Spectacular Vernacular Jean-Louis Bourgeois,Basil Davidson,1996 In these images white arabesques dance on red walls and abacus like mud colonnades shield farmers from sun and wind mud is twisted into playful columns sculpted into ornate facade relief and massed into lofty towers of majestic mosques This edition s new afterword discusses adobe politics in New Mexico and illustrates the authors own adobe home

Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom,Sheila Blair,2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations

Thermal Comfort in Hot Dry Climates Ahmadreza Foruzanmehr,2017-09-14 With increases in global temperatures the risk of overheating is expected to rise around the world This results in a much higher dependency upon energy intensive cooling systems and air conditioners to provide thermal comfort but how sustainable is this in a world where problems with the production of electricity are predicted Vernacular houses in hot and dry central Iran have been adapted to the climate through passive cooling techniques and this book provides a valuable assessment of the thermal performance of such housing Shedding new light on the ability of traditional housing forms to provide thermal comfort Thermal Comfort in Hot Dry Climates identifies the main cooling systems and methods in traditional houses in central Iran and examines how architectural elements such as central courtyards distinct seasonal rooms loggias basements and wind catchers can contribute to the provision of thermal comfort in vernacular houses

Architecture and Anthropology Adam Jasper,2020-05-21 Both architecture and anthropology emerged as autonomous theoretical disciplines in the 18th century enlightenment Throughout the 19th century the fields shared a common icon the primitive hut and a common concern with both routine needs and ceremonial behaviours Both could lay strong claims to a special knowledge of the everyday And yet in the 20th century notwithstanding genre classics such as Bernard Rudofsky s Architecture without Architects or Paul Oliver s Shelter and various attempts to make architecture anthropocentric such as Corbusier s Modulor disciplinary exchanges between architecture and anthropology were often disappointingly slight This book attempts to locate the various points of departure that might be taken in a contemporary discussion between architecture and anthropology The results are radical post colonial theory is here counterpoised to 19th century theories of primitivism archaeology is set against dentistry fieldwork is juxtaposed against indigenous critique and climate science is applied to questions of shelter This publication will be of interest to both architects and anthropologists The chapters in this book were originally published within two special issues of Architectural Theory Review History of Urban Form Before the Industrial Revolution A.E.J. Morris,2013-12-02 Provides an international history of urban development from its origins to the industrial revolution This well established book maintains the high standard of information found in the previous two editions describing the physical results of some 5000 years of urban activity It explains and develops the concept of unplanned cities that grow organically in contrast with planned cities that were shaped in response to urban form determinants Spread throughout the texts are copious illustrations from a wealth of sources including cartographic urban records aerial and other photographs original drawings and the author s numerous analytical line drawings Eco-Architecture V C.A. Brebbia,R. Pulselli,2014-09-24 This book contains the proceedings of the fifth International Conference on Harmonisation between Architecture and Nature Eco Architecture 2014 Eco Architecture implies a new approach to the design process intended to harmonise its products with nature This involves ideas such as minimum use of energy at each stage of the building process taking into account the amount required during the extraction and transportation of materials their fabrication assembly building erection maintenance and eventual future recycling Another important issue is the adaptation of the architectural design to the natural environment learning from nature and long time honoured samples of traditional constructions The papers in this book deal with topics such as building technologies design by passive systems design with nature cultural sensitivity life cycle assessment resources and rehabilitation and many others Also included are case studies from many different places around the world Eco Architecture by definition is a highly multi disciplinary subject Eco Architecture V Harmonisation between Architecture and Nature will therefore be of interest to in addition to architects many other professionals including engineers planners physical scientists sociologists and economists Topics covered include Design with nature Energy efficiency Building technologies Ecological impacts of materials Bioclimatic design Water quality Green facades Ecological and cultural sensitivity Education and training Case studies Design by passive systems Adapted reuse Life cycle assessment and durability Transformative design Sustainability indices in architecture The Masons of Djenné Trevor Hugh James Marchand,2009 Artful building practices in one of Africa s most beautiful places Crisis in the Built Environment Jamel Akbar,2023-11-27 Crisis in the Built Environment The Case of the Muslim City a book by King Faisal University professor Jamel Akbar describes the urban environment in the Traditional Muslim city according to form of control and submission rather than by visual elements
