Whitaker's Books of the Month & Books to Come, 1986 Religiosity, Cosmology and Folklore Therese E. Higgins, 2014-05-22 This book presents background information on the beliefs customs traditions and cosmologies of several of Africa s foremost peoples relates these findings to each of Morrison s seven novels by highlighting the connections between the African root and the African American product and elucidates how this connection helps to understand and to clarify many of Morrison s allusions to the culture out of which she writes It presents a new way of reading Morrison s work that has been previously overlooked and moves beyond just African American culture delving into Africa and its people

The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books, 1986 to 1987 British Library, 1988 Fly in the Night Giselle Liza Anatol, 2015-02-16 The Things That Fly in the Night explores images of vampirism in Caribbean and African diasporic folk traditions and in contemporary fiction Giselle Liza Anatol focuses on the figure of the soucouyant or Old Hag an aged woman by day who sheds her skin during night's darkest hours in order to fly about her community and suck the blood of her unwitting victims In contrast to the glitz glamour and seductiveness of conventional depictions of the European vampire the soucouyant triggers unease about old age and female power Tracing relevant folklore through the English and French speaking Caribbean the U.S. Deep South and parts of West Africa Anatol shows how tales of the nocturnal female bloodsuckers not only entertain and encourage obedience in pre adolescent listeners but also work to instill particular values about women s proper place and behaviors in society at large Alongside traditional legends Anatol considers the explosion of soucouyant and other vampire narratives among writers of Caribbean and African heritage who in the past twenty years have rejected the demonic image of the character and used her instead to urge for female mobility racial and cultural empowerment and anti colonial resistance Texts include work by authors as diverse as Nobel Laureate Toni Morrison U S National Book Award winner Edwidge Danticat and science fiction fantasy writers Octavia Butler and Nalo Hopkinson Such Devoted Sisters Cathy Linton, 1986 The Complete Directory of Large Print Books & Serials ,1994
