Encyclopedia of Jewish-American Literature Gloria L. Cronin, Alan L. Berger, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Jewish American literature providing profiles of Jewish American writers and their works The Picturesque and the Sublime Susan Glickman, 2000 Winner of the Gabrielle Roy Prize in English and the Raymond Klibansky Prize The Picturesque and the Sublime is a cultural history of two hundred years of nature writing in Canada from eighteenth century prospect poems to contemporary encounters with landscape Arguing against the received wisdom made popular by Northrop Frye and Margaret Atwood that Canadian writers view nature as hostile Susan Glickman places Canadian literature in the English and European traditions of the sublime and the picturesque Glickman argues that early immigrants to Canada brought with them the expectation that nature would be grand mysterious awesome even terrifying and welcomed scenes that conformed to these notions of sublimity She contends that to interpret their descriptions of nature as negative as so many critics have done is a significant misunderstanding Glickman provides close readings of several important works including Susanna Moodie's Enthusiasm Charles G D Roberts's Ave and Paulette Jiles's Song to the Rising Sun and explores the poems in the context of theories of nature and art Instead of projecting backward from a modernist perspective Glickman reads forward from the discovery of landscape as a legitimate artistic subject in seventeenth century England and argues that picturesque modes of description and a sublime aesthetic have governed much of the representation of nature in this country Susan Glickman is a poet living in Toronto She is the author of Complicity The Power to Move Henry Moore's Sheep and Other Poems and Hide and Seek Writing in the Feminine in French and English Canada Marie J.

Carrière, 2002-01-01 This important work considers the contemporary movement of writing in the feminine by examining the work of five women writers from French and English Canada and the dialogue therein with feminist and psychoanalytic theory and theories of ethics Informing the author's interpretations are the ideas of French theorists Emmanuel Levinas Paul Ricoeur Luce Irigaray and Julia Kristeva as well as American feminists Kelly Oliver and Jessica Benjamin Marie Carrière explores the unfolding complex questions of sexual difference female subjectivity and mother daughter relations She also uncovers and examines the occasional breakdown of the feminist ethics postulated by Nicole Brossard France Theoret Di Brandt Erin Mour and Lola Lemire Tostevin Carrière views these instances of deviation not as a failure of writing in the feminine but as an inevitability in the relatively new intellectual terrain of feminist ethics Writing in the Feminine will be of great interest to scholars of literary theory women's studies and Canadian literature in French and English As a challenging study of the connections between gender and authorship it will also appeal to those who have a particular interest in women's literature
