Beliefs As the Secret of Success Kingsley C. Njoku,2014-02 There was once a poor man who came from a good Christian family Because he had many questions he left home to discover why just a few become rich His quest led him to a rich man who was not only pious but kind loving and humble This made the poor man think differently about rich people The rich man welcomed him to his home and the poor man wondered why this man was so kind to a poor stranger For months the poor man studied the rich one All my life he thought I have been raised to believe that the rich are mean and do not have respect for others let alone take time to pray to God But now I know that the rich also pray I must ask this man to teach me So his lessons began and the rich man taught the poor one everything he needed to know to begin living a fulfilled life He taught him that it is the blessing of the Lord that makes one rich He taught him how to cultivate new beliefs He taught him that he had to change his mental attitude toward people and money But above all he taught him that money is but a servant meant to serve a purpose The poor man was transformed and became rich himself He also became an evangelist spreading the good news to others About the Author Upon completing a degree in law at the University of Kent in Canterbury England Kingsley C Njoku a Nigerian found himself far from home and facing a crossroads He stumbled upon a centuries old secret that brought him courage He discovered the power of positive thinking and faith Publisher s website <http://sbpra.com>
