Subtle Blebings In The Saintly Lives:

The Subtle Blessings in the Saintly Lives of Abū Al-‘Abbās Al-Mursī and His Master Abū Al-Ḥasan Al-Shādhilī, the Founders of the Shādhilī Order Aḥmad ibn Muḥammad Ibn ‘Aṭā’ Allāh, 2005 This deeply personal reminiscence of one man's growth in Islamic mysticism is a tribute to the two great shaykhs who molded his spiritual life and vision Filled with anecdotes illustrating the shaykhs spiritual gifts and insights the text not only conveys the beauty and inspiration of these men's lives and their utter devotion to God but also helps readers to approach a life of devotion and inimitable blessings Sufi interpretations of Qur'an passages and traditional Sufi spiritual litanies are included An appendix features an account of female gnostic Hajja Zakia's life and devotion to Shaykh Abul Hasan and is augmented by a photographic essay Crossing Confessional Boundaries John Renard, 2020-01-28 Arguably the single most important element in Abrahamic cross-confessional relations has been an ongoing mutual interest in perennial spiritual and ethical exemplars of one another's communities Ranging from Late Antiquity through the Middle Ages Crossing Confessional Boundaries explores the complex roles played by saints sages and Friends of God in the communal and intercommunal lives of Christians Muslims and Jews across the Mediterranean world from Spain and North Africa to the Middle East to the Balkans By examining these stories in their broad institutional social and cultural contexts Crossing Confessional Boundaries reveals unique theological insights into the interlocking histories of the Abrahamic faiths Sufism for Non-Sufis? Sherman A. Jackson, 2012-05-01 Sherman Jackson offers a translation and analysis of Ibn Ata Allah al Sakandari's Taj al Arus a work on spiritual education steeped in the classical Sufi tradition yet directed to those who have no affiliation with Sufism in any institutionalized form Written in classical aphoristic style the text is a treasure trove of spiritual wisdom and self refinement free of all of the usual barriers between Sufism and the common believer Routledge Handbook on Sufism Lloyd Ridgeon, 2020-08-09 This is a chronological history of the Sufi tradition divided into three sections early middle and modern periods The book comprises 35 independent chapters with easily identifiable themes and or geographical threads all written by recognised experts in the field The volume outlines the origins and early developments of Sufism by assessing the formative thinkers and practitioners and investigating specific pietistic themes The middle period contains an examination of the emergence of the Sufi Orders and illustrates the diversity of the tradition This middle period also analyses the fate of Sufism during the time of the Gunpowder Empires Finally the end period includes representative surveys of Sufism in several countries both in the West and in traditional Islamic regions This comprehensive and up to date collection of studies provides a guide to the Sufi tradition The Handbook is a valuable resource for students and researchers with an interest in religion Islamic Studies and Middle Eastern Studies Popularisation of Sufism in Ayyubid and Mamluk Egypt, 1173-1325 Nathan Hofer, 2015-07-07 In the 12th 14th centuries Sufism Islamic mysticism became extraordinarily popular across Egypt Elites and non elites rulers and ruled the wealthy and the poor even Jews all embraced a variety of Sufi ideas and practices This book is the first systematic investigation of how and why this popularisation occurred It surveys several Sufi groups from different regions of Egypt and details how each of them promulgated performed and popularised their specific Sufi doctrines and practices This popularisation would have a profound impact on the Egyptian religious landscape and on the subsequent history of Islam more broadly Everything is on the Move Stephan Conermann,2014 In this volume we try to understand the Mamluk Empire not as a confined space but as a region where several nodes of different networks existed side by side and at the same time In our opinion these networks constitute to a great extent the core of the so called Mamluk society they form the basis of the social order Following in part concepts refined in the New Area Studies recent reflections about the phenomenon of the Empire State trajectories in today s Global History and the spatial turn in modern historiography we intend to identify a number of physical and cognitive networks with one or more nodes in Mamluk controlled territories In addition to this one of the most important analytical questions would be to define the role of these networks in Mamluk society The Maghrib in the Mashriq Maribel Fierro,Mayte Penelas,2021-01-18 This is a pioneering book about the impact that knowledge produced in the Maghrib Islamic North Africa and al Andalus Muslim Iberia had on the rest of the Islamic world It presents results achieved in the Research Project Local contexts and global dynamics al Andalus and the Maghrib in the Islamic East AMOI funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science Innovation and Universities FFI2016 78878 R AEI FEDER UE and directed by Maribel Fierro and Mayte Penelas The book contains 18 contributions written by senior and junior scholars from different institutions all over the world It is divided into five sections dealing with how knowledge produced in the Maghrib was integrated in the Mashriq starting with the emergence and construction of the concept Maghrib sections 1 and 2 how travel allowed the reception in the Maghrib of knowledge produced in the Mashriq but also the transmission of locally produced knowledge outside the Maghrib and the different ways in which such transmission took place sections 3 and 4 and how the Maghribis who stayed or settled in the Mashriq manifested their identity section 5 The book will be of interest not only for those whose research concentrates on the Maghrib but more generally for those who want to understand the complex and shifting dynamics between centres and peripheries as regards intellectual production and circulation Ibn 'Ata Illah-Kwaja Abdullah Ansari Victor Danner,Wheeler M. Thackston,1978 Two early Sufi classics are contained here in one volume They embody the essence of spiritual life in the Islamic tradition Ibn Ata Illah c 1250 1309 was a Sufi saint and sage who lived in Egypt Kwaja Abdullah Ansari 1006 1089 was one of major early writers of Persian mystical literature Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India Kelly Pemberton,2013-02-19 Insightful field research into the complexity of women s roles in a subset of Islamic culture Women Mystics and Sufi Shrines in India combines historical data with years of ethnographic fieldwork to investigate women s participation in the culture of Sufi shrines in India and the manner in which this participation both complicates and sustains traditional conceptions of Islamic womanhood Kelly Pemberton grounds her firsthand research into India s Sufi shrines and saints by setting her observations against the historical backdrop of colonial era discourses by British civil servants Orientalist scholars and Muslim reformists and the assumptive portrayals of women's activities in the milieu of Sufi orders and shrines inherent in these accounts. These early narratives Pemberton holds are driven by social economic intellectual and political undercurrents of self interest that shaped Western understanding of Indian Muslims and in particular of women's participation in the institutions of Sufism. Pemberton's research offers a corrective by assessing the contemporary circumstances under which a woman may be recognized as a spiritual authority or guide despite official denial of such status and by examining the discrepancies between the commonly held belief that women cannot perform in the public setting of shrines and her own observations of women doing precisely that. She demonstrates that the existence of multiple models of master and disciple relationships have opened avenues for women to be recognized as spiritual authorities in their own right. Specifically Pemberton explores the work of performance recitation and ritual mediation carried out by women connected with Sufi orders through kinship and spiritual ties and she maps shifting ideas about women's involvement in public ritual events in a variety of contexts circumstances and genres of performance. She also highlights the private petitioning of saints the Prophet and God performed by poor women of low social standing in Bihar Sharif. These women are often perceived as being exceptionally close to God yet are compelled to operate outside the public sphere of major shrines. Throughout this groundbreaking study Pemberton sets observed practices of lived religious experiences against the boundaries established by prescriptive behavioral models of Islam to illustrate how the varied reasons given for why women cannot become spiritual masters conflict with the need in Sufi circles for them to do exactly that. Thus this work also invites further inquiry into the ambiguities to be found in Islam's foundational framework for belief and practice. Kitāb

Al-Ḥikam Victor Danner, 1984 Ibn 'Ata' Allah, Muslim Sufi Saint and Gift of Heaven Abu Bakr Sirajuddin

Cook, 2017-06-23 The Shadhiliyya Sufi Order gave the Muslim world and those that are interested in Sufism the inside workings of the great masters Abu l Hassan al Shadhili and Abu l Abbas al Mursi. Ibn Ata Allah also a master of the Shadhiliyya Order is the author of many volumes. His works occupy a unique position within the history of Sufism and have been read consistently since their composition. Yet despite their enduring popularity to date there has been no systematic and through analysis of his worldview. This book is the first study to highlight the constant interconnections between Ibn Ata Allah's works. It uses a scaffold approach to develop an understanding of Ibn Ata Allah's Sufism and his commitment to Islam building from his metaphysics of Oneness tawhid and covering domains such as ontology epistemology eschatology and ethics. While the bulk of this work covers the worldview of Ibn Ata Allah it begins more generally with some comments on the need for reappraising approaches to Sufism and its relation to Islam. Accessible for anyone interested in Sufism this work will appeal to scholars of religion in general and Islam in particular. Rebel Between Spirit and Law Scott Alan Kugle,2006 This book examines the authority of saints in Islam and their ability to build communities among Muslims in North Africa It analyzes the power generated in religious communities through their allegiance to saints a power usually identified with the term Sufism In the late 15th and 16th centuries a community of Sufis in Fes Fez Morocco and other urban centers in North Africa advocated this paradigm of sainthood during a time of intense political and religious crisis Juridical sainthood a concept that fuses Islamic legal rectitude and devotional piety was the center of their reformist agenda The juridical saint was to be absorbed in legal training and religious values in ways that questioned political loyalty and dynastic legitimacy Scott A Kugle explores this tradition by focusing on the life and writings of Shaykh Ahmad Zarruq Following his exile from Fes Zarruq traveled widely over North Africa spreading his teachings and writings and attracting followers from Morocco to Mecca The life and teachings of Zarruq remain useful for Muslims They are a piece of the past that present day Muslims are rediscovering and redeploying to reconcile Islam s heritage with its very troubled post colonial present

Sufism in Late Mamlūk Cairo Sheridan Polinsky, 2025-08-04 This book examines the life and thought of Ibn Mughayzil fl 895-1490 a Sh dhil Sufi of late Maml k Cairo It offers a portrait of the Sufi as an aspiring Sh dhil master and talented author whose two known writings reflect major themes of Maml k era Sufism such as the desire to unite the exoteric sciences ilm al hir and the esoteric science ilm al b in or Sufism At the same time his works are distinguished by a number of features Most notable is his treatment of the waking vision of Prophet Mu ammad after death an experience that many Sufis claimed to have undergone The study suggests that Ibn Mughayzil was the first author to produce a systematic and comprehensive examination of the topic and argues that he makes an important contribution by defending its authenticity and orthodoxy Furthermore his engagement with other key issues of his time such as God s oneness and religious diversity reveal that while often driven by the aim of defending Sufis from accusations of error he was a creative synthesizer drawing from a wide range of Sufi and other sources to develop and demonstrate his positions Study of Ibn Mughayzil sheds light on the nature and quality of Maml k Sufi literature as well as the reception of earlier ideas such as those of Ibn Arab d 638-1240 and Ibn al F ri d 632-1235

Textual Life Wendell Marsh, 2025-10-14 Textual Life is a groundbreaking book that recasts the role of knowledge in the making of a colonial and postcolonial nation It makes a case for a new literary and intellectual historical approach to Islam in Africa The Senegalese Muslim scholar Shaykh Musa Kamara 1864-1945 wrote History of the Blacks a monumental history of West Africa in a time when colonial discourses asserted that Africans lacked both writing and history He sought to publish a bilingual Arabic and French edition of the book by working with humanists in colonial institutions but the project was ultimately undermined by the disregard of the French state Textual Life considers Kamara s story as a parable about the fate of the humanities amid epistemic and technological change Wendell H Marsh argues that Kamara s scholarship reflected what he calls the textual attitude an orientation to the world mediated by reading Colonial humanists shared this attitude even while upholding racial and religious hierarchies and they took an interest in African texts and traditions The bureaucrats and technocrats who succeeded them however disdained such dialogue for reasons that bear a striking resemblance to the algorithmic antihumanism that is ascendant today Drawing on Kamara s body of work colonial archival documents and postcolonial knowledge production within Senegal Textual Life offers a decolonial vision of the humanities By engaging with African and Muslim intellectual resources Marsh shows how thinkers like Kamara who were subjected to colonialism can help us find a future after empire
