Style and Form in Old-Babylonian Literary Texts Nathan Wasserman, 2021-10-11 Basing himself on a careful study of all hitherto published and some unpublished Old Babylonian literary texts roughly 270 different compositions of all literary genres Dr Wasserman systematically leads the reader to a number of insightful conclusions regarding distinctive style and outstanding features of the Old Babylonian literary system as opposed to everyday texts such as letters The three opening chapters Hendiadys Tamy z and Damgam nim are mainly concerned with syntax but also connections with inalienability a semantic issue Chapter four and five Merismus and Simile focus on semantics though also including word order The last chapter Rhyming Couplets is fully devoted to form with elaborations on such semantic problems as performative speech acts The concluding pages delineate the contours of the Old Babylonian literary system genres and genre families the dichotomy between oral and written traditions and the distinction between learned and popular literature With a detailed catalogue of all known literary Old Babylonian compositions Old Babylonian Grammar Michael P. Streck, 2022-08-22 Akkadian written in the cuneiform script is the most important language of the Ancient Near East and one of the most important members of the Semitic language family Old Babylonian is the best attested period and dialect of Akkadian Old Babylonian was written all over Mesopotamia modern Iraq Syria and some neigboring regions during the first half of the 2nd millennium BCE The book describes the language of middle Old Babylonian from the kings Sin muballit to Samsu iluna Volume 1 extensively describes the orthography phonology nouns pronouns and numbers of Old Babylonian Lists and Catalogues in Ancient Literature and Beyond Rebecca Laemmle, Cédric Scheidegger Laemmle, Katharina Wesselmann, 2021-02-22 Lists and catalogues have been en vogue in philosophy cultural media and literary studies for more than a decade These explorations of enumerative modes however have not yet had the impact on classical scholarship that they deserve While they routinely take a limited set of ancient models as their starting point there is no comparably comprehensive study that focuses on antiquity conversely studies on lists and catalogues in Classics remain largely limited to individual texts and with some notable exceptions offer little in terms of explicit theorising The present volume is an attempt to close this gap and foster the dialogue between the recent theoretical re appraisal of enumerative modes and scholarship on ancient cultures The 16 contributions to the volume juxtapose literary forms of enumeration with an abundance of ancient non sub or para literary practices of listing and cataloguing In their different approaches to this vast and heterogenous corpus they offer a sense of the hermeneutic epistemic and methodological challenges with which the study of enumeration is faced and elucidate how pragmatics materiality performativity and aesthetics are mediated in lists and catalogues The Routledge Handbook of Emotions in the Ancient Near East Karen Sonik, Ulrike Steinert, 2022-08-30 This in depth exploration of emotions in the ancient Near East illuminates the rich and complex worlds of feelings encompassed within the literary and material remains of this remarkable region home to many of the world's earliest cities and empires and lays critical foundations for future study
