be welcome both to graduate students about to undertake dissertations and to faculty needing to learn the role of thesis adviser Madsen tells how to propose outline write defAnd and possibly publish a dissertation information which should save graduate students years pain and money Library Journal Thesis and Dissertation Writing in a Second Language Brian Paltridge,Sue Starfield,2007-06-11 The relationship of supervisor to student has traditionally been seen as one of apprenticeship in which much learning is tacit with the expectation that the student will become much like the tutor The changing demographics of higher education in conjunction with imperatives of greater accountability and support for research students have rendered this scenario both less likely and less desirable and unfortunately many supervisors are challenged by the task of guiding non native speaker students to completion This handbook is the ideal guide for all supervisors working with undergraduate and postgraduate non native speaker students writing a thesis or dissertation in English as it explicitly unpacks thesis writing using language that is accessible to research supervisors from any discipline

The Productive Graduate Student Writer Jan E. Allen,2023-07-03 This book is for graduate students and others who want to become more productive writers It s especially written for those who want to increase their motivation focus and persistence to move a project to completion overcome procrastination and perfectionistic tendencies reduce or write in spite of their anxiety and fear of writing manage their time work energy and advisor for greater productivityThe process or craft of sustained writing is not a matter that s taught to undergraduate or graduate students as part of their studies leaving most at sea about how to start a practice that is central to a career in academe and vital in many other professional occupations This book grew out of conversations Jan Allen has held with her graduate students for over 30 years and reflects the fruit of the writing workshops and boot camps she has conducted at three universities her own and numerous colleagues experiences with writing and advising as well as the feedback she receives from her popular Productive Writer listserv While Jan Allen recognizes that writing is not an innate talent for most of us she demonstrates that it is a process based on skills which we can identify learn practice and refine She focuses both on the process and habits of writing as well as on helping you uncover what kind of writer are you and reflect on your challenges and successes With a light touch and an engaging sense of humor she proposes strategies to overcome procrastination and distractions and build a writing practice to enable you to become a more productive and prolific writer Jan Allen proposes that you read one of her succinct chapters each devoted to a specific strategy or writing challenge each day or once a week When you find one that increases your concentration motivation or endurance make it a habit Try it for two weeks charting the resulting increased productivity It will become part of your repertoire of writing and productivity tools to which you can progressively add
