Habitations of Modernity Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2002-07-15 In Habitations of Modernity Dipesh Chakrabarty explores the complexities of modernism in India and seeks principles of humaneness grounded in everyday life that may elude grand political theories The questions that motivate Chakrabarty are shared by all postcolonial historians and anthropologists How do we think about the legacy of the European Enlightenment in lands far from Europe in geography or history How can we envision ways of being modern that speak to what is shared around the world as well as to cultural diversity How do we resist the tendency to justify the violence accompanying triumphalist moments of modernity Chakrabarty pursues these issues in a series of closely linked essays ranging from a history of the influential Indian series Subaltern Studies to examinations of specific cultural practices in modern India such as the use of khadi Gandhian style of dress by male politicians and the politics of civic consciousness in public spaces He concludes with considerations of the ethical dilemmas that arise when one writes on behalf of social justice projects

Contested Histories and Politics of People

P. Prayer Elmo Raj, 2021-07-12. Contested Histories and Politics of People is an analytical interface to the plurivocal trajectories and influential approaches fashioned by Subaltern Studies. It highlights the diverse methods and the dynamics of resistance that augmented specific ways of countering hegemonic domination. Power manipulated and subjugated subaltern classes both from within through elite nationalists and outside through colonialism. Bringing together the splintered movements that revolutionarily resist hegemonic state power, Subaltern Studies unearths subsumed narratives and subjugated knowledges. Accordingly, it contributes towards a critique of neo-colonial politics and powers that influence and alter history. This book suggests that what emerged as a historical critical method to challenge dominant historiography, hegemony, and power has contributed towards the formation of a cultural history. The Routledge Handbook of Subalterns across History Saurabh Dube, Ishita Banerjee, 2025-05-30. Subaltern Studies has marked both a major departure in South Asian studies and indexed broader shifts in the critical humanities and social sciences. This volume explores what it means today to set to work studies of subaltern subjects in our rapidly mutating social worlds. This handbook spans diverse historical, ethnographic, and geopolitical spaces drawing in the Antipodes and the Americas, Diasporas, and Oceanic worlds, Africa, and the Middle East, apart from Europe, and many South Asian overlapping arenas in which the subaltern continues to find distinct yet substantive articulations. It also seeks to meaningfully juxtapose practices and processes of gender and race, indigeneity and indenture, age and sexuality, slavery and apartheid, the Adivasi and the Dalit, settler colonialisms, and nations, nature and environment, caste and tribe, diaspora and blackness, capital and property, science and technology, media and cinema, the body and dance, heteronormativity and queerness, state and governance, and politics and justice. In these ways, the study unframes disciplinary boundaries and maps emergent terrains, exactly articulating pressing subjects and rethinking distinct subalternities. This book is aimed at researchers, scholars, and advanced undergraduate and graduate students in the critical human sciences especially history anthropology social theory and cultural gender and literary studies The Routledge Handbook of Classics, Colonialism, and Postcolonial Theory Katherine Blouin, Ben Akrigg, 2024-07-29 This handbook explores the ways in which histories of colonialism and postcolonial thought and theory cast light on our understanding of the ancient Mediterranean world and the discipline of Classics utilizing a wide body of case studies and providing avenues for future research and discussion It brings together chapters by a wide international and intersectional range of scholars coming from a variety of backgrounds and sub disciplinary perspectives and from across the chronological and geographical scope of Classics Chapters cover the state of current research into ancient Mediterranean and South Central and West Asian histories They provide case studies to illustrate both how postcolonial thought has already illuminated our understanding of the ancient Mediterranean world and beyond as well as its potential for the future Chapters also provide opportunities for reflection on the current state of the discipline An introduction by the volume editors offers a survey of the development of postcolonial theory its relationship to other bodies of theory and its connections to Classics Toward the end of the book three scholars with different career and disciplinary perspectives provide short reflections on the themes of the volume and the directions of future research The Routledge Handbook of Classics Colonialism and Postcolonial Theory offers an impressive collection of current research and thought on the subject for students and scholars in classical studies understood in its larger sense as well as in related disciplines such as Archaeology Ancient History Imperial History and the History of Colonialism Reception Studies and Museum Studies For anyone interested in classical antiquity it provides an engaging introduction to a potentially bewildering but ultimately vital and enriching body of thought and theory
