The Jeweled Style Michael J. Roberts, 2018-09-05 In The Jeweled Style Michael Roberts offers a new approach to the Latin poetry of late antiquity one centering on an aesthetic quality common to both the literature and the art of the period the polychrome patterning of words and phrases or of colors and shapes In Roberts's view the writer or artist of this period works as a jeweler carefully setting compositional units in a geometric framework consistently demonstrating a preference for effects of patterning over realistic representation and for a unity situated at a higher level than the literal historical sequence of the narrative Roberts's introductory chapter is followed by an anthology of representative narrative and descriptive poetry from the fourth and fifth centuries A D Next Roberts traces the use of jewels as a literary metaphor from the first century A D to late antiquity He then compares the works of late antique literature to wall and floor mosaics ivory diptychs Christian sarcophagi and contemporary styles of dress Emphasizing that the poetry of this period is not uniform he differentiates the main genres of Christian narrative poetry biblical and hagiographical epic from secular examples of the jeweled style such as the poetry of Ausonius and Sidonius Roberts concludes by examining the influence of late antique aesthetics on the medieval poetics of Matthew of Vendôme and Geoffrey of Vinsauf Elegantly written and augmented by twenty three illustrations The Jeweled Style will be welcomed by many readers including Latinists and other classicists medievalists and Renaissance scholars specializing in literature Byzantinists and art historians
