Explorations of Spirituality in American Women's Literature Scarlett Cunningham, 2023-07-07 This book connects the aging woman to the image of God in the work of Flannery O'Connor Joyce Carol Oates Alicia Ostriker Lucille Clifton Mary Szybist and Anne Babson It introduces a canon of contemporary American women's spiritual literature with the goal of showing how this literature treats aging and spirituality as major connected themes It demonstrates that such literature interacts meaningfully with feminist theology social science research on aging and body image attachment theory and narrative identity theory The book provides an interdisciplinary context for the relationship between aging and spirituality in order to confirm that US women's writing provides unique illustrations of the interconnections between aging and spirituality signaled by other fields This book demonstrates that relationships between the human and divine remain a consistent and valuable feature of contemporary women's literature and that the divine human relationship is under constant literary revision      The Land of Israel in Bible, History, and Theology J.T.A.G.M. van Ruiten, Cor de Vos, 2009-05-06 This book deals with many aspects of the land of Israel In the first part the emphasis is on descriptions of the land in Joshua and other books of the Hebrew and Greek Bible In the second part the focus shifts to the land in history and theology reception history of biblical texts dealing with the land archaeology of Palestine and theological hermeneutical implications of taking the land traditions of the Bible seriously The result is a rich collection of articles on one of the main themes of the Old Testament a theme that has a fascinating although not always unproblematic reception history

Studies in the Text of the Old

Testament Dominique Barthélemy, 2012-11-01 Studies in the Text of the Old Testament offers to the English speaking world the combined introductions to the first three volumes of Dominique Barthélemy's Critique Textuelle de l'Ancien Testament. CTAT was the culmination of the Hebrew Old Testament Text Project launched by the United Bible Societies in 1969 and carried out by an international team of Old Testament textual critics under the leadership of Eugene Nida. As Emanuel Tov has stated these introductions form an almost complete introduction to the textual criticism of the Hebrew Bible. They hold an important place in Old Testament textual criticism and can stand alone apart from the detailed discussions of the textual problems found in the volumes. Part one surveys the history of OT textual criticism from its origins to J. D. Michaelis and presents the Hebrew Old Testament Text Project and its goals. Part two describes in detail the background of the modern versions that the HOTTP took into account in its work. Part three, the most extensive section, discusses the textual witnesses, the different forms of the Hebrew text and the contribution of the ancient versions. As his concluding program for a critical edition makes clear, the groundbreaking work of Barthélemy and the HOTTP served as the basis for the new Biblia Hebraica Quinta, which began publication in 2004. UBS undertook the HOTTP to offer Bible translators help in applying the results of textual criticism to their work, but there is no doubt that many others will benefit from this work as well as the other volumes in the series Textual Criticism and the Translator.

Women and the Authority of Scripture Sarah Heaner Lancaster, 2002-09-01 Addresses the theological impact of accepting the absolute authority of biblical scripture and its related issues, examining how women in the church have dealt with scriptural authority while offering advice on how they can address it in the future. Original.

Archetypes and the Fourth Gospel Brian Larsen, 2018-06-14 Employing Northrop Frye's system of archetypal literary criticism, the use of romance, tragedy, irony, and satire and comedy, Brian Larsen offers a compelling summary of the essential governing framework and means of exchange between literature and theology. Characters in the Fourth Gospel are examined through a specific archetype, and reciprocally these characters illuminate and inform important theological aspects of their respective archetypes: Jesus and romance hero story, Pilate and tragedy, the Jews and Thomas and irony, and Peter and comedy. This volume further clarifies the understanding of Frye's archetypes and identifies the key variable between each one: the relationship between 1. a belief or ideal and 2. experience or reality. Helping to advance dialogue between literature, biblical studies, and theology, and providing insightful readings for a number of Fourth Gospel characters and texts, Larsen's examination will appeal to those seeking a new perspective on the themes of the New Testament or those seeking theological insights into literature.
