is widespread partisan and House Senate differences over what these changes should be have complicated legislative efforts Almost 450 million was spent in both the 1986 and 1988 congressional campaigns much of it coming from wealthy contributors and political action committees PACs Increasing criticism of the current system will undoubtedly force Congress to keep campaign finance reform on it s legislative agenda Using public opinion election and campaign spending data extensive interviews and a knowledge of practical politics Magleby and Nelson examine the central issues in the campaign financing debate the cost of congressional campaigns financial participation by the political parties and PACs existing and proposed limits on contributions and expenditures public financing and the role of the Federal Election Commission They propose a comprehensive package of reforms that will undoubtedly serve as a guide for future legislation Linking Citizens to Government Lawrence S. Hoff,1988 The potential of radio television and more recently cable to serve as this country s electronic soapbox has long been recognized Yet during every election period there are complaints about the way candidates use the electronic media As disenchantment with the current system has mounted commentators and members of Congress have proposed ways to change the laws governing political broadcasting This study analyzes these proposals that would reform political advertising Consumer Sourcebook A.
