy literature and other critical modes of thought such as feminism merge into a shared circular activity The writer W H Auden lends his name to this O his long poetic work The Sea and the Mirror an exemplary manifestation of its implications Hass examines this work along with that of a host of writers philosophers and theologians to trace the revolutionary hermeneutics and creative space of the O and to provide the reasoning of why nothing is now such a powerful force in the imagination of the twenty first century and of how it might move us through and beyond our turbulent times

Between Speaking and Silence Mary M. Reda, 2010-01-01 Explores the question of student silence from students perspectives and challenges the conventional wisdom about silent students

Thought as Experience in Bataille, Cioran, and Rosset Joseph Acquisto, 2024-06-13 Examines how postwar French writers constitute the thinking subject and reshape its relation to the external social world Joseph Acquisto analyzes the writings of three thinkers during and shortly after the Second World War who address the question of what it means to think and what it means to constitute oneself as a thinking subject at a time that seems to come after everything with the ruins of attacked cities echoing the remains of a philosophical tradition that was confident in its establishment of human beings as rational of reason leading to progress and of both the self and the world as knowable What Georges Bataille calls inner experience and Emil Cioran labels thinking against oneself is something akin to a drama not a mere representation of the self in relation to the world but a process of remapping the relation of subject to object of thought dialectically Acquisto argues that both writers adopt an anti systematic approach to thinking that implicates fragmentary writing as a way of turning answers about subject object relations into questions Acquisto contends that this stands in contrast to the approach of Cl ment Rosset whose affirmation of the inaccessibility of the real leads to an anti intellectual grace filled affirmation of life as it is given under the guise of what he calls the tragic Bringing together thinkers that have seldom been discussed in a comparative light Thought as Experience in Bataille Cioran and Rosset examines the affective dimensions of thought as experience and considers the political stakes of postwar thought as out of order with the world from which it springs

The Taoist Pedagogy of Pathmarks Jie Yu,2018-10-28 Based on the intertwined complex conversations among Heidegger Dewey and Lao Tzu this book explores the possibilities of the Taoist Pedagogy of Pathmarks as a clearing between truth and untruth responding to the spiritual call of Tao as inaction and teaching as releasement In this book Yu provides a critical exploration of the rich dynamics in the direct conversations among the three great thinkers of east and west highlighting the implications of their ideas for education throughout As more educational researchers teacher educators and teachers recognize the limitations of didactic teaching as telling the author brings an alternate pathway to light

Reading Voices Garrett Stewart,1990-09-10 At last a scrupulous and sustained earsighted study of that shadowy yet vital intersection of sound and sense without which literary reading remains a disembodied exercise Stewart immerses us brilliantly in the poststructural method of a phonemic analysis Geoffrey H Hartman author of Saving the Text Stunningly articulate Alongside brilliant exegeses of passages from the major English poets Stewart offers new and dazzling interpretations of the poetics of prose in such novelists as Dickens Lawrence Joyce and Woolf The book is a tour de force no doubt about it In my opinion Reading Voices will have not only a wide but a lasting reception Hayden White author of Metahistory This is exciting virtuoso work in a playfully imaginative hermeneutic mode Stewart s ear hears fascinating and compelling things things which have a delightfully rich and thematically complex bearing on much larger textual issues Paul Fry author of The Reach of Criticism A truly original book The first work in years to bring together linguistically informed criticism with more philosophically oriented literary theory The resulting vision of literature is odd personal passionate even outlandish Not only is Stewart himself and extraordinary stylist but his work suggests a breakthrough in stylistic criticism so radical as to revitalize the entire field Jay Clayton author of Romantic Vision and the Novel
