Styles Of Creation Aesthetic Technique And The Creation Of Fictional Worlds:

Styles of Creation George Edgar Slusser, Eric S. Rabkin, 1992 The impetus behind this collection of original essays is the tension between the aesthetic emphasis on stylistics in science fiction and fantasy writing and the critical limitations imposed by prevailing literary theory From a variety of perspectives the contributors show how a new or expanded set of methods and models can enrich critical exchange within the genre and between it and other types of fiction The focus of the book is not entirely on critical restraints but also on the genre's robustly subversive creative drive its unwillingness or inability to pause for critical validation The essays examine the proliferation of stylistic acts and experiments in science fiction and fantasy writing as assess the genre's revolutionary qualities its reordering of narrative priorities inversion of consecrated categories and elevation of minor devices Styles of Creation Eaton conference, 1989 Styles of Creation : Aesthetic

Techniques and the Creation of Fictional Worlds George Slusser, Eric S. Rabkin, 1996 Book on science fiction styles of writing New Approaches in Teaching History Frederic Krome, 2024-02-14 Science fiction literature and film are an underappreciated source for the teaching of history Finding material that can excite a student's curiosity can be a key towards greater student engagement especially among students who are taking history as a requirement rather than from interest The discovery that they can read or watch science fiction as part of their classwork often comes as a pleasant surprise Beyond its popularity however utilizing science fiction for class assignments has certain pedagogical advantages it introduces students to new vistas in historical thought helps them learn how literature and film can be applied as a primary source and can encourage participation in projects that are enjoyable Each chapter provides case studies focusing on a different subject in the modern history curriculum and in addition to providing an analysis of specific texts and or cinematic sources gives suggestions on assignments for the students Science Fiction Before 1900 Paul K. Alkon, 2013-04-15 Paul

Alkon analyzes several key works that mark the most significant phases in the early evolution of science fiction including Frankenstein Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court and The Time Machine He places the work in context and discusses the genre and its relation to other kinds of literature The Shape of Fear Susan Jennifer Navarette, 2021-05-11 During the last decades of the nineteenth century Charles Darwin Thomas Henry Huxley Walter Pater and others changed the nature of thought concerning the human body and the physical environment that had shaped it In response the 1890s saw the publication of a series of remarkable literary works that had their genesis in the intense scientific and aesthetic activity of those preceding decades texts that emphasized themes of degeneration and were themselves stylistically decompositive with language both a surrogate for physical deformity and a source of anxiety Susan J Navarette examines the ways in which scientific and cultural concerns of late nineteenth century England are coded in the horror literature of the period By contextualizing the structural stylistic and thematic systems developed by writers seeking to reenact textually the entropic forces they perceived in the natural world Navarette reconstructs the late Victorian mentality She analyzes aesthetic responses to trends in contemporary science and explores horror writers use of scientific methodologies to support their perception that a long awaited period of cultural decline had begun In her analysis of the classics Turn of the Screw and Heart of Darkness Navarette shows how James and Conrad made artistic use of earlier scientific readings of the body She also considers works by lesser known authors Walter de la Mare Vernon Lee and Arthur Machen who produced fin de siècle stories that took the form of hybrid literary monstrosities To underscore the fascination with bodily decay and deformation that these writers explored The Shape of Fear is enhanced with prints and line drawings by Victor Hugo James Ensor and other artists of the day This elegantly written book formulates a new canon of late Victorian fiction that will intrigue scholars of literature and cultural history Biology and Manners Regina Yung Lee, Una McCormack, 2020 An essay collection that significantly expands previous scholarly writing on award winning science fiction and fantasy author Lois McMaster Bujold arguing for the significant contributions her works make to feminist and queer thought disability studies and fan studies Fighting the Future War Frederic Krome, 2012-03-22 The period between World War I and World War II was one of intense change Everything was modernizing including our technology for making war witness machine guns trench warfare biological agents and ultimately The Final Solution This modernization and eye toward the future was reflected in many facets of pop culture including fashion home wear design and the popular literature of the time In sci fi a specific genre emerged that of the future war Fred Krome has collected many of these future war stories together for the first time in Fighting the Future War Bolstered by a comprehensive introduction and introduced with historical information about both the authors of the stories and the historical time period these stories provide a view into the field of pulp science fiction writing the issues that informed the time period between the world wars and the way people envisioned the wars of tomorrow Revealing anxieties about society technology race and politics the genre of the future war story is important material for students of history and literature Animated 'Worlds' Suzanne Buchan, 2007-02-20 What do we mean by the term animation when we are discussing film Is it a technique A style A way of seeing or experiencing a world that has little relation to our own lived experience of the world In Animated Worlds contributors reveal the astonishing variety of worlds animation confronts us with Essays range from close film analyses to phenomenological and cognitive approaches spectatorship performance literary theory and digital aesthetics Authors include Vivian Sobchack Richard Weihe Thomas Lamarre Paul Wells and Karin Wehn Bridges to Science Fiction and Fantasy Gregory Benford, Gary Westfahl, Howard V. Hendrix, 2018-02-20 The J Lloyd Eaton Conferences on Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature long held at the University of California Riverside have been a major influence in the study of science fiction and fantasy for thirty years The conferences have attracted leading scholars whose papers are published in Eaton volumes found in university libraries throughout the world This collection brings together 22 of the best papers most with new afterwords by the authors presented in chronological order to show how science fiction and fantasy criticism has evolved since 1979 Science Fiction

Literature through History Gary Westfahl, 2021-07-19 This book provides students and other interested readers with a comprehensive survey of science fiction history and numerous essays addressing major science fiction topics authors works and subgenres written by a distinguished scholar This encyclopedia deals with written science fiction in all of its forms not only novels and short stories but also mediums often ignored in other reference books such as plays poems comic books and graphic novels Some science fiction films television programs and video games are also mentioned particularly when they are relevant to written texts Its focus is on science fiction in the English language though due attention is given to international authors whose works have been frequently translated into English Since science fiction became a recognized genre and greatly expanded in the 20th century works published in the 20th and 21st centuries are most frequently discussed though important earlier works are not neglected The texts are designed to be helpful to numerous readers ranging from students first encountering science fiction to experienced scholars in the field Gregory Benford George Slusser, 2014-02-28

Gregory Benford is perhaps best known as the author of Benford's law of controversy Passion is inversely proportional to the amount of real information available That maxim is a quotation from Timescape Benford's Nebula and Campbell Award winning 1980 novel which established his work as an exemplar of hard science fiction dedicated to working out the consequences of modern science rather than substituting pseudoscience for fantasy Like many other current science fiction writers Benford has tackled the major genres space travel time travel technology running amok prolonged longevity searing apocalyptic cosmic events and alien life which he theorizes to be more likely viral than intelligent An astrophysicist by training and profession Benford has published more than twenty novels over one hundred short stories some fifty essays and myriad articles that display both his scientific rigor as well as a recognition of literary traditions In this study George Slusser explores the extraordinary seemingly inexhaustible display of creative energy in Gregory Benford's life and work Presenting Benford's ideas on science and the writing of science fiction the volume addresses the writer's literary production and his place in contemporary science fiction By identifying direct sources and making parallels with other works and writers Slusser reveals the vast scope of Benford's knowledge both of literature and of the major scientific and philosophical issues of our time Slusser also discusses Benford's numerous scientific articles and nonfiction books and includes a new interview with Benford The Encyclopedia of Fantasy John Clute, John Grant, 1999-03-15 Like its companion volume The Encyclopedia of Science Fiction this massive reference of 4 000 entries covers all aspects of fantasy from literature to art The Seven Beauties of Science Fiction Istvan Csicsery-Ronay, 2012-10-01 This major critical work from one of the preeminent voices in science fiction scholarship reframes the genre as a way of understanding today's world As the application of technoscience increasingly transforms every aspect of life science fiction has become an essential mode of imagining the horizons of possibility Though the broad scope of science fiction may vary in artistic quality and sophistication it shares a desire to imagine a collective future for the human species and the world A strikingly high proportion of today's films commercial art popular music video games and non genre fiction are what Csicsery Ronay calls science fictional stimulating science fictional habits of mind We no longer treat science fiction as merely a genre engine producing formulaic effects but as a mode of awareness which frames experiences as if they were aspects of science fiction The Seven Beauties of Science Fiction describes science fiction as a constellation of seven diverse cognitive attractions that are particularly formative of science fictionality These are the seven beauties of the title fictive neology fictive novums future history imaginary science the science fictional sublime the science fictional grotesque and the Technologiade or the epic of technoscience s development into a global regime

The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction Mark Boulton, Andrew M. Butler, Sherryl Vint, 2024-06-13 The New Routledge Companion to Science Fiction provides an overview of the study of science fiction across multiple academic fields It offers a new conceptualisation of the field today marking the significant changes that have taken place in sf studies over the past 15 years Building on the pioneering research in the first edition the collection reorganises historical coverage of the genre to emphasise new geographical areas of cultural production and the growing importance of media beyond print It also updates and expands the range of frameworks that are relevant to the study of science fiction The periodisation has been reframed to include new chapters focusing on science fiction produced outside the Anglophone context including South Asian Latin American Chinese and African diasporic science fiction The contributors use both well established critical and theoretical approaches and embrace a range of new ones including biopolitics climate crisis critical ethnic studies disability studies energy humanities game studies medical humanities new materialisms and sonic studies This book is an invaluable resource for students and established scholars seeking to understand the vast range of engagements with science fiction in scholarship today Chapter 39 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Global Science Fiction Gary Westfahl, 2025-06-18 Science fiction represents a diverse community of writers and readers that spans the entire world This collection provides a global tour of the genre with essays about Latin American European African Arabic Indian Japanese and Chinese science fiction providing insights about how writers around the world have explored and reinvigorated the genre Essays by prominent critics from five continents inform about particular cultures and analyze representative texts by authors such as Tobias S Buckell Lourenço Mutarelli Stanisław Lem Masande Ntshanga Tawfiq Al Hakim Anil Menon and Cixin Liu The contributing scholars examine how national experiences have shaped these narratives which often differ strikingly from Anglo American science fiction An introductory survey of foreign language science fiction in the United States endeavors to explain why so many of these texts have remained unknown to Anglophone readers An extensive bibliography lists numerous resources for further study of science fiction from various parts of the world

Rhetorics of Fantasy Farah Mendlesohn, 2014-01-01 This sweeping study of fantasy literature offers new and often surprising readings of works both familiar and obscure A fine critical work Journal of the Fantastic in the Arts

Transcending arguments over the definition of fantasy literature Rhetorics of Fantasy introduces a provocative new system of classification for the genre Drawing on nearly two hundred examples of modern fantasy author Farah Mendlesohn identifies four categories portal quest immersive intrusion and liminal that arise out of the relationship of the protagonist to the fantasy world Using these sets Mendlesohn argues that the author's stylistic decisions are then shaped by the inescapably political demands of the category in which they choose to write Each chapter covers at least twenty books in detail ranging from nineteenth century fantasy and horror to some of the best works in the contemporary field Mendlesohn discusses works by more than one hundred authors including Lloyd Alexander Peter Beagle Marion Zimmer Bradley John Crowley Stephen R Donaldson Stephen King C S Lewis Gregory Maguire Robin McKinley China Miéville Suniti Namjoshi Philip Pullman J K Rowling Sheri S Tepper J R R Tolkien Tad Williams and many others
