Sir Arthur Eddington Man Of Science My:

The Well and the Shallows G. K. Chesterton, 2015-07-02 One of G K Chesterton s finest collection of essays The Well and the Shallows explore more controversial themes than typically seen in the work of the English writer Written with Chesterton s biting wit he touches on various cultural social and moral issues from birth control to Catholicism Chesterton s perceptive analysis of core issues within modern society remains startling relatable nearly 100 years since its publication Written shortly after his conversion to Catholicism he writes with tremendous foresight focusing on subjects like Catholicism Reformation and Protestantism and other profound writings on political and social issues based around the central theme of religion Essays in this volume include My Six Conversions The Return to Religion The Higher Nihilism The Ascetic At Large Babies and Distribution A Century of Emancipation Trade Terms Shocking the Modernists Sex and Property Why Protestants Prohibit Where is the Paradox The Well and the Shallows is an insightful collection of essays on some of the most important ideas of the modernist era written by one of the greatest English writers of the 20th century It is a perfect read for those interested in the work of G K Chesterton or any with a broader interest in historical social analysis from a religious perspective

Einstein and the Generations of Science David Abshire, 2017-09-29 This absorbing intellectual history vividly recreates the unique social political and philosophical milieu in which the extraordinary promise of Einstein and scientific contemporaries took root and flourished into greatness Feuer shows us that no scientific breakthrough really happens by chance it takes a certain intellectual climate a decisive tension within the very fabric of society to spur one man s potential genius into world shaking achievement Feuer portrays such men of high imaginative powers as Einstein Bohr Heisenberg de Broglie influenced by and influencing the social worlds in which they lived

Faith and Reason Today Varghese J. Manimala, 2008 Of Stars and Men Zdenek Kopal, 2017-10-02 The twentieth century has been a remarkable epoch in the affairs of men and this is no less true of astronomy at once the oldest and most modern of the sciences Sky watchers at the beginning of the century measured positions and predicted celestial motions in faithful but uninspired homage to the Muse Urania nowadays their descendents call on all the resources of modern science to probe the nature and evolution of a bewildering range of celestial objects Man has even set out to call personally on his nearest neighbours in space Professor Zdenek Kopal has lived and practised astronomy throughout this efflorescence of his subject Born in Czechoslovakia just before the outbreak of the Great War and educated in the classical European tradition he knows well the days when scholars commanded such respect that astronomical congresses would be visited by Heads of State Yet within his own lifetime he has himself been recruited to play an important role in scientific preparations for a manned Moon landing He has known and worked with some of the most highly respected practitioners of Modern Astronomy Russell Shapley Urey in the United States Eddington in Britain His fine eye for detail coupled with his strong sense of history enable him to unfold through his personal recollections the development of his subject across the social changes of two world wars Inspired by his grandfather who would think nothing of walking sixty miles to theatrical performance the young Kopal acquired a Wanderlust that has taken him in his career more than a dozen times round the world He has visited the most ancient observatories observed solar eclipses in Japan and Java helped to establish new institutions in Iraq and India and commuted for many years between the Old and New Worlds He has toiled in every corner of his chosen vinyard as observer outstanding theoretician populariser editor and teacher During his thirty years as Professor of Astronomy at Manchester he The Christian Century, 1925 Questioning Your Doubts Christina M.
