Endohedral Fullerenes Shangfeng Yang,2014 Endohedral fullerenes represent a novel family of carbon nanostructures which are characterized by a robust fullerene cage with atoms ions or clusters trapped in its interior Since the first separation of the endohedral metallofullerene La C 82 in 1991 a large variety of endohedral structures have been isolated and their endohedral nature has been proved by experimental studies Within the past two decades the world of endohedral fullerenes was significantly enlarged by the clusterfullerenes and the new carbon cages including non IPR IPR isolated pentagon rule structures Resulting from the charge transfer from the encaged species to the fullerene cage endohedral fullerenes hold a lot of fascinating properties inaccessible by the empty fullerenes and consequently promise potential applications in biomedicine molecular electronics and photonics etc The book provides a comprehensive overview of endohedral fullerenes focused on the new advances in the past decade including its fundamentals structures synthesis isolation characterization properties functionalization as well as the applications thus representing the most updated and broad review of this exciting field Sample Chapter s Foreword 52 KB Chapter 1 The Early Days of Metallofullerene Research 457 KB Contents Conventional Endohedral Metallofullerenes Synthesis and Isolation of Endohedral Fullerenes Structure of Endohedral Fullerenes Metal Nitride Clusterfullerenes Metal Carbide Clusterfullerenes Non IPR Endohedral Fullerenes Metal Oxide Clusterfullerenes Nitrogen Atom Based Endohedral Fullerenes Rare Gas Atoms Based Endohedral Fullerenes Electrochemical Properties of Endohedral Fullerenes Chemistry of Endohedral Metallofullerenes Computational Study of Endohedral Fullerenes Biomedical Applications of Endohedral Fullerenes Photovoltaic Applications of Endohedral Fullerenes Readership Advanced undergraduates and graduate students scientists in Chemistry Physics and Materials Science researchers and professionals in the fields of fullerenes and all carbon nanomaterials and the general public The Power of Eve Deanna Manley,2006-10 Manley reveals the power women possess through the story of Eve Readers will discover how to become better equipped to face the challenges of being a woman Practical Life Saviour Siblings and the Regulation of Assisted Reproductive Technology Malcolm K. Smith,2016-03 Advances in the field of Assisted Reproductive Technology

ART have been revolutionary This book focuses on the use of ARTs in the context of families who seek to conceive a matching sibling donor as a source of tissue to treat an existing sick child Such children have been referred to as saviour siblings Considering the legal and regulatory frameworks that impact on the accessibility of this technology in Australia and the UK the work analyses the ethical and moral issues that arise from the use of the technology for this specific purpose The author claims the only justification for limiting a family s reproductive liberty in this context is where the exercise of reproductive decision making results in harm to others It is argued that the harm principle is the underlying feature of legislative action in Western democratic society and as such this principle provides the grounds upon which a strong and persuasive argument is made for a less restrictive regulatory approach in the context of saviour siblings The book will be of great relevance and interest to academics researchers practitioners and policy makers in the fields of law ethics philosophy science and medicine

Winter Blues, Vance & Cassandra Jessica Caryn ,2018-01-23 SOMETHING OLD Cassandra Ross worked at Stephens Associates for years and saw Vance Stephens at corporate events and holiday parties He was her boss s son and was said to be a maverick Vance was a celebrity lawyer He invested in a fleet of start up companies and lived a bachelor lifestyle Their exchanges were always intimate stolen moments until a New Year s gala when Vance took her breath away in a passionate Winter s kiss He received a phone call and left before Cassandra had a chance to reveal her feelings for him SOMETHING NEW Cassandra found out months later that Vance was involved in a situation that could lead to his financial ruin She didn t see Vance until he walked into the company s holiday toy drive almost a year later He wore a designer suit with a diaper bag slung over his shoulder as he steered a high tech baby stroller Vance said he was a single Dad and then introduced her to Braeden Jacob Stephens his adorable two month old son Vance Stephens wanted Cassandra from the moment he saw her She was off limits for years and bad timing had kept them apart A stressful moment and his random proposal will prompt Cassandra to accept an arrangement Can she handle the situations and responsibilities or will her own past and insecurities destroy her chance at happiness Passionate Romantic Male Lead Falls First Character Driven Romance wedding traditions blended family jealousy misunderstandings past trauma romance newlyweds Animal Life in Africa ... James Stevenson-Hamilton,1922 Reports of Committees United States. Congress. House,1882 Open Mindful "Philosophy on the Fly" George Vance McGee,2015-04-19 Open Mindful was birthed and commenced after the author was happily laid off once from his Madison Avenue corporate job in New York City This book is a fast moving chapter creation and journal The main theme is for society and humanity to embrace free thinking Propositional Content Peter Hanks,2015-06-04 Peter Hanks defends a new theory about the nature of propositional content According to this theory the basic bearers of representational properties are particular mental or spoken actions Propositions are types of these actions which we use to classify and individuate our attitudes and speech acts Hanks abandons several key features of the traditional Fregean conception of propositional content including the idea that propositions are the primary bearers of truth conditions the distinction between content and force and the concept of entertainment The main difficulty for this traditional conception is the problem of the unity of the proposition the problem of explaining how propositions have truth conditions and other representational properties The new theory developed here in its place explains the unity of propositions and provides new solutions to a long list of puzzles and problems in philosophy of language Speaking My Mind Dorit Bar-On, 2004-11-18 Dorit Bar-On develops and defends a novel view of avowals and self knowledge Drawing on resources from the philosophy of language the theory of action epistemology and the philosophy of mind she offers original and systematic answers to many long standing questions concerning our ability to know our own minds We are all very good at telling what states of mind we are in at a given moment When it comes to our own present states of mind what we say goes an avowal such as I m feeling so anxious or I m thinking about my next trip to Paris it is typically supposed tells it like it is But why is that Why should what I say about my present mental states carry so much more weight than what others say about them Why should avowals be more immune to criticism and correction than other claims we make And if avowals are not based on any evidence or observation how could they possibly express our knowledge of our own present mental states Bar-On proposes a Neo Expressivist view according to which an avowal is an act through which a person directly expresses rather than merely reports the very mental condition that the avowal ascribes She argues that this expressivist idea coupled with an adequate characterization of expression and a proper separation of the semantics of avowals from their pragmatics and epistemology explains the special status we assign to avowals As against many expressivists and their critics she maintains that such an expressivist explanation is consistent with a non deflationary view of self knowledge and a robust realism about mental states The view that emerges preserves many insights of the most prominent contributors to the subject while offering a new perspective on our special relationship to our own minds Proceedings of the Seminar for Arabian Studies Volume 54 2025 Silvia Lischi, 2025-09-11 The 57th Seminar for Arabian Studies Paris 2024 brought together scholars from a broad range of disciplines to discuss the archaeology history epigraphy and philology of the Arabian Peninsula This volume includes seventeen papers presented in the ordinary sessions and three papers presented in the special session Zaydi governance in Yemen United States Army Training Manual United States.
