Dialogue within Discourse

Communities Julia Bamford, Marina Bondi, 2011-12-07 The book explores aspects of reflexivity and interactivity in a variety of academic genres oral and written scientific and educational Academic discourse is explored from a variety of perspectives that take a dialogic view of language use as their starting point ranging from conversation analysis to descriptive or applied genre studies Particular attention is paid to the way metadiscursive expressions contribute to a representation of the communicative procedures that characterise the ongoing scientific and educational dialogues Reading Rhetorically John C. Bean, Virginia A. Chappell, Alice M. Gillam, 2006-03 Offering concise yet thorough treatment of academic reading and writing in college Reading Rhetorically Brief Editions shows readers how to analyze texts by recognizing rhetorical strategies and genre conventions and how to incorporate other writers texts into their own research based papers Teaches readers how to read and write for academic purposes Anyone interested in academic writing Rhetorical Stance in Modern Literature Lynette Hunter, 1984-06-18 A Rhetoric of Doing Stephen Paul Witte, Neil Nakadate, Roger Dennis Cherry, 1992

Concerned with both the nature and the practice of discourse the eighteen essays collected here treat rhetoric as a dynamic enterprise of inquiry exploration and application and in doing so reflect James L Kinneavy's firm belief in the vital relationship between theory and practice his commitment to a spirit of accommodation and assimilation that promotes the development of ever more powerful theories and ever more useful practices A thorough introduction provides the reader with clear summaries of the essays by leading edge theorists researchers and teachers of writing and rhetoric A field context for the ideas presented in this book is provided through the division of the various chapters into four major sections that focus on classical rhetoric and rhetorical theory in historical contexts on dimensions of discourse theory aspects of discourse communities and the sorts of knowledge people access and use in producing written texts on writing in school related contexts and on several dimensions of nonacademic writing A fifth section contains a bibliographic survey and an appreciation of James Kinneavy's work The exceptional range of these essays makes A Rhetoric of Doing an ecumenical examination of the current state of mind in rhetoric and written communication a survey and description of what discourse and those in the field of discourse are in fact doing

Contextualizing Gender in Early Christian Discourse

Caroline Vander Stichele, Todd Penner, 2009-06-30 In this book Vander Stichele and Penner introduce their own gender critical approach to the New Testament and other early Christian writings Building on feminist and post colonial insights they explore the importance of gender in both text and context and discuss the diverse issues involved in interpretation as they relate to gender sex and sexuality The authors also set out their methodology and highlight the various hermeneutical issues involved such as the complexity of gendered and sexed identities in antiquity and the gap that exists between modern and ancient conceptions thereof They further illustrate their gender critical approach with concrete examples from the Acts of the Apostles the letters of Paul and the Acts of Paul and Thecla in order to demonstrate how a gender critical approach works in practice As such this book is unique in terms of its range as well as in the explicit methodological focus that is fostered throughout
