Bunker, 2010-04-13 At the end of 1618 a blazing green star soared across the night sky over the northern hemisphere From the Philippines to the Arctic the comet became a sensation and a symbol a warning of doom or a promise of salvation Two years later as the Pilgrims prepared to sail across the Atlantic on board the Mayflower the atmosphere remained charged with fear and expectation Men and women readied themselves for war pestilence or divine retribution Against this background and amid deep economic depression the Pilgrims conceived their enterprise of exile Within a decade despite crisis and catastrophe they built a thriving settlement at New Plymouth based on beaver fur corn and cattle In doing so they laid the foundations for Massachusetts New England and a new nation Using a wealth of new evidence from landscape archaeology and hundreds of overlooked or neglected documents Nick Bunker gives a vivid and strikingly original account of
