Speaking Globally Updated Edition How To Make:

New Religions As Global Cultures Irving Hexham, Karla Poewe, 2018-02-12 Although the Great Anti Cult Crusade links new religious movements to dangerous cults brainwashing and the need for deprogramming Karla Poewe and Irving Hexham argue that many cults are the product of a dynamic interaction between folk religions and the teachings of traditional world religions Drawing on examples from Africa the United States Asia and Europe they suggest that few new religions are really new Most draw on rich if localized cultural traditions that are shaped anew by the influence of technological change and international linkages With the widespread loss of belief in biblical mythology in the nineteenth century new mythologies based on science and elements derived from various non Western religious traditions emerged leading to the growth and popularity of new religions and cults

Speak Better Business English and Make More Money Amy Gillett, Talking Business: Making Communication Work David Clutterbuck, Sheila Hirst, 2012-06-14 Internal communication is a growing field with the number of specialists increasing worldwide In spite of this and vast increases in spending on communication research shows that organizations are finding it difficult to raise the number of employees who feel well informed Now more than ever internal communication does not just concern communication managers In today's lean organizations line managers are taking on more and more of the burden of employee communication and managers of remote offices have to be their own communication managers Talking Business making communication work addresses the key issues in communication within organizations supported by case studies taken from experience of working with global businesses It provides a coherent theory of business communication and shows how a radical difference to communication practice and business performance can be made The authors employ an interactive structure throughout with signposts to link related cases and chapters

International Mother Language Day: Enhancing Home Language Development from a Young Age Natalia Meir, He Sun, Vicky Chondrogianni, 2023-10-05 Being Dead Otherwise Anne Allison, 2023-02-13 With an aging population declining marriage and childbirth rates and a rise in single households more Japanese are living and dying alone Many dead are no longer buried in traditional ancestral graves where descendants would tend their spirits and individuals are increasingly taking on mortuary preparation for themselves In Being Dead Otherwise Anne Allison examines the emergence of new death practices in Japan as the old customs of mortuary care are coming undone She outlines the proliferation of new industries services initiatives and businesses that offer alternative means ranging from automated graves collective grave sites and crematoria to one stop mortuary complexes and robotic priests for tending to the dead These new burial and ritual practices provide alternatives to long standing traditions of burial and commemoration of the dead In charting this shifting ecology of death Allison outlines the potential of these solutions to radically reorient sociality in Japan in ways that will impact how we think about the end of life identity tradition and culture in Japan and beyond
