Style and Theme in Reverdy's Les Ardoises Du Toit Anthony Rizzuto, 1971 The Structure of Modernist Poetry (Routledge Revivals) Theo Hermans, 2014-08-01 First published in 1982 this book provides a descriptive and comparative study of some of the fundamental structural aspects of modernist poetic writing in English French and German in the first decades of the twentieth century The work concerns itself primarily with basic structural elements and techniques and the assumptions that underlie and determine the modernist mode of poetic writing Particular attention is paid to the theories developed by authors and to the essential principles of construction that shape the structure of their poetry Considering the work of a number of modernist poets Theo Hermans argues that the various widely divergent forms and manifestations of modernistic poetry writing can only be properly understood as part of one general trend Pierre Reverdy. Sensibility and Creation Roger Cardinal, 2025-05-01 Sensibility and Creation 1977 comprises a dozen critical studies by different contributors on a selection of major French poets of the twentieth century These range from poets of long established reputation such as Paul Valéry Pierre Reverdy Saint John Perse and Paul Eluard to contemporary poets such as Yves Bonnefoy and Jacques Dupin The guiding theme is that of the characteristic sensibility which informs the creative work of each poet the way he has of selecting and patterning the elements which make up the world he inhabits and which in a sense he is also creating In some instances the poetry is examined for its selective textures and shapes and in others the critical focus is more closely directed to the linguistic and stylistic strategies adopted by the writer Guide to French

Poetry Explication Kathleen Coleman, 1993 A Reverdyan Riddle Zachary Taylor Ralston, 1984 Frank O'Hara Now Robert Hampson, Will Montgomery, 2022-04-02 Frank O'Hara's writing is central to any consideration of 20th century American poetry This collection of essays the first to be dedicated to O'Hara in nearly two decades asks why O'Hara remains so important to 21st century readers and writers of poetry The book is transatlantic in tone combining American scholarship with a wide sampling of British writers For many O'Hara's distinctive appeal depends on his witty depictions of urban experience his relationship to the painters of Abstract Expressionism and the exhilarating immediacy of his poetic voice Yet these chatty and approachable qualities coexist with a testing engagement with currents in European and American modernism Frank O'Hara Now offers a comprehensive picture of the poet presenting the conversational insouciance of the writing alongside its more intransigent features Reverdy Translations Pierre Reverdy, Martin Bell, 1997 Roof Slates and Other Poems of Pierre Reverdy Pierre Reverdy, 1981 The Cubist Poets in Paris LeRoy C. Breunig, 1995-01-01 One can only marvel at the instinct of Parisian painters to keep their art in the hands of poets Robert Motherwell At the height of the Cubist movement in Paris no fewer than fifteen significant poets kept company with the painters Every writer had his painter said Blaise Cendrars I myself had Delaunay and Liger Max Jacob had Picasso Reverdy Braque and Apollinaire had everybody The painters illustrated the poets poems and painted their portraits the poets wrote the painters praise and defended them in journalistic wars They loaned each other money gave shelter to each other in times of need inspired each other and fortified each other s resolve through thick and thin The Cubist Poets in Paris evokes the capital city of Cubism in all its flamboyant bustle It includes groups of poems by Guillaume Apollinaire Pierre Albert Birot Blaise Cendrars Jean Cocteau Sonia Delaunay Paul Dermie Pierre Drieu la Rochelle Charlotte Gardelle Vicente Huidobro Max Jacob Marie Laurencin Hilhne Baronne d Oettingen Raymond Radiguet Pierre Reverdy and Andri Salmon Each poem is presented in French and in English translation Fifteen illustrations suggest the painters close ties with the poets including works by Juan Gris Giorgio de Chirico and Liopold Suvage LeRoy C Breunig has taught at Cornell University Harvard Columbia University and at Barnard College where he was Dean of Faculty and interim president He has edited Guillaume Apollinaire s Chroniques d art and Apollinaire on Art His articles have appeared in Mercure de France Comparative Literature and Yale French Studies
