Speed Racerrace For Life:

Bonneville's Women of Land Speed Racing "LandSpeed" Louise Ann Noeth,2021 At Bonneville record holders must first earn the right to present themselves on the starting line This requires passing rigorous safety and technical checks for driver rider and speed machine Gender is inconsequential Through the years more than 200 women have made the cut and donned fireproof clothing and helmets Dozens have set land speed records 35 in excess of 200 miles per hour six above 300 miles per hour and one deaf female racer who roared past 500 miles per hour Equally impressive are the women who helped propel the helmeted gals into glory Few know how many women are skilled fabricators mechanics crew chiefs and all round land speed racing experts all working out on a brutal merciless and barren sodium soaked playa And for decades dedicated volunteers have not only put down that all important starting line but erected a speed village that inspired tens of thousands to visit taunting the timing lights run after run Since 1949 women have played an integral part Without question land speed racing has more women actively participating and setting records than any other segment of motorsports in the world

Mad for Speed Elsa A. Nystrom,2013-06-06 This book covers Joan Newton Cuneo s life and her roles from 1905 to 1915 as the premier female racer in the United States and spokeswoman for women drivers and good roads Beginning with her family history and marriage to Andrew Cuneo it traces her life in New York society the birth of her children and Joan s growing interest in automobile touring and racing and partnership with Louis Disbrow her racing mechanic The book covers Joan s experiences in three Glidden Tours including her notes on the 1907 tour her first races and her rivals It also looks at the growth and change of automobile culture and the battles for control of racing among the American Automobile Association the Automobile Club of America and the American Automobile Manufacturers Association which ended in banishing women racers shortly after Joan s greatest racing victories at New Orleans in 1909 The book then follows Joan s attempts to continue racing the end of her marriage her move to the Upper Peninsula and her remarriage and death The book also includes a chapter on her female rivals in racing and touring
