Subject Knowledge Christopher J. Anstead,Ivor F Goodson,J. Marshall Mangan,2002-11-01 School knowledge has been a subject for historians notably in the field of history of education concentrating on the educational aspects of particular historical periods however links with contemporary education have often remained undeveloped This text attempts to account for the growth of increased interest by sociologists and others in school subjects since the 1960s Goodson s analysis of his own work in the UK and North America examines the range of insights afforded of the nature of schooling and teaching through the study of school subjects

Subject Knowledge and Teacher Education Viv Ellis,2007-04-05 Teachers knowledge of the subjects they teach has been of enduring interest to governments the profession and the wider society In this book Viv Ellis traces the development of three beginning teachers thinking about their subject knowledge in the context of Standards based teacher education and the practice of auditing student teachers subject knowledge Ellis puts forward a theory of subject knowledge development that moves on from the objectivist and individualistic epistemologies associated with Standards and the practices of auditing to more a contextualist and sociocultural understanding of teachers cognition and learning An important implication of this study is that if teacher education wishes to have greater impact on the development of beginning teachers teacher educators need to pay greater attention to the schools and subject department settings in which these beginning teachers learn Examining Teach For All Matthew A.M. Thomas,Emilee Rauschenberger,Katherine Crawford-Garrett,2020-07-28 Winner 2022 Outstanding Book Award from the Society of Professors of Education Winner 2021 Book Award from the Globalization and Education SIG Comparative and International Education Society Examining Teach For All brings together research focused on Teach For All and its affiliate programmes to explore the organisation s impact on education around the world Teach For All is an expanding global network of programmes in more than 50 countries that aim to radically transform education systems by recruiting talented graduates to teach for two years in under resourced schools and developing them into lifelong advocates of reform The volume offers nuanced insights into the interests and contexts shaping Teach For All and the challenges and possibilities inherent in broader efforts to enact education reform on a global scale This volume is the first of its kind to present empirical research on the emergence and expansion of Teach For All programmes which replicate and adapt the Teach For America model around the world The volume traces the network s expansion from its initial launch in 2007 to its growing international presence as chapters present new research from national contexts as diverse as Bangladesh Lebanon and Spain Using evidence from a range of perspectives and research methodologies the chapters collectively highlight the ways in which Teach For All and its affiliate programmes are working to alter educational landscapes worldwide This book will be of great interest for scholars educators post graduate students and policymakers in the fields of comparative education teacher education education leadership and education policy It paves the way for future critical inquiry into this expanding global network as well as further investigations of educational change around the world Life Politics Ivor F. Goodson, 2011-10-23 This book on life politics comprises a collection of interviews and commentaries The notion of life politics covers a number of different meanings within the book Most importantly is the way that the genre of interviews helps cover a range of cultural contexts and intellectual milieu Part of the life politics represented in this book is built around the belief that if we are to act as public intellectuals in the field of education and culture in the current globalised setting we need to travel This book shows how public intellectual work gets interrogated and implemented in different social and cultural settings Integrating Critical and Contextual Studies in Art and Design Jenny Rintoul, 2016-11-18

Integrating Critical and Contextual Studies in Art and Design examines the relationship between two aspects of art education that appear at times inseparable or even indistinguishable and at others isolated and in conflict Critical and Contextual Studies CCS and studio practice Underpinned by international contexts this book is rooted in British art and design education and draws upon contemporary case studies of teaching and learning in post compulsory settings in order to analyse and illustrate identities and practices of CCS and its integration The chapters in this book are divided into three sections that build on one another Discourse and debate Models types and tensions and Proposals and recommendations Key issues include knowledge hierarchies and subject histories and identities constructions of theory and the symbiotic relationship between theory and practice models and practices of CCS within current post compulsory British art and design education the reification of ubiquitous terms in the fields of art and design and of education intuition and integration approaches to curriculum integration including design and management and suggestions for integrating CCS in art and design courses including implications for pedagogy and assessment Integrating Critical and Contextual Studies in Art and Design offers a comprehensive analysis of the current drive towards integration within art education and elucidates what we understand by the theory and practice of integration It explores the history theory teaching and student experience of CCS and will be of interest to lecturers teachers and pedagogues involved in art and design as well as researchers and students of art education

Practising Information Literacy Annemaree Lloyd, Sanna Talja, 2010-06-01 This book showcases new interdisciplinary academic research on the relationship between information literacy and learning It combines findings with new understandings drawn from theoretical and empirical research conducted in primary and secondary schools higher education workplaces and community contexts The studies offer new insights into questions such as how transferable are the information practices and skills learned in one context to other contexts What is the degree to which information competences are generic to what degree are they domain and context specific What are the kinds of challenges and outcomes that emerge from incorporating information literacy into education and training courses And most importantly what kinds of theories and philosophies regarding the nature of learning information and knowledge should information literacies education and research efforts be based on A-Z Of Teaching Savage, Jonathan,Fautley, Martin,2013-07-01 This is an informative engaging and accessible book about teaching that covers a broad range of content without being superficial Cognitive Activation in the Mathematics Classroom and Professional Competence of Teachers Mareike Kunter,Jürgen Baumert,Werner Blum,Ute Klusmann,Stefan Krauss,Michael Neubrand,2013-03-29 This work reports the findings of the Professional Competence of Teachers Cognitively Activating Instruction and Development of Students Mathematical Literacy project COACTIV COACTIV applies a broad innovative conceptualization of teacher competence to examine how mathematics teachers knowledge beliefs motivational orientations and self regulation skills influence their instructional practice and teaching outcomes In this project data was collected on various aspects of teacher competence and classroom instruction from the perspective of both the teachers themselves and their students Moreover it gauges the effects of these teacher characteristics on student learning as indexed by the progress students in each class Questions addressed in the study which are reported in this volume include What are the characteristics of successful teaching What distinguishes teachers who succeed in their profession How can the quality of instruction be improved Students as Researchers Joe Kincheloe,Shirley Steinberg,2002-01-04 This book focuses directly on student empowerment through meaningful research It fills a specific gap in educational literature by making explicit the relationship between teaching method classroom practice and the production of knowledge Drawing on the best of theoretical innovations over the last decade Students as Researchers places them in a living accessible context With a sound basis in theory the book is also extremely practical and accessible for students giving scenarios and examples that can be used to reveal the workings and benefits of research

Education and Sociology David Levinson,Peter Cookson,Alan Sadovnik,2014-01-21 First Published in 2002 This single volume reference provides readers and researchers with access to details on a wide range of topics and issues in the sociology of education Entries cover both national and international perspectives and studies as well as tackling controversial points in education today including gender inequality globalization minorities meritocracy and more This is a key one of a kind resource for all educational researchers and educators The Oxford Handbook of Music Education, Volume 2 Gary McPherson,Graham Welch,2012-07-15 Music education takes place in many contexts both formal and informal Be it in a school or music studio while making music with friends or family or even while travelling in a car walking through a shopping mall or watching television our myriad sonic experiences accumulate from the earliest months of life to foster our facility for making sense of the sound worlds in which we live The Oxford Handbook of Music Education offers a comprehensive overview of the many facets of musical experience behavior and development in relation to this diverse variety of contexts

While the first volume primarily focuses on children during school age years this second collects an international list of contributors to explore how music learning takes place outside of the traditional classroom environment Discussing a range of issues such as music education for the special needs population music learning in adulthood and music learning through media and technology these chapters help to broaden conceptions of music and musical involvement Whether they are used individually or in tandem the two volumes of The Oxford Handbook of Music Education update and redefine the discipline and show how individuals across the world learn enjoy and share the power and uniqueness of music

Living Music in Schools 1923-1999 Gordon Cox, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2002 This volume explores educational reforms and innovations in music teaching in England between 1923 and 1999 Gordon Cox investigates the key reforms which attempted to give life to music in schools and describes teachers reactions to such innovations By taking classroom practice and teacher experiences as seriously as policy making and education rhetoric this book broadens the horizons of historical investigation into music education

Routledge International Companion to Education Miriam Ben-Peretz, Sally Brown, Bob Moon, 2004-04-28 The Routledge International Companion to Education addresses the key issues underpinning the rethinking and restructuring of education at the beginning of the new millennium The volume contains over fifty major contributions exploring a wide range of issues including philosophy of education the economics and resourcing of education testing and assessment current issues and future prospects standards multiculturalism anti racism computers in classrooms mother tongue education civics and moral education Each chapter gives a contemporary account of developments in the field and looks to the future and the directions that new activity and inquiry are likely to take All the chapters are written from an international perspective

Storying the Public Intellectual Pat Sikes, Yvonne Novakovic, 2019-10-17 Storying the Public Intellectual Commentaries on the Impact and Influence of the Work of Ivor Goodson offers a critical commentary on Goodson's work that avoids hagiography whilst recognising the global reach of his scholarship With contributors from around the world those who have collaborated with him or those who have taken up his work the book provides the sort of social and historical contextualising that Goodson has always advocated The accounts in this collection highlight how Goodson's integration of moral imperatives into strategically responsive scholarship can provide a useful roadmap when negotiating a path through the contemporary academic research landscape By using his historian's orientation and sensibilities he is able to get to the heart of the logics of schooling By connecting with other scholars and researchers around the world he exposes how the global neo liberal project plays out in particular settings and so challenges pervasive understandings about the meaning of global and the power of the neo liberal project itself This book is ideal reading for academics scholars and researchers in the field of education including those involved in initial and in service teacher education

Leaders in Curriculum Studies Leonard J. Waks, Edmund C. Short, 2009-01-01 In the 1950s and 1960s school teaching became a university based profession and scholars and policy leaders looked to the humanities and social sciences in building an appropriate knowledge base By the mid 1960s there was talk about a new philosophy history and sociology of education Curriculum thinkers such as Joseph Schwab Dwayne Heubner and Paul Hirst initiated new intellectual projects to supplement applied work in curriculum By the 1970s the field was in the process of re conceptualization as a new generation of scholars provided deep critical insights into the social political and cultural dynamics of school experience and templates for renewal of curriculum research and practice In this book 18 leading curriculum scholars since 1970 who remain influential today present the fascinating stories of their lives and important new contributions to the field They trace their early experiences in teaching and curriculum development creative directions in their work mature ideas and perceptions of future directions for the field Each chapter contains a list of works chosen by the authors as their personal favorites
